Kieffel, Millheim, were the orators of the day. Addresses were delivered at St. Paul's cemetery; Greenville Reformed cemetery; Booneville

Lutheran cemetery, and Tylersville Lutheran cemetery. The Howard band furnished music. In the evening the order held a festival at Tylersville which was attended by a large crowd of people.

THE BIG HOLIDAY EVENT OF THE SEASON—CHAUTAQUA

Counting the days—hours, minutes before the big "All-Star" Festival? Everybody is! Because it's a superb presentation of a new idea in entertainment. Each attraction, and there are several entirely new and decidedly different ones, is a fine feature act. There are two orators—Dr. A. S. Beshore and Dr. John E. Aubrey—who present in their own inimitable way thoughts, and humorous ones, too, on subjects you are interested in. But the big idea behind the Chautauqua is entertainment for you—melody, music and merriment—that will beguile you to smile—regale you in laughs and make memories of the evenings mean more than any experience ever before.

Under contract for appearance here is the finest talent obtainable in the amusement field. The standard announced for the new "All-Star" Festival program is "Does it give 100 per cent. entertainment?"—and it does!

The Dietrichs, Magicians, The Tooley Opera Company—in "H. M. S. Pinafire" and "Musical Moments"—The Geraldine Brace Entertainers, and a Broadway cast in the dramatic laugh sensation, "Her Temporary Husband," and "Cinderella for the Night" are just a few of the world beating entertaining acts on the "All-Star Festival" program.

The dates are Saturday, Monday and Tuesday—June 22, 24 and 25; the place, Grange Park Auditorium.
