On Saturday, Feb. 15, a class of the Hartleton High school will present a play in the Grange hall. The troupe will consist of 12 characters in a four-act comedy "The Way to the City." The C. P. Long Company store is to be made larger. 1700 square feet will be added to the floor space. After 60 years continuous business, Charles P. Long has decided to make many changes and will build stairways from main floor and use the large public hall; this will enlarge the store; in fact, double its present capacity. The business has increased to such an extent that Mr. Long feels justified in enlarging and increasing his stock of merchandise.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Miss Mary Wagner returned to her home at Garrettsville Beach, N. Y., after a month's visit with her grand- parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner. The trip was made in the company of her uncle, Rev. J. P. Harkins, of State College, who went to New York to attend a student conference.

George Rows has returned from a few weeks' visit with his daughter, Mrs. Kuhn, in Williamsport.

Boalsburg was "dry" all day Sunday. The main water supply pipe broke during Saturday night and the only water available was the creek near town. A number of men worked almost the entire day to repair the break.

After spending six weeks in the Golsinger Hospital at Danville, Miss Anna Sweeney returned to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs, in Centre Hall, where she will remain for a month before opening her home in town.

Applications for Pheasant Eggs.

Applications for 15,000 ringnecked pheasant eggs have been received at the offices of the Game Commission, according to C. A. Hiller, in charge of propagation. Mr. Hiller hopes to receive applications during the next few weeks to cover the 60,000 eggs expected to be produced at the two game farms this spring.

C. P. LONG FOR CONGRESS.

Mr. Long has been a stalwart Republican all his life. His decision to enter the Congressional race is not one of snap judgment. He has been in several counties in the district sounding out the temper of Republicans generally, and he says he feels that he has as good a chance to get the nomination as any who may enter the race. Not since the days of the famous war governor, Andrew Gregg Curtin, has any man been able to break the third term hoodoo. As matters stand in the field today Charles stands a good chance for the nomination. Why not? Centre county was represented once in the past forty-five years—by Charles H. Rowland, from Phillipsburg. Let's have another Charles from Centre county.—adv.
