SPRING MILLS

O. J. Finkle and W. H. Smith, who have been on the sick list for some time, are both pretty much in the same condition they have been for the last two weeks.

The Odd Fellows banquet was attended by quite a large number of members and their families and many others. The Spring Mills band was engaged to furnish the music during the early part of the evening; the latter part of the evening was taken up by the younger folks. Miss Grace Acker, of Aronsburg, showed some of the folks how to dance the "Charleston." Well, Grace knows how, and she did it, too.

The silk mill in this place, under the supervision of J. C. Robinson, is running full time, and employes about forty men and ladies.

The local lodge of P. O. S. of A. initiated a class of new members on last Monday evening and will hold their banquet on Thursday evening of this week.

SCHOOL NEWS OF INTEREST.

C. H. H. SCHOOL NOTES.

The Magazine Campaign a Success.

Again the end has come to the magazine campaign, but it did not leave the treasury of the school athletic association in the manner it did before. The 104 subscriptions will put about $44.00 in the treasury. The school receives fifty cents for each subscription but out of this amount some must be used for the premiums offered to the individual for their work during the campaign.

The "Hawks," the winners of the campaign, will be given a party by the "Eagles" on the evening of February 20 in the school building. What the program will be is not known at this writing.—J. B. W.

H. L. Ebrigh gave a talk on "Commercial Paper" to the commercial law class taught by J. R. Harney, on last Thursday. The various forms of notes, checks and bills, were compared, noting the essential parts of each. The speaker explained the use of the forms of credit and their value to business men.

Debates.

The last two debates in the series of the preliminary contest will be held tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock in the high school building.

DECKER CASE HEARD.

Equity trial court on Tuesday and Wednesday, with Judge Fleming presiding, was engaged in hearing the case of the Latrobe Hunting and Fishing club vs. the representatives of the estate of John Decker. The case grew out of the sale by Mr. Decker, about 1921, of several tracts of land in Seven Mountains, to the club named, and later refused to deliver a deed. The suit is to force a fulfillment of a contract given at the time of the sale and execution of a deed to the club. The consideration is about $5,500.

The plaintiffs are represented by former Judge Arthur Dale and a Pittsburg attorney, Mr. Jones; the defendant's interests are in the hands of N. B. Spangler, Esq.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Mrs. M. L. Emerick has been on the sick list since the beginning of this week.

Farmers about to offer their life's accumulation on the block during the public sale season in March are becoming anxious and are wondering whether or not the bidding will be spirited and high enough to make the venture profitable. The buyer, on the other hand, appears to have no fear that he will not be obliged to pay the top for good stock and popular makes of farm implements and machinery.

Majestic Radio Sales Increase.

B. J. Grigsby president of the Grigsby-Grunow company, makers of Majestic radios, relative to last month's sales reports as follows: "The company's sales for the month of January, 1930, were $5,365,788.16," which compares with $5,255,975.29 for the corresponding month of last year. Reports from our dealers indicate that their sales for the month were substantially in excess of the company's production."

Mable Willebrandt probably wouldn't take a chance on violating prohibition laws, but as an auto driver she is a speedster. And this resulted in her arrest in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday.

Not "St." Pattens

Among the many fine edifices erected by Christopher Wren is St. Margaret Pattens, Fenchurch street, London. It bears the date of 1687, and occupies the site of a church which was destroyed by fire.

The name of the saint to whom it is dedicated is not Pattens, as might conceivably be supposed, but just plain Margaret. The church owes its second name to a colony of pattern makers who formerly dwelt thereabouts.

St. Margaret was a young Christian convert of Antioch, in Pisidia, who was condemned to be swallowed alive by a dragon. But the cross she was wearing stuck fast in the creature's throat and choked it.
