

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

W. C. T. U. meets at the home of Mrs. Charles A. Miller, Sturday evening, at 7:30.

Mrs. Ada Butz arrived from Miami, Florida, on Monday, and will spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. S. F. Greenhoe.

The First National Bank has on display several denominations of the new paper money our dear old Uncle Sam is issuing.

Mrs. C. P. Long, of Spring Mills, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is not improving, the Reporter regrets to say.

W. F. Keller, the rural mail carrier on Route one from this office, is taking his annual vacation. James Brooks is acting substitute.

The front of the residence and business place of S. M. Campbell, in Millheim, are being improved by the construction of a concrete curb and water course.

95 degrees of heat on Memorial Day and then 33 (one degree above freezing) on Sunday night. Such have been the vagaries of the weather manduring the past week.

The family of the late John H. Weber take this means of thanking their neighbors and friends for their kindness during the last illness and subsequent death of Mr. Weber.

Roy Clements, proprietor of the Millheim Inn, was a caller here on his return from Bellefonte, on Monday. He has been at the Inn for several months and reports business growing.

Mrs. Charles Hosterman is very seriously ill at the Woodward Hotel, her home. She is the mother of Charles Hosterman, one of the party to develop the Woodward and Alexander caverns.

Mr. and Mrs. Gervin Skaeffer, married but recently, began housekeeping in a part of the Mrs. Mary Stahl house, west of town. Mr. Skaeffer is regularly employed at the Kerlin poultry plant.

The Hosterman & Stover Company, in Millheim, will roof the farm residence of John F. Treaster, west of town. Asbestos shingles, manufactured by the Johns-Manville Company, will be the class of roofing used.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Stover and Mrs. Abner Stover, of Berea, Ohio, drove east and were among their friends and relatives here for a day or more. Their main objective was Montgomery, where Rev. James Stover, a brother of the gentlemen, is very seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith, Robert Bloom and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Emmet Brooks, on Wednesday went to Altoona to attend the funeral of Frank Miller, an account of whose death appears elsewhere in this issue. Mrs. Brooks remained with her sister, Mrs. Wm. A. Miller, in Altoona, while the remainder of the party returned home after the funeral.

The Centre County Sunday School convention will be held in the Church of Christ, Bellefonte, the evening of June 29th, and all day of the 21st. We would like to have every school in the county represented at the convention by two delegates and pastor and superintendent. Everybody welcome—Committee.

Mrs. Margaret Godshall was brought to her home here by her brother, George Kline, of Avia, from the Altoona hospital, where her father, John A. Kline, underwent an operation for hernia. His condition prior to and after the operation was regarded very serious, but since he has improved so much that good hopes are entertained for his recovery, notwithstanding his advanced age.

Albert Grove, son of former Commissioner D. A. Grove, of Bellefonte, who will this month complete his junior year at Pennsylvania State College, in the course of landscape gardening, will be one of several students who will tour Europe during his summer vacation in the interest of his future work. The students accompanied by two professors, will sail from New York, July 18th. They will visit England, France, Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Germany and Italy. They expect to be away until August.

Mrs. Bessie Weber Dunham, of New York, returned to her home on Monday. She was called here on account of the death of her father, John H. Weber. Speaking of the work the New York Tribune Fresh Air Fund is doing, Mrs. Dunham related that her eldest son, Robert, was physical instructor at Goochue Horn, an endowed institution where East side children are sent for two-week periods during summer months. The children sent there are those not fortunate enough to be sent to the country.

High School Teachers Elected.

Teachers for the local High school for the 1929-30 school term were elected at a meeting of the school board, Monday evening. Miss Sarah Neff's resignation made a vacancy in the faculty which was filled by the election of Miss Agnes Geary, who will be graduated from Penn State this month.

The other three teachers in the High school were re-elected, namely, Prof. J. F. Wetzel, supervising principal; G. Robert Neff and J. R. Haney.

The Civic Club will not meet again till the first Tuesday in September.

Crimes of 300 Years Ago

Traces of crimes committed in the sixteenth century have been discovered near Neustadt (Germany). Workmen digging on a site occupied in the Middle Ages by a hostel for pilgrims unearthed two human skeletons. The hostel was kept by a mother and her son, and it was discovered in 1907 that for years they had been killing and robbing rich foreign pilgrims, burying the bodies beneath the cellar floor. The son's sweetheart overheard a conversation between the two criminals and denounced them. Mother and son were beheaded in the public square of Muesbach.
