LOCAL AND PERSONAL Chautauqua is coming back next year. The Senior Service class of the Lutheran Sunday school will hold its monthly meeting today (Thursday) at Sunset Club house. The offering for the Leysville Orphans' home at the recent children's service rendered by the Lutheran Sunday school here, was $70.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Green and son Westcott, of Oak Hill Station, left for Illinois this week where they will spend a month of more visiting friends. James Beck, farmer east of town, is suffering from the effects of a nail having penetrated his foot, on Monday. Both a crutch and cane are needed to locomote. The Evangelical S. S. of Tusseyville will hold a picnic at Woodward Cave on Saturday, June 29. Everybody is invited to bring their friends and their baskets—Order of School.

Recent visitors at the Kirkpatrick home were: Rev. C. W. Bryney and son Leon, of Danville; Corwin Johnston, of Spring Run; Mrs. Charles Jones, of Alexandria; Miss Grace White, of Three Springs; Mrs. Rosa Hough and Mrs. Hubert Haugh, State College. Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Delaney and daughter Edith were to Remola on Sunday to attend the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. David Wense. All the children—nine in number—and their families, were present for the celebration.

The Yankee Run Fishing and Hunting Club held their annual picnic at their camp four miles east of Lamar, on Wednesday of this week. About 30 persons enjoyed the day's outing, including Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huytt, of town, Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Bieber and daughter, Miss Frances, of Indiana; Mrs. Bieber's mother, Mrs. Vincent, and her sister, Mrs. McDowell, and daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tressler and son, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummings motored to Pittsburgh last week, where they visited Mr. Cummings' brother, Lester. They then drove to Woodlawn to visit another brother, Earl, and sister, Mrs. Leslie Miller. From there to Ohio and into West Virginia. In Pittsburgh they visited the large stock yards and were through the large packing house; also Heinz's large canning factory.

W. B. Fredrick, wife and daughter, Miss Rhoda, of Holton, Kansas, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coldron in Centre Hall. Mrs. Fredrick is the mother of Mrs. Coldron by a former marriage. Mr. Fredrick, who is a painter and decorator, had not been east for fifteen years or more. Another guest at the Coldron home is Miss Michael Keister, of Youngstown, Ohio, a niece of Mrs. Coldron. Miss Keister just graduated from a Youngstown high school, having taken one in a class of 240 students.

Those who have joined since the organization of the Troop are: Graver Smith, Eugene Emrick, George Heckman, Robert Walker and Warren Confer.

DEATHS

PINKLE.—Robert F. Finkle, a well known farmer in Gregg township, who for many years lived on the David Finkle homestead in Georges Valley, died Sunday afternoon. Wednesday previous he was stricken with paralysis, which greatly affected his right side and rendered him speechless. His condition grew gradually worse until death relieved him at the time named. Interment was made in the cemetery at the Holy Cross Lutheran church, nearby, on Wednesday morning. The officiating minister was Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, pastor of the deceased. The deceased is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Miss Margaret Confer. There were no children, but the home sheltered many—some for long years. Among these was Bessie Wolf, now wife of Harry H. Deckler of near Jersey Shore, who was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Finkle. Calvin J. Finkle, of Spring Mills, is a surviving brother of the deceased.

BEEZER.—Joseph W. Beezer died at his home in Bellefonte, on Saturday, at the age of 62 years, after an illness of three months from complications. He was long employed in the Beezer meat market and was engaged there until his last illness. Funeral services were held on Monday; interment in Bellefonte. The deceased is survived by a widow, who before marriage, 39 years ago, was Miss Martha Heckman, a daughter of the late Daniel Heckman; also these children: Benjamin J., Russell P., Martha C., Mary M., of Bellefonte, and Mrs. H. L. Londo, of Green Bay, Wis. Also these brothers and sisters: Alois, Frank, Christ, Augustus, Mrs. Joan Garris, and Mrs. Charles Kustaborder, all of Bellefonte.

BARTLEY.—Mrs. Chester C. Bartley, 42, a native of Gregg township, died at her home in Lock Haven on Thursday, following an illness of a complication of diseases. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Beck, survive with her husband and two sons, Miles, of Lock Haven, and Victor, of Penns Grove, N. J. The following brothers and sisters survive: Samuel Beck, of Brush Valley, a twin brother; Charles, of New York; Perry, of Johnstown; Mrs. J. N. Shaeffer, of Flemington; Mary, Irene and Eugene, at home. Funeral services were held Saturday at Yearick's church in Brush Valley, Rev. J. F. Schechter officiating.

MUSSER.—Mrs. Amanda Catherine (Stover) Musser died at her home in Aaronsburg after an illness of ten days of paralysis, aged 77 years, 4 months and 22 days. She was a member of St. Peter's Reformed church of Aaronsburg. She was married August 5, 1875, to David M. Musser, and the union was blessed with seven children, five of whom, with the father, passed to their reward some years ago. Surviving are two daughters: Lotte M. and Lorilla H. Musser, both of Aaronsburg; also a brother and two sisters—Mrs. Agnes Stover, of Millheim, and C. J. Stover and Mrs. L. M. Orndorf, both of Woodward.

ISHLER.—William J. Ishler died at his home in Buffalo Run valley, following an illness of some weeks with heart trouble. He was a son of John P. and Jemima Ishler and was born in Benner township 55 years ago. In 1897 he married Miss Sarah Stamm, who survives with the following children: Earl, Homer and Mrs. Charles Parsons of State College; William, Fred, Robert, Dean and Budd, at home. He also leaves his father and a number of brothers and sisters: Luther Ishler, of Jacksonville; Mrs. Willard Dale, of Bellefonte; Harry, of Pleasant Gap; John, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Robert Kerstetter, Mrs. W. R. Gentzel and Mrs. C. W. House, all of State College. Funeral services were held in the Buffalo Run church on Friday afternoon, burial in the Meyers' cemetery.

CUPPLES.—Robert Howard Cupples, son of Robert L. and Viola (Jeffries) Cupples, died at the home of his parents, 222 West Fifth Street, Lewisport, aged 24 years. He was a brother of Charles L. Cupples, formerly merchant here, where the young man occasionally assisted in waiting on trade and will be recalled by many of our readers. He was a student in Susquehanna University until the beginning of April when he was obliged to abandon his studies owing to ill health. Death was due to Bright's disease.

Mrs. Ellen Frank died at the home of her son, John, at Lock Haven. She was a member of the Loganton Evangelical church. Surviving her are two sons, Kline, of Jersey Shore, and John, of Lock Haven, and a number of grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at Greenburr on Sunday afternoon, Rev. A. C. Paulhamus, of Loganton, officiating. Rev. J. B. Mays, of Jersey Shore, preached the funeral sermon, assisted by Rev. H. C. Kleffel. Interment in Greenburr cemetery.

RAYMOND—REARICK.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. David Rearick, of near Centre Hall, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on June 19, when Miss Anna Rearick was married to Fred Raymond, of near Centre Hall. The ceremony, which took place at 8:00 P. M., was performed by Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, pastor of the bride. The bride wore a gown of white ivory georgette. Her veil was of white silk tulle arranged in cap effect and fastened with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of beautiful white roses. Sarah Rearick, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a smart frock of pink georgette and carried a shower of pink roses. Luella Rearick wore a rose colored dress of lace and georgette. She played an attractive waltz by Wachsa. Florence Rearick wore a spring green dress of georgette and played the Lohengrin wedding march by Wagner. She also sang "O Promise Me." John Fortney served as best man.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rearick and children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rearick, Mr. and Mrs. James Royer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ritter, James Raymond, father of the groom, and Rev. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick. After the ceremony the guests were served a delicious buffet luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond took a wedding trip to Gettysburg, Washington, D. C., and Mt. Vernon, Va., returning home Sabbath evening. The bride taught school during the past five years—one year near Philadelphia and four years at Export. The groom is a successful agriculturalist. Many and useful gifts were received by the young people. We wish them many years of wedded bliss.—A guest.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.
