

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxey, of Indiana, were week-end visitors in town. Kathryn Tussey, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is improving under the care of her uncle, Dr. George Woods, of Pine Grove Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. George Homan and daughter Jean, and Mrs. Harry Hoy, of State College, spent Thursday in Tyrone.

Dr. W. W. Woods is spending some time at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Glenn, at Bradford.

John Hess, of Altoona, was a visitor in town last week.

Governor Rachel Hunter, of Pittsburgh, arrived in town on Saturday to spend some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dale, while convalescing from a recent illness.

Russell Bohn, of L. H. T. C., spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Bohn.

Miss Rhoda Harrison visited her father, R. B. Harrison, at Danville, on Saturday. Mr. Harrison is very ill, with no hopes of recovery.

The local I. O. O. F. entertained their friends to a banquet on Thursday evening. J. Kennedy Johnston, Esq., of Bellefonte, was the speaker of the evening. Musk, a short play and speeches by some of the guests were features of the evening's entertainment.

Misses Ellen and Cathryn Dale were dinner guests at the home of their brother, Luther Dale, and family, at Oak Hill, on Sunday.

Mrs. W. A. Beckey and Mrs. James Irwin were confined to their homes by illness during the week-end.

SPRING MILLS

W. H. Smith has been taken to the Lewistown hospital for medical treatment. Mr. Smith's health has not been of the best of late.

Mrs. Nathaniel Zeigler, who has been on the sick list for the last several weeks, is at present convalescing.

Eugene Heckman is also reported improving somewhat.

Miss Irene Evans is reported getting better. She has been on the sick list for several months.

Mrs. Robert Kennelley is at present reported on the sick list.

The local P. O. S. of A. lodge will hold their annual banquet on Thursday evening, Feb. 20th. They have just recently taken in new members and have good prospects for more within the near future.

Last Saturday the Dairymen's League had an all-day session at which time there were new officers elected in the forenoon and at noon there was an oyster dinner served by the ladies of the league; after dinner there was a play presented by the young ladies, mostly from the Farmers Mills district, which was considered very good. The title of the play was "Twelve Old Maids," and the cast was made up of the following: Mary Igen, Maud Zerby, Rosella Hettinger, Miriam Zerby, Marian Dusk, Mary Eungard, Irene Eungard, Maude Eungard, Mabel Haggen, Sara Zerby, Celia Zerby, Mary Homan, Bessie Zerby, Mary Mersinger, Jean Rishel, George Lohr, Jr.

The play lasted an hour and thirty minutes, and the audience was kept in constant laughter. Each one of the characters played their part remarkably well. The mystic letters were W. W. A. M., and their meaning, "We Want a Man." During the singing part of the play Miss Mary Homan presided at the piano. After the play B. M. Fairchild of Lewisburg, county president, gave a very interesting talk, stressing the importance of co-operating.

Appointed Notary Public.

Governor John S. Fisher appointed Mrs. Esther M. Tressel a Notary Public. She will assist her husband, J. L. Tressel, who conducts a real estate, insurance and Justice of the Peace office on East Bishop street, Bellefonte.

They Can't Reach 'Em

Si Chestnut Says :

"The children do not hang onto their mother's skirts these days, because by the time they are tall enough to reach them they are able to go it alone.

Si always was a rather observing old customer. He might have added that when grown folks start a savings account they do not need to hang onto any one for support either, but are soon able to go it alone. Our Bank offers you every safeguard and protection.
