

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Edward Durst is sporting a new Willys Knight two-door sedan, with wire wheels.

County Treasurer L. L. Smith is issuing hunting licenses for the approaching hunting season.

Carl Auman, of Steubenville, Ohio, was at his home here during the beginning of the week.

The West End fair, at Laurelton, is looked for Friday and Saturday. It is the big affair in the west section of Union county.

Sidney Riegle, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Riegle, was brought here beginning of this week from Ohio suffering from a bad case of shattered nerves.

Guy W. Jacobs came in from Steubenville, Ohio, Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Eliza Leach, at Boalsburg, that day. He returned to his home the following day.

A daughter was born Sunday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Linglé, in town, and has been named Mildred Ruth. She has two brothers who point with pride to the fact that their sister was nine pounds big on arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miller, of Barryville, Virginia, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meyer and other friends and relatives in and about Spring Mills. Mr. Miller and his father-in-law, Wm. Sinkabine, are in the garage business in Virginia.

A third letting for the construction of 1.68 miles of concrete road between Milesburg and Bellefonte boroughs resulted in a bid from the George I. Thompson Company, Clearfield, of $125,394. This was one of twelve road projects the bids for which were opened on Friday.

Evangelistic services commenced in the Sprucecreek Methodist church last Sunday night, with a good opening attendance, and a splendid interest is being manifest. Neighboring ministers will preach during this week. A welcome is extended to all to attend the services.

Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Greenhoe and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, on Thursday, drove to Millintown by auto, where they spent a part of the day with Rev. J. M. Reardon, who has been ill for several weeks. They found him much improved, and able to sit on the front porch.

Frank O. Moyer, of Cleveland, Ohio, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation, the greater part of which time will be spent in Centre Hall. Mr. Moyer is a talented musician and also an expert stenographer, and as such is employed by the Union Paper and Twine Company, in Cleveland.

R. D. Gingerich and wife and their son, William Gingerich, and the latter's wife, of Arch Springs, made their annual auto trip through here to visit relatives and acquaintances, among whom are Mrs. Belle Whitman and the Boals. The junior Mr. Gingerich is purchasing agent for the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company at Tyron.

Mrs. Mary E. Christian, after visiting here for two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. T. L. Moore, was accompanied to her home by Mr. and Mrs. Moore, on Friday, in time for the Home-Coming Day at Elysburg. Rev. and Mrs. Frederic Moore, of Meadersburg, were also guests at the Moore home, having brought two Penn State students here on Monday.

Harry Detweiler has been offered the directorship of the Cochranville (Chester county) Vocational school. For some time he was supervisor of agriculture in the same institution, and it is the good record made there that induced the school board in control to offer him the advanced position. Mr. Detweiler is a native of Miles township and his wife was a former school girl here, Miss Nona Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Camp and son, Harry Camp, of Tyron, stopped in town for a few minutes on their way from Millroy to their home. Mr. Camp conducted the furniture and undertaking business here prior to 1900. He was the first furniture dealer to take up that business here after the "cabinet maker" J. O. Deininger and later Ezra Krumbine had gone out of business. In undertaking he followed Jacob Höpka, who in the early history of the town conducted that business in the north section of town.

George L. Hörner, of Pleasant Gap, whose looks belie his 71 years, was a pleasant caller at the Reporter office a few days ago. He was happy in his recent visit with his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Zimmerman, of McKeesport, where they were guests of their son, Wallace Hörner, and family. Upon returning home they were agreeably surprised to have awaiting them two other sons from the west—Elmer E. Hörner and wife, of Auburn, Illinois, and Clair Hörner, wife and son, of Freeport, Ill. The Hörner family are a devoted group and their large family gatherings are always occasions for much merrymaking.

Penny Seeks to Drop Train on Snow Shoe Branch.

Discontinuance of a mixed passenger and freight train daily on its Snow Shoe branch in Centre county was sought by the Pennsylvania Railroad in an application received by the Public Service Commission the other day.

The train is the only means of passenger conveyance on the branch line, extending for 17 miles and is the connecting link with the Lock Haven-Tyron line. An "extreme" loss of revenue was given as the cause for seeking abandonment.

changed his plea from that of not guilty to that of guilty, was called for sentence and upon being asked questions by the Court seemed to evade and the Court sent him back to the jail to consider.
Comm. vs. Albert Frank, indicted for violation of liquor laws. Defendant came into court and plead guilty and sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $50.00 and placed on probation for period of three years.

State Patrol Moves.

The State Highway Motor Patrol offices are about to be moved into their new quarters on third floor of Temple Court building, Bellefonte, and, of course, will be in charge of Captain G. Harry Keller and staff.

The local patrol, a part of Troop D, with headquarters at Williamsport, will be augmented by the addition of First sergeant W. C. A. Bear and Chief Clerk H. L. Price, while the patrol itself will remain unchanged for the present, as will also the headquarters be continued on East Bishop street. One of the features of the new office will be the installation of a new State-wide criminal news service. The equipment at the Bellefonte office will consist of a typewriter automatically operated from a district office, which will type a full description of the crime on a paper tape.

No marriage licenses were issued in Centre county since the last issue of this paper was printed.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stine, of Tyron, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dinges. The former is a retired P. R. R. yard man.

POTTERS MILLS.

Charles Foust and wife, of Potters Mills, are visiting at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Boal.

Miss Malinda Evans, of Williamsport, who had been visiting at the O. H. McCormick home for some time, has returned home.

Edward Foust and family, of West Chester, visited over the week end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carson. Mr. Foust returned home on Sunday while Mrs. Foust and children are visiting her parents.

Merrill Copenhaver, who had been employed in West Chester for the summer, has returned home.

The Stork paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, September 2nd, and left a baby boy.

Miss Marie Copenhaver and gentleman friend, of Tyron, visited on Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. E. Foust.

The Centre Reporter, $1.50 a year.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Delaney and daughter, Agnes, Mr. and Mrs. John Lingé and daughter Martha, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews and daughters Elsie and Thessa, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Delaney and children Earl, James, Edith, Lois; also Emory Floray, Benjamin Gentzel and Mrs. Winifred Delaney of Lock Haven, on an auto trip across the Ligonier Mountains, ate at dinner at Whispering Pines beyond Tylerstown. After dinner they visited friends at Monesson, and came home by way of Seven Stars.
