

DIES OF INJURIES SUSTAINED WHEN STRUCK BY AUTO

Mrs. Jacob O. Confer, who was struck by an automobile and seriously injured Wednesday forenoon of last week, died on Friday noon at the Bellefonte hospital. Mrs. Confer rode on a bus from her home at Pleasant Gap to that of her sister, Mrs. Wallace White, at Axe Mann, and on alighting from the bus stepped from the rear of it into the path of a car driven by Oscar Lenker, of Mill Hill, who was going in the opposite direction. When picked up she was taken to the hospital where it was discovered she sustained severe head injuries and a broken collar bone. No hopes were entertained for her recovery from the beginning.

Funeral services were held from the home at Pleasant Gap on Monday afternoon, and burial made at Zion. Services were conducted by Rev. C. A. Metzgar.

The deceased before marriage was Miss Hettie Norah Gingerich. She is survived by her husband previously named and these sisters and brothers: Mrs. David Raymond, Sunbury; Mrs. Wallace White, Axe Mann; Mrs. Katie Summers, Centre Hall; Samuel Gingerich, Centre Hall; John Gingerich, Brownsville; Grant Gingerich, Clearfield. The surviving children are: Miss Sue Confer, Philadelphia; Mrs. Richard Myers and G. Ray, Montour Falls, N. Y.; Alton, Rockview; Lee and Fred, at home.

WILL THE GRANGERS AGREE?

The Reporter has reason to think that the Grange Fair committee is turning in its mind the idea of securing a supply of water independent from that obtained from the borough plant. There are no available springs in all this section that might be used, so the only water supply procurable would be one from a well drilled at some convenient point on its part of seventy acres. The ridge lying on the north side of the park yields an abundance of water from springs and wells at points farther west, and there is little doubt but that a well drilled on the park heights would also yield a goodly supply of water.

A well on the heights could be turned into a source of revenue through-out all of the summer months, and during the Encampment and Fair period, a flow of quarters and half dollars that would materially swell the net profits of the association. To accomplish this would mean the erection of a swimming pool, the necessary expenditure for which is entirely within the means of the association's treasury. With a swimming pool, modern in form, and equipments on the side, Grange Park would be a most attractive point for gatherings throughout the entire summer season.

Has Civil War Officer's Collapsible Writing Desk.

G. C. King, of Spring Mills, has the collapsible writing desk used during the Civil War by Lieut. Commander McClain Buchanan, until that Naval officer lost his life by a bullet at the age of 24 years. The desk when collapsed represents a suitcase and measures 8 inches wide, 21 inches long and 8 inches deep. It can be unfolded and provides sufficient desk room for ordinary business, together with pigeon hole space, compartments for carrying correspondence paper, etc. It is constructed of a peculiar polished wood, bound at the edges in copper. Commander Buchanan, who was a native of Spring Mills, had command of the Gunboat Calhoun when he was shot, and probably used the collapsible desk while serving in the Navy on a shipboard. He lost his life in 1862 and the desk was returned to his people at Spring Mills. Mr. King obtained the desk 32 years ago by purchase.

SEARCH FOR SLAIN DEER AND FIND BOOZE

Arrest Two In Hunting Camp for Law Violations—Hold Number on Liquor Charge.

Fined $100 each for shooting a deer out of season, Harry Wingard, of Coburn, and Edward Finkle, of Spring Mills, were in county jail early last week. The fines were imposed by Squire Kline Woodring, at a hearing in his office in Bellefonte.

Wingard and Finkle were arrested by Game Protector Thomas Mosier, of Bellefonte, assisted by Miles Reeder, game protector of Union county, Arthur Snyder, a fish warden, and A. H. Hartwick, of Coburn, one of Mosier's deputies.

Investigation led them to the cabin occupied by Wingard and Finkle. Finkle was implicated in the recent wholesale looting of hunting cabins in that section according to the officers, and his presence in this cabin aroused the suspicions of the wardens.

A search of the place resulted in the officers finding the deer meat but it also brought to light evidence of other unlawful operations, as a quantity of alleged liquor and parts of a still, indicated that the place had been recently the seat of a moonshiner's activities.

Wingard and Finkle admitted shooting the deer and in default of the fines were taken back to the jail. The alleged whiskey found by the game wardens was brought to the jail also and turned over to Sheriff Harry Dunlap.

Elmer Hoover of Penn township said to be the owner of the cabin, was arrested by Sheriff Harry Dunlap and charged with possession and manufacture of the liquor which was found there. He waived a hearing and furnished bail for his appearance at the next term of court.

GREGG TOWNSHIP SCHOOLS WILL OPEN MONDAY

Two New Teachers Will Serve at the Vocational School.

The schools in Gregg township will open for the term 1929-30 on Monday morning, September 2nd. Parts of the interior of the two buildings have been repainted during the summer months. Other repairs and equipment have been added to all the schools where needed and all is in readiness for the opening next week.

A good sized number of students have been certified for entrance to the Vocational School, which means that the enrollment for the coming year will be larger than that of the past school year.

Several new teachers have been employed by the board to fill vacancies in the Vocational School and one-teacher schools in the district. The instructors in the Vocational School will be as follows: Curtis M. Watts, director; John W. Decker, supervisor of agriculture; Miss Mary M. Lobb, supervisor of home economics; John L. Phillips, assistant supervisor of agriculture; Miss Genevieve Wieland, assistant supervisor of home economics and Miss Mildred E. Heller, academic.

Miss Lobb for the past three years has served as assistant in the Home-making work, and has been very successful in this work; she will serve as supervisor for the coming year. Miss Wieland, who will be the assistant teacher in homemaking, graduated in the home economics course at the Penna. State College this spring. Her practice teaching work was done at the local school last winter where she established a fine record.

Miss Mildred E. Heller of Hollidaysburg, will teach English and French. She is a graduate of Cornell University and has had three years successful teaching experience in the field which she will teach. The other members of this year's faculty have taught one or more years at the school. All of the members of the teaching staff are college graduates and with the exception of Miss Wieland, who will enter her first year of teaching, have had several years of teaching experience. Miss Lobb spent the summer doing graduate work at Columbia University.

The grade and rural school teachers in the township are:

Grammar—J. Russell Condo; Intermediate—A. L. Duck; Primary—Miss Orle Wagner; Logan—Miss Rosella Heckman; Penn Hall—Miss Sarah Vonada; Beaver Dam—Miss Carrie Heckman; Decker—Miss Mary Corman; Cross Roads—Miss Adeline Bradford. A teacher for Hoy school was not been announced. Paul Weagley, who had been employed to teach at Hoy has resigned in order that he may accept a position in the bank at Spring Mills.

Phillips Farm Sold.

The Phillips farm lying north of the State highway through Brush Valley, owned for some years by F. M. Fisher, was sold by him to Paul Wise, now living on the Bartzes farm, Penns Cave district. The farm contains about 140 acres, and the purchase price is said to be about $7000.

Rebuilding Road Through Penns Valley Narrows.

The section of road through Penns Valley Narrows lying in Centre county, to be rebuilt and resurfaced similar to that about completed from Hadry John's park, east. The road bed will have a uniform width of eighteen feet, and some of the most severe curves will be eased. The work is being done by the State Highway Department. During the past week the equipment for crushing stone at the quarry west of Woodward, near the creek road, was put in operation. The stone will be hauled to the Narrows over the creek road. Among the workmen employed at the quarry is C. A. Sypher, of this place, who has had large experience in that class of work, and has been made manager at the quarry. Charles Miller, of town, is also employed there.

COLLEGE ANNOUNCES 1929-1930 CALENDAR

The calendar of the Pennsylvania State College for the year 1929-1930 as adopted by the college senate and approved by Dr. Ralph D. Hetzel, president of the college, calls for the opening of college on September 25, a twelve-day recess at Christmas, one day at Thanksgiving, and five days vacation at Easter. While the opening of the college in the fall is six days later than was the case last year, the Christmas vacation beginning December 21 and ending January 2, is shortened one week and Easter recess has been cut down three days. A longer recess between semesters, from February 1 to February 12, is provided, while the second semester is scheduled to end June 5, which is eight days earlier than was the case last year.

More than 900 of the quota of 1170 new students for the freshman class have sent notices of acceptance of admission. Of these 779 are men and 143 women. The quota for women students is 170. Enrollment in the six undergraduate schools is to be practically the same as last year.

No person can be a good safe automobile driver unless he thinks about driving every moment he is out. He must regard every one he meets on the road as a potential trouble maker.

Pennsylvania poultrymen will tour to State College September 16 and 17 for a meeting at the college the evening of the 17th and the following day.

MORE THAN 3000 LIVING IN TENTS.

The Three Hundred Fifty Temporary Canvas Homes on Grange Park House About 3500 for the Week—Many Requests for Tents Could Not Be Filled.

One of the most pleasing and leading features of the Grange Encampment and Fair now on Grange Park, Centre Hall, is camping. Each year since the temporary canvas home for a week was introduced, some forty years ago, it has been growing in popularity until the present day. The camp association has been increasing its tents each year, but has never been able to keep abreast to the demand. A pretty accurate count this year reveals about three hundred and fifty tents. These average in population not less than ten persons, making a total of permanent residents for the week of 3500 persons.

Below is given the official list of heads of families who are the lessees of tents for the week:

Centre Hall

Jacob Sharer, D. K. Keller, A. H. Spayd, Clyde Dutrow, G. W. Ralston, Charles Andrews, I. M. Arney, V. A. Auman, C. D. Bartholomew, George O. Benner, Mrs. D. L. Bartzes, Mrs. Della Reiber, Daniel Bloom, William C. Boozer, Shannon Boozer and William Bradford, D. W. Bradford, Milton Bradford, Paul Bradford, Mrs. F. E. Deady, Mrs. Grace Smith and Mrs. Clyde Smith, J. C. Brooks, Jewett Brooks, Richard Brooks, S. C. Brungart, Fred Bender, Guy Brooks, John Burkholder, Harry Burris, William Colyer, John Delaney, T. F. Delaney, Ralph Dingler, Mrs. A. Bee Durst, Mrs. John Durst and Mrs. Wm. McClenahan, Claude Dutrow and Daniel Colyer, John Dutrow, Mrs. George Emerick, C. E. Emery, J. A. Eungard, George Fetterolf, Mrs. Wm. Fetterolf, Frank Fisher and Wm. Keller, Ryder Frank, Harry Fry, Roy Garbrick, Frank Geary, Frank Goodhart, James Goodhart, Samuel Gross, Ralph Hagan, George Heckman, John Heckman, Mrs. Lucy Henney and Wilbur Henney, Mrs. Henry Homas, Ralph Homan, Wm. Homan, Stella Hosterman, John Knarr, Mrs. George Long, Clement Luse, Mrs. Mildred Luse, Perry Luse, Harry McClenahan, William McMorran, Thomas Moore, Dr. Hugh Morrow, Clarence Mueser, Mrs. Mary Neff Charles Neff and Adam Smith, W. F. Risher, Bruce Rinkle, Mrs. Mary Ritter, Roy Schaeffer, Roy Seanson, J. Fred Slack, Smith & Bailey, Thomas Smith, Willard Smith, Paul Spayd, C. A. Spyer, George Sweeney, Mrs. Mary Stahl, Mrs. Brooks Stump, Ralph Tressler, Wm. Brooks Foster, John Earl, Lutz, William Walker, Floyd Walker, John Whitman, John Zerby, Roy Sharer.

Bellefonte

Harry Alters, W. C. Auman, C. C. Baumbardner, C. A. Baumgardner, Mrs. John Benner, Fred Bitts, R. N. Brooks, Willard Dale, Mrs. C. G. Decker, H. W. Fry, George Bloom, Harry Corman, L. E. Biddle, James Bilger, Virgie Bilger, Simon Dugan, Mrs. Homer Dunkleberger, Marlon Getzler, A. C. Grove, A. C. Hartle, Mrs. Henry Houser, Edward Houser, Mrs. Frank Houser, Ellis Houser, Christ Houtz, Siney Hoy, Mrs. Frank Irvin, Mrs. Mary Ishler, Ray Ishler, Reeder Jodon, Thomas Jodon, N. S. Jones, Mrs. Clyde Lee, D. L. Keller, M. M. Keller, D. M. Kline, Mrs. Jack Nojl, Frank Millward, Cornelius Muser, H. M. Mueser, S. I. Poorman, Samuel Reish, J. E. Ripka, Willis Ripka, Henry Shuey, George Showers, A. D. Smeltzer, Mrs. H. D. Shively, Clarence Shirik, Charles Speicher, S. T. Stemly, Edward Sommers, Mrs. Solt and Mrs. Wm. Straub, Roy Swartz, Lloyd Stover, Grover Spearly, John Spearly, Albert Thompson, W. W. Tate, Mrs. Harry Ulrich, Mrs. Robert Weaver, Mrs. Frank Weaver, Merrill Weaver, Roy Yarnell, Charlie Zettie.

Spring Mills

Jennie Albright, A. S. Allen, Russell Condo, Bright Bittner, J. K. Bittner, Dr. H. S. Braucht, Lee Brooks, Guy Corman and Wm. Smith, A. C. Confer, A. H. Confer, J. W. Evans and Ellis Hendrich, C. J. Finkle, Foster Frazier, Arthur Grove, D. F. P. Heckman, J. C. A. Heckman, E. T. Jamison, Charles Krape, Austin Long, C. P. Long, Clair Ott, Rev. Newman, Ralph Shook, J. Gross Shook, C. B. Stover, Walter Wolf, D. W. Sweetwood, M. T. Zolber, Grover Walker, John Vonada, Jacob McCool, J. W. Crater.

Boalsburg

E. H. Dale, Mrs. Ruth Gearhart, Earl Ross, John Kline, George Mothersbaugh, Ralph Rockey, Mrs. John Wright.

Oak Hill Station

Luther Dale, Mrs. Nannie Gilliland, Frank Ishler, M. K. Green, Elmer Lander, Charles Ross, Wagner family, Mrs. Charles Whitehill, H. D. Callahan, Ray Williams, Glenn Zong, H. C. Hassinger, Claude Whitehill, Edward Zong, Clifford Korman, Forest Evey, John Schreck, Dora Shuey, Mrs. Harvey Shuey, Jesse Shuey, Arthur Peters, Frank Whitehill.

Governors to Celebrate Light's Golden Jubilee.

The Governors of five States will mark Light's Golden Jubilee, the fiftieth anniversary of the perfection of the electric incandescent lamp by Thomas A. Edison, with proclamation. The Governors, who, to date, have scheduled official state participation by the issuing of a proclamation are: Governor M. F. Larson, of New Jersey, the State in which Mr. Edison resides; Governor John G. Richards, of South Carolina; Governor John C. Phillips of Arizona; Governor Harr G. Leslie of Indiana; and Governor R. C. Dillon of New Mexico.

CENTRE HALL, 7; BOALSBURG, 4.

Locals Take First Game in Grange Fair Week Contests.—Keen Rivalry Between Clubs.

Boalsburg and Centre Hall opened up the season of ball games on Grange Park for Fair Week, on Saturday. Centre Hall taking the contest, 7 to 4. Both teams were primed for a battle royal, and such the game was destined to be. Boalsburg still felt the sting of the defeat at the hands of the locals on July 4th, and they desired nothing so much as to avenge that defeat, but fate (or was it Harry Gross and his co-workers) decreed otherwise.

Gross opened the game against Boalsburg with a display of speed and curves that completely took the heart out of the visitors for the first six innings. Only four mealy singles had been gathered up to this time, without any being scored, whereas Centre Hall fell onto the bases with a vengeance and scored seven runs by the close of the fourth. The third inning won the game for the locals. Stover opened with a hit; Keller sacrificed him to second; "Peely" Mueser made a bad throw on Emery's rap to third; P. Martz's hit scored Stover; Fetterolf's hit scored Emery; Martz's infield hit filled the bases, and George Goodhart's two-base smash scored two. The locals' other scoring of two runs came in the very first inning on three successive hits by Goodhart, Gross and Crawford. In the other six innings Fisher held the locals scoreless and improved in his pitching so that he yielded only one hit in the last four innings. Boalsburg, on the other hand, did their most effective work during the last period of the game. In the 7th, 8th and 9th innings they fell on to Gross for eight hits and scored four times. True, errors figured largely in the run-getting, but the fact remains that Boalsburg was gradually solving Gross' delivery, but the advantage gained by the locals in the earlier part of the game was too great to overcome.

High lights in the game were Dale's and Mueser's fielding for Boalsburg, the general good work of the locals' infield, and Gross' striking out the hard hitting Dale with the bases loaded in the third, much to the chagrin of the High school teacher in particular and to Boalsburg's fair rooters (of whom there were a bunch) in general.

While Boalsburg has failed to take Centre Hall's measure this season, they however have made a grand record in winning 36 games out of 47 played, a total of games played which in itself is a record for a country nine.

Last, but not least, was Harry Lonberger's umpiring. Congratulations upon his fair decisions,—but this is to be expected from one who has always been a credit to the great game.

Saturday's box score follows:

BOALSBURG	R	H	O	A	E
Myers, c.....	0	2	3	2	0
Mueser, 2b.....	1	2	2	2	2
O Spicer, 2b.....	0	0	0	3	1
Dale, ss.....	1	2	5	0	0
Fisher, p.....	1	14	0	0	0
Ralston, cf.....	2	1	0	0	0
Dale, 1b.....	1	1	0	0	0
Lonberger, rf.....	0	0	0	0	0
Gingrich, lf.....	1	0	0	0	0
Totals.....	4	12	24	13	3

CENTRE HALL	R	H	O	A	E
Fetterolf, cf.....	1	1	0	0	0
R Martz, ss.....	1	4	0	1	1
Goodhart, 3b.....	2	1	2	0	0
Gross, p.....	1	0	1	0	0
Crawford, 1b.....	1	7	0	1	0
Stover, c.....	1	5	1	0	0
Keller, lf.....	0	2	1	0	0
Emery, cf.....	1	0	0	0	0
P Martz, 2b.....	1	3	3	4	0
Totals.....	7	10	27	9	3

Boalsburg Here Labor Day.

A good game of baseball is assured for Labor Day, when the strong Boalsburg team will meet Centre Hall on the High school field.

Resigns Position as Teacher Here.

William H. Haney, who for the past few weeks has been at Rising Sun, Maryland, as a field man, has accepted a permanent position with the Sheffield Farms Company, and will be located in the Maryland town named Rising Sun in a town about the size of Centre Hall and is located in a fine dairy-farming section. The Sheffield plant there has a patronage of 286 dairymen, who aim to produce milk of a butterfat content of four per cent, and over. To accomplish this Guernsey and Jersey cows are almost exclusively used. The milk at present is all bottled and consumed at Newark, N. J., and shore points. Later in the season the New York City market will afford an outlet.

The acceptance of this position by Mr. Haney necessitated his resigning as teacher of the Grammar grade school here, which was done a few days ago. He taught that school here two years.

Lingle Farm Sold—$2500.

The Lingle farm, at Colyer, belonging to the estate of the late Florence Estie Lingle, was sold by her administrator, Edgar Miller, and John Lingle and H. L. Ebricht, guardians of Nancy Lingle, for $2500, to Ernest Treast. There were two tracts, one of thirty acres and another of fourteen acres. On the former buildings were located and the latter was a timber tract.

Potatoes today are high enough in price to make them a popular dish.

Mad Dog in Lewisburg.

Lloyd Lose, of Lewisburg, was bitten on the palm of the hand by his dog, and suspecting that he animal might be mad, he killed him and had the head sent in to Harrisburg for analysis. The dog was afflicted with a genuine case of rabies and Mr. Lose was advised to take the Pasteur treatment at once. Burgess Miller has issued a quarantine on dogs, to take effect immediately, and no dogs will be allowed loose on the streets.

The fall session of the 1929-1930 term at Pennsylvania State College will officially open September 25th.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mueser and the former's sister, Mrs. J. C. Rabold, all of Altoona, were among friends on Grange Park, on Sunday.

With the foreman, Levi Hartley, ten men now comprise the track crew here. The men put on recently are Albert Smith, Paul Martz and Clyde Bradford.

Miss Margaret Wilder, of Jersey Shore, is here for the week to attend the Grange fair. She is being entertained by Mrs. Alice Durst at her camp tent home.

David K. Geiss, of Philadelphia, formerly a resident of this place, recently celebrated his ninetieth birthday. Considering his age he is most physically fit.

Miss Florence Love, of Hollidaysburg, is being entertained this week by Mrs. Frank Bradford, and is spending most of the time on Grange Park, not visited by her for twenty years.

It is definitely decided that Troop D, Pennsylvania State Highway Patrol, is to be located at Williamsport, and will be under Captain J. M. Bender. The full strength of the troop is sixty men, but at the beginning there will be only eighteen men.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick is pleased over the instruction given at Grove City College Bible School, after attending a ten-day session there recently. Many prominent Presbyterian ministers and some from other denominations occupied the platform.

Hoover Noll, of Pleasant Gap, who was unable to work for several weeks owing to an injury to nose of his feet, is back to the White Rock Quarry plant again. His ankle refuses to respond properly, but he thinks time will bring it back to normal.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Dunlap, of Reading, are on Grange Park for the week. Rev. Dunlap takes his vacation at this time, as a rule, and he and Mrs. Dunlap find much pleasure in meeting large numbers of their acquaintances who gather there from all sections.

Eugene F. Lee, the obliging clerk at the First National Bank at Spring Mills, has tendered his resignation to take place Sept. 1st. He intends to go to Philadelphia to take a business course in banking and book-keeping. Joseph Weagley will succeed Mr. Lee.

W. Paul Biddle, editor of the Huntingdon Daily News, was taken suddenly ill in his office Wednesday morning of last week at 8 o'clock. He gave the exchange his home telephone number, but was unable to call for help. He was found in a serious condition from heart trouble.

The last cow sale held by T. E. Jordon at his sales stables at Pleasant Gap, was one of the best sales held in a long while. Twenty-four dry Holsteins were sold by Auctioneer E. M. Smith at an average of $188.75. The highest priced cow was $310.00. John Snavely, a local dairyman east of town bought six of the best cows sold.

If you step onto a person-weighting machine and find you are a few pounds above or as much below your actual weight and want to get more about it, you have the privilege of reporting the inaccuracy and causing the machine to be sent to the scrap pile. Pennsylvania has a law that will condemn inaccurate person-weighting machines if complained about.

Robert Burns of Muncy, county detective of Lycoming county, Mrs. Burns and their three children, and Mrs. Burns' mother, Mrs. Mary Snyder, were her on Sunday for a short visit at Grange Park to see friends and relatives.

Mr. Burns has his hands full running down violators of the 15th amendment, and is making a good and honorable record for himself.

The Shaffer Stores Company, successors to the Oriole here, had the front of their store room repainted by a crew of artists who are permanently engaged in that work. The color scheme is yellow, which color characterizes the Shaffer stores everywhere. The work was done during the latter part of last week by Dick Kelley, William Von and Anthony Dellisondo, of Altoona.

The silk throwing mill at Mifflinburg is to be enlarged by the addition of a building 70x20 feet, which with the equipment will cost from $60,000 to $70,000. The mill now employs about 95 persons with an annual payroll of $100,000. The addition to the mill now being built will increase the employees and payroll by twenty per cent.

Harry Frederick Burkholder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Burkholder, of Sewickley, is a guest at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder, of near town. He came here with his parents, who went on to Atlantic City, and from there to East Stroudsburg to visit A. R. Burkholder. On their return they will stop at Centre Hall and Grange Park.

Rev. James J. Glenn, of Carlisle, accompanied by his son, Ryle, came here on Saturday and remained until Monday afternoon. Rev. Glenn delivered the sermon on Sunday in the auditorium, Grange Park, and expressed gratification over the attentiveness of his hearers and the general exceptionally good conduct of the large number of persons who gathered on the park on Sunday. Rev. Glenn is a native of Penns Valley and is serving a Presbyterian pastorate in Carlisle.