LOCAL AND PERSONAL

No marriage licenses were granted since the last issue of this paper.

L. R. Lingie is inclosing a small porch on the second floor of his dwelling.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Defenderfer, living on the Evy farm, near Oak Hall Station, on Friday night.

A county W. C. T. U. institute will be held in the Methodist church next Thursday evening, to which the public is invited.

The Navy dirigible, Los Angeles, was visible from here Thursday evening on its way from Akron, Ohio, to Lakehurst, N. J.

J. H. Knarr and Van Meeker, the latter of Madisonburg, went to Fields Run, in the Alleghenies, last week, for a few days' bear hunting.

H. G. Strohmeier is preparing to erect a garage to be built of concrete. The structure will be 15x20 feet, large enough to accommodate two cars.

The Presbyterian parsonage near Baileyville, was discovered ablaze on Monday morning, but quick action on the part of the State College fire ladders saved the building. Defective wiring is given as the cause.

The ordinance giving the Central Pennsylvania Gas Company a franchise in Centre Hall borough is advertised in this issue. The privilege is for a fifty-year period, and must be acted upon within two years to hold its validity.

R. M. Smith, J. G. Dauberman, W. D. Shoop and A. S. Allen on Sunday drove to Snyder county and viewed the virgin pines and hemlocks in the State forest at Troxleville. The stately forest trees are visited by many persons from all sections every day during the summer season.

Miriam Foust, four months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Foust, of Centre Hall, is in the Lewisburg hospital for treatment. She suffered from a large number of boils, which resulted in an abscess forming on the skull. On Monday a portion of the skull bone was removed, and it is now thought the child will recover, her condition since being very much improved. The patient is under the care of Dr. Black.

Paul, three years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jewett Brooks, of near town, narrowly escaped a most serious accident. The lad managed to get into the laundry, and on investigating an electrically operated wringer, set it in motion, and before his curiosity was gratified he got his finger between the rolls. The skin at some places was torn, but no great harm was done to the tiny fingers before the machine was stopped and the fingers removed.

A birthday supper of chicken and waffles was given by Mr. and Mrs. George Goodhart in honor of their daughter, "Chickie," it being her second birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Jodon and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Emery and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Goodhart and family; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Confer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rhoads and family, Mrs. Glenn Corman and daughter.

DEATHS

ROAN.—George Roan, aged 83 years, died early Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Norris Martz, at Linden Hall. A more complete obituary next week.

BOWER.—Miss Elizabeth Bower died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Holloway, in Aaronsburg, on Thursday, at the age of 82 years, 5 months and 14 days. She was a daughter of John and Sarah (Homan) Bower. A brother and the sister named above survive her. Death was due to indurated arteriosclerosis. Burial was made at Aaronsburg on Saturday, Rev. Leisher being in charge.

WEAVER.—Mrs. Estner Musser Weaver, wife of Wm. P. Weaver, died at her home in Tyrone following two years' illness with a heart affection. She was a daughter of William and Martha Musser and was born at State College and was in her 48th year. She married Mr. Weaver in 1902 and three years later they moved to Tyrone where they have lived ever since. In addition to her husband she is survived by a daughter and one son, Mrs. Eunice Higgins, of Altoona, and Harold C. Weaver, in Nicaragua. She also leaves three brothers: Daniel Musser, of Chester Hill; Carl and Olin Musser, of Philipsburg.

WILSON.—Samuel Wilson, born in Lock Haven, aged 68 years, 4 months and 6 days, died at his home in Millheim, Wednesday of last week. Funeral services were held on Saturday and conducted by Rev. H. C. Kieffel of the Evangelical church.

The deceased was the son of John and Amelia Wilson, both deceased. The deceased's wife, whose maiden name was Sarah Weaver, survives him, as do also these children: Mrs. James Sheasley, Mill Hall; Mrs. N. J. White, Philadelphia; Jesse Wilson, Philadelphia; Mrs. Earl Smith, Potters Mills; Clifford Wilson, in Virginia; Mrs. Hayes Raiston, Centre Hall; Theodore and Claire, at home. Living brothers of the deceased are Louis Wilson, Jersey Shore; Almond Wilson, Pittston.

COURT IN SESSION.

The regular term of November court opened on Tuesday. Two civil cases were disposed of prior to taking up the Commonwealth cases. There are no criminal cases of importance on the trial list.

Grangers Serve Kiwanians.

About seventy members of the Bellefonte Kiwanis Club and male members of Granges were served a dinner on Tuesday evening in Progress Grange hall by the ladies of that Grange.

Ralph Blaney, county agent, took over the meeting when the subject of agriculture was discussed by H. M. Reist, who is in charge of the Agricultural Extension work in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Reist's presentation of conditions of agriculture were not too rosy. He held that adjustments would not come prior to 1940, due to over-production, decrease of consumption, changed methods of farming and living.

Barn Burned to Ground.

The barn on the farm of Cyrus Powley near Pine Grove Mills, was burned to the ground early Monday morning. The structure was 45x90 feet in size. The tenant is Charles Simpson, who is a heavy loser. The loss includes new farm machinery, all the season's crops—grain, hay, fodder, and 900 bu. corn, besides six cows, one calf and four horses. Mr. Simpson carried some insurance, but his loss nevertheless is heavy.

POTTERS MILLS

Recent guests at the Potters Mills hotel were: E. R. Crissman, L. R. Oliver, W. D. Dugan, W. H. Miller, W. W. Wertz, E. J. Imbler, O. C. Rofocon, all of Hollidaysburg.

J. E. Hsheel, Centre Hall; Mr. Archey, Mill Hall; L. M. Barger and son drove to Potters Mills in their new Ford, where W. E. Lee became a passenger on a business trip to Harrisburg.

J. Frank McCoy and Samuel McCoy, brothers, of Philadelphia, left the Potters Mills hotel Sunday morning after a week's hunting for small game. They took with them nineteen rabbits, one wild turkey, one ringneck pheasant. Before coming here they hunted in Mifflin county and secured rabbits and quail, which were sent home at once.

Mrs. Robert Bond, of Altoona, was a guest of Miss Orpha Fleisher, and Sparr Wert, of Aaronsburg, was a guest at the Potters Mills hotel.
