

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. George Hazel, of Bellefonte, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Delaney, at Old Fort.

Miss Mollie Hoffer, of State College, was in town last week, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk and other friends.

While coming down Nittany Mountain, one day last week, the large Cadillac car driven by Clifford S. Thomas skidded and in doing so struck the guard posts and cables, greatly damaging the car. Mrs. Ruth Thomas was with Mr. Thomas, but neither of them was injured.

Mrs. Carl Bohn, of Akron, Ohio, returned to her home after visiting for two weeks in Bellefonte and Millheim, at the latter place with her parents, Mrs. Bohn was formerly Miss Helen Neese, night superintendent of nurses at the Centre County Hospital, and spent a great deal of her time with the nurses at the institution there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner, their daughter, Mrs. Helen Brumbaugh, and granddaughter, Cora Jean Brumbaugh, all of Juniata, motored to Centre county, Tuesday, and while the ladies remained at State College, Mr. Wagner drove to Centre Hall on a bit of business connected with his company, the Shaffer Stores Company, Inc., of which he is the secretary. The Reporter was pleased to have Mr. Wagner call while in town.

Monday, Dr. Hugh Morrow kindly conveyed his son, Hugh Morrow, Jr., Franklin Moyer and Muth Bailey to Camp Keneosake, on Spruce Creek, where they will be under religious training for a week. This is the opening week of the camp. The boys there are of the Grammar grade in the public schools, and this is the first experience of camp life of the boys named above. Next week girls of the same age will go into camp for a week. The boys from town are sponsored for by the Lutheran Sunday school here. Next week Bettie Ehrlich will be sent by the same school for the second year of training, and the Presbyterian Sunday school will be sponsor for Loraine Brunart, who takes her first year, and Isabel Bradford will enter on her second year's work.

Bond O. Musser, manager of the Oriole Store, in Millheim, had the misfortune last week to cut a long gash in his left hand while cutting meat. The piece of meat he was holding cut made a turn, throwing the knife in such a manner as to strike the back of the hand and then the palm.

Miss Nellie Smith, superintendent of the Steubenville (Ohio) hospital, was accompanied to the home of her father, J. Frank Smith, in Bellefonte, by Mr. and Mrs. Quinn, also of Steubenville. Ira Bartley, of Spring Mills, one of the caretakers of the State Highway Route No. 45, devised a sprayer and uses it in repairing his section of road. A barrel of oil is heated, the sprayer attached, and presto! the old method of amassing the oil on the road with a can is obsolete. It is a great saving of time and labor, and the work done is very much better than that done the old way.
