POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FIRST DAYS OF SCHOOL.

All over the country preparations were completed last week for the opening of the new school year, and busy mothers assembled outfits to get the youngsters into shape for their fall work. Teachers have been saying goodbye to summer with its relaxations or its intensive studies, planning to meet their pupils and begin the year's campaign of instruction.

These students are a varied assemblage. Their ages cover a wide range from that of the "pre-school" to the advanced scholars working for degrees of high attainment. With some the thirst for knowledge only increases with the years. It is said that the democracy of education in this country tends to general intelligence but not to the degree of scholarly research as it is to be found in the old world. We should not let the wide diffusion of knowledge interfere with those intensive pursuits by which the race discovers and advances.

However that may be we rejoice in the broad opportunities offered to our youth and depend on our schools to raise up men and women who will be the backbone of our republic. We are never satisfied with our school system and are keen to find better ways, a healthy sign of progress.

In the past teaching was one of the few vocations open to women. Now their opportunities to enter different and congenial fields are countless. So it is only those who desire to teach who follow this vocation. Hence there must be more young women peculiarly fitted to their task who are now guiding the young minds.

DEATHS

CARIS.—Rev. Daniel Clayton Caris, only child of Philip and Mary Agnes Caris, was born near Madisonburg, June 4, 1879, and died at the Williamsport Hospital following an operation for appendicitis, August 27th, aged 50 years, 2 months and 23 days. On June 14, 1909, he was joined in holy matrimony with Miss Catharine A. Bickel, of Mill Hall. He is survived by the widow, daughters Ruth and Miriam, of the late home; a son, William, of Williamsport, and a daughter, Mrs. Agnes Belle Keller, of Bellefonte; the aged parents, of Madisonburg, and an only grandchild, William, Jr., of Williamsport.

Rev. Caris was favored with a good home and early Christian training. When but 14 months old he was consecrated to God in the rite of Holy Baptism by the Rev. Daniel Kline, during a season of camp meeting held in a grove near his home.

The deceased received his education in the public schools of his home community and in a select school at Rebersburg. During a brief career as a public school teacher, he received his call to the Gospel ministry. In 1907, he was licensed a preacher on trial, by the East Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Association of North America, and assigned to the Spring Mills circuit. Two years later he was granted ordination and made Deacon. He served the following fields of labor: Spring Mills circuit, 1907-'09; Penns Valley charge, 1910-'12; located, 1913; Birdsboro, 1914; Penns Valley charge, 1915 and 1916; located 17-'29. At the 1923 conference, that following the merger of the two bodies of the Evangelical Church, he was received into the Central Pennsylvania conference, in the relation of an itinerant deacon, and in March, 1929, was assigned to the pastorate of the Dushore charge, thus giving nearly ten years of his life to the active ministry.

Funeral services were conducted at the Philip Caris home and the Madisonburg Evangelical church, Saturday morning. Services were in charge of the local pastor, Rev. J. R. Schectery. The sermon was preached by Rev. A. F. Weaver, of Lewisburg. Scriptures were read by Rev. W. L. Kamble, of Penns Creek, and Rev. H. P. Maneval, of East Prospect; prayer was offered by Rev. W. J. Dice, of Lewisburg, Rev. W. C. Bierly, of State College, and Rev. L. M. Dice, of Lewistown. The music was rendered by the local church choir and a ministerial quartet composed of Revs. H. H. Jacobs, G. C. Gabriel, J. H. Fleckenstine and N. L. Hummel, all resident of Williamsport. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. W. E. Smith of Centre Hall, and Rev. H. C. Kleffel, of Millisim, pastors of the neighboring charges. Burial was made in the Madisonburg Evangelical cemetery.

Included in the large concourse of attendants of the funeral services were more than a score of parishioners of the deceased from the Dushore charge—17 fellow ministers and seven minister's wives.

STUMP.—After an illness extending over a period of several months, due to a paralytic stroke and advanced age, Mrs. Eliza Jane Stump passed out of this life early Wednesday morning, making the third death in the home within a year.

The deceased was a daughter of William Smetzler, and was reared in Potter township. Her husband, who died in 1883, was Reuben Stump, a Civil War veteran. An only daughter, Mrs. Samuel Stump died a few months ago. Surviving the deceased is a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Emerick, who cared for her during her last illness and a brother, James Smetzler, Endicott, N. Y. She was aged 81 years, 1 month and 14 days.

Funeral services will be held from the home on Saturday morning.

HACKENBURG.—Frank Hackenburg, a resident of Coburn, was found dead on the porch of his home on Monday morning at 7:00 o'clock, death having been caused by a stroke of apoplexy. He had attained the age of 73 years, 5 months and 19 days. He was born in Middleburg and was a son of Frank and Mary (Moyer) Hackenburg. In 1879 he was married to Miss Annie M. Grimes, now deceased, as are also the parents. There were no children, but these brothers survive: Charles and James Hackenburg, Millheim; and George Hackenburg, Middleburg.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the home; services by Rev. H. C. Kleffel, pastor of the Evangelical church, who was also pastor of the deceased.

SCHNURE.—Miss Louise Schnure died on Monday of last week at the home of her nephew, James L. Decker, east of town. Interment was made in the Schnure cemetery, above Laurelton, on Friday. The deceased was aged 81 years, 2 months and 7 days. Mark Schnure, of Millisburg, is an only surviving brother. Mrs. Philip Durst, now deceased, was a sister. She made her home with the Decker family during the past ten years.

FAUBLE.—Mrs. Martin Fauble died at her home in Bellefonte Thursday morning of last week, lacking a few days of 82 years of age. She was born in Germany, and was a daughter of Isaac Loeb, but had lived in Bellefonte for seventy years.

Surviving her are the following children: Adolph and Mrs. Blanch Schlosser, of Bellefonte; Mrs. W. E. Seel and Mrs. E. F. Tausig, of Harrisburg; Mrs. Irvin O. Noll, of Lansdowne, and Joseph of Ashland, Ohio.

Funeral services were held at her late home Sunday afternoon.

LOCALS DROP TWO GAMES DURING WEEK OF FAIR

Baseball games during Encampment and Fair week were good, but not different.

Centre Hall engaged in three contests and came off victorious in only one, that against Boalsburg, which we recited to you last week. On Wednesday, Milroy took the game, 6 to 5, largely because of Kerstetter's good pitching for Milroy, who allowed only six hits, while Milroy was collecting thirteen off Crawford. By the way, Milroy proved to be the local team's hardest nut to crack all season, since in three attempts Milroy came off victorious three times.

The box score of the C. H. Milroy game:

Table with columns: Player, R, H, O, A, E. Rows include MIlroy, Mowery, Barnett, Hettling, J. Brown, Wagner, Meeter, Aurand, Miller, Kerstetter, etc.

CENTRE HALL HAVEN GAME A WOW!

Thursday's game with Lock Haven was witnessed by a record breaking crowd—and what an exhibition! If the crowd liked to see hitting, they got it, for Centre Hall landed safely 19 times, while Lock Haven hit Gross for 15 safeties—everything from a single to three-baggers. While the locals outbit the visitors, the latter won the game, 15 to 12. Our old bean goes into a whirl when attempting to describe the game, which ran the gamut from the spectacular to the weird.

The cold figures in the accompanying box score are the best we can do by way of a picture of the game:

Table with columns: Player, R, H, O, A, E. Rows include Passell, Andrews, Hetzel, Heltman, Vonada, Walzoff, Magee, Renninger, Hedrich, etc.

FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College.

GET READY FOR HARVEST—Prepare harvesting and packing equipment before the apples are ripe. Be sure that there are plenty of ladders and picking bags ready. Get necessary supplies for the grader, and provide a good supply of crates and baskets. Delays at picking time are costly.

KEEP HENS LAYING—A moist mash may help to maintain egg production during the rest of the summer. Some poultrymen are finding it profitable to moisten the regular laying mash with milk and water for the birds' noonday feed.

SAVE WINTER SUPPLY—Squash are not ordinarily given the place and attention which they deserve. If you are growing squash or pumpkins this season, save the mature ones for storing. A warm, dry storage is desirable because it is easy to keep clean and can be used in many ways during the winter, say State College vegetable specialists.

GRADING IS GOOD PRACTICE—Proper potato grading accomplishes two important results: First, it recognizes the requirements, preferences and prejudices of the consumer. Second, standard grades adhered to properly establish a common language between buyer and seller in which they can deal with mutual confidence and understanding.

The Water Situation Here.

In some localities—an unfounded rumor was circulated to the effect that the water supply at the borough plant was so low that it was proposed to postpone indefinitely the Grange Encampment and Fair. The fair is now over, and without rain to freshen up the springs the supply of water has not been appreciably lessened from what it was a month back. There was at all times during the fair an abundant supply of water throughout the town and on the park. There was no occasion for alarm, not even had a fire occurred. There was many times the amount of water in the reservoir as was used at any fire we have ever had. A pretty close estimate made reveals that every individual supplied water from the borough water plant, now uses an average of sixty-three gallons—one gallon less than two barrels—every twenty-four hours. In some of the larger cities it is aimed to supply seventy-two gallons of water per day for each individual, which is thought to be a very liberal ration. So we must come to the conclusion that we are well favored with an abundance of water and are using enough to quench thirst and keep clean, and up to this time have some left in storage.
