MILLHEIM

Christian Endeavor Group Rally.

The rally held in St. Luke's Evangelical church, Millheim, was attended by representatives from Centre Hall, Rebersburg and Millheim. H. L. Fletcher, county vice-president, presiding. Prof. W. J. Weidemeyer had charge of the music. Rev. H. C. Kieffel read the Scriptures and Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick offered prayer.

Mr. Strunk, county president, in a very able manner presented the work of the Christian Endeavor. Miss Markie, of State College, spoke on the "Quiet Hour." Rev. Kirkpatrick, of Centre Hall, spoke on "Our Responsibility to the Community." He said in part: A knowledge of Christ is needed. 1st, train the body; 2nd, train the mind; 3rd, train the heart. The community is responsible for the youth in the church and out of the church; that the community that fails to assist the youth would be cursed (Judges 5:23). The address was timely and was well received by the congregation.

The meeting adjourned with the benediction.

The county rally will be held in the U. B. church, Bellefonte, May 18th, afternoon and evening.
