DEATHS

Gharret—At the advanced age of 82 years, 5 days, John Gharret passed away at his home at Smulton on Saturday morning, from paralysis of the bowels. Funeral services were held on Wednesday in the Lutheran church at White Deer.

The deceased was twice married. The second wife survives as do these children: Mrs. Mary Snyder, Northumberland; Mrs. Lizzie House, Dubois; Mrs. H. T. Gharret, Milton; Sarah Kale, Milford; Gharret, and Verna Neptune, of Akron, Ohio; John D. Gharret, Philadelphia; Harry Gharret, of Green Bury; Charles Gharret, of Lock Haven; Sarah Burt, Wolf; Clarence; Earey Miller, Churchtown; Mary Barker, Georges Valley; Margaret Foust Shakespeare, Milton; Mrs. Jones Montague, Philadelphia; Erma Helm, Altoona; David Gharret and Susan Ballet, Lewisburg.

HACKENBERG. — Mrs. Minerva Hackenberg, wife of Orlando Hackenberg, died on Friday at her home north of Woodbury. Funeral services were held Monday morning; burial at Aaronburg. She was aged 61 years.

The deceased was a daughter of Emanuel and Harriet (Wert) Swartz. She was a sister of the late Harvey Swartz who lived near Centre Hall before going to Union county. Two children, a son and a daughter, survive her.

Death followed an operation for strangulated hernia.

AIKEY.—Mrs. Myra Carson Aikey, aged 51 years, died at her home in Bush Addition, Bellefonte, Thursday evening of last week, following twelve weeks' illness from the effects of a paralytic stroke.

She is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. Lewis Haupt and Mrs. Mildred Gehret, of Bellefonte; and Malcolm and Gwendolyn, at home. She also leaves two brothers and five sisters: Clark and William Carson, Mrs. John Spearly, Mrs. Harry Lyons, and Mrs. Walter Armstrong, all of Bellefonte; and Mrs. Benjamin Aikey and Mrs. John Corman, of Curtin.

Funeral services were held at her home Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. Homer C. Knox. Burial in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

SCHRACK.—Mrs. Jennie M. Schrack, widow of Austin Schrack, of near Booneville, died at the home of her son, George, with whom she resided, Wednesday of last week, after an illness of several weeks with heart trouble. She was aged 68 years, and was a member of the Lutheran church at Booneville. She is survived by her son George, with whom she lived, a sister, Mrs. W. L. Wolfe, of Booneville, and two brothers, George A. and W. Howard Klepper, both of Lock Haven.

The funeral services were held at the residence of her son on Monday morning, conducted by Rev. Miles R. Smeltz. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the Lutheran church at Booneville.

HARSHBARGER.—Merritt J. Harshbarger, of Hubersburg, died at the Centre County Hospital following an illness of complications, aged 21 years, 11 months and 27 days. He was born at Hubersburg and was a son of William and Anna Harshbarger, both of whom survive, in addition to one sister, Rosa N., at home. Funeral services were held in the Hubersburg Reformed church, in charge of Rev. Harry A. Hartman; interment in the Reformed church cemetery.

GLENN.—Thomas Glenn, son of the late Andrew and Susan Glenn, passed away at the home of his brother, James Glenn, of the Branch, near Lemont, aged 53 years. The deceased was born at the Glenn homestead on the Branch. He is survived by his brothers, James Glenn, of the Branch, and George Glenn, of State College. Funeral services were held from the home of his brother, George Glenn, in State College; interment in the Branch cemetery. Rev. Samuel Martin and Rev. J. Max Kirpatrick, of the Presbyterian church at Lemont, of which he was a member, officiated at the funeral.

HAINES.—Archie A. Haines died at his home in Des Moines, Iowa, following an illness of six months of complications. He was the youngest son of John Ambrose and Amanda Haines, both deceased. He was born near Spring Mills, August 12th, 1882, thus he was only 47 years of age. After the death of his father in 1903, he returned with his brothers, Frank and William, to their homes in Iowa, where he stayed a few years and then went to his sister in South Dakota. Later he went farther west in South Dakota and filed a claim on government land on which he had to say three years. There he was 25 miles from a railroad and postoffice, also ten miles from neighbors. After the three years he returned to visit his friends and relatives in this State, remaining here for about a year. Soon after his return to Iowa, he married Miss Myrtle Hicks, who survives. There are also remaining three brothers and six sisters: Frank E., of Canyon, Texas; W. B., of Des Moines, Iowa; John H., of Aaronburg; Mrs. Katharine Musser, of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Thomas Jones, of Scotland, S. Dakota; Mrs. Sue Stamm, of Milton; Mrs. Annie Eisenhuth, of State College; and Miss Amanda and Cora Haines, of Aaronburg. He is the third of twelve children to pass away. Funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Winters, of State College, was admitted on Monday as a surgical patient.

Albert Mulbarger, of Milesburg, on Monday became a surgical patient.

There were 42 patients in the Hospital beginning of this week.

The Loydsville Orphan Home truck was through this section beginning of this week to gather up the provisions—canned goods, potatoes, apples, etc.—donated by members of the various Lutheran churches. Large quantities of supplies of this character are gathered from wide sections, but not nearly enough to supply the actual needs for the many children cared for and educated in the home.
