Last Wednesday Rev. H. W. Newman and his daughter, Mrs. Roland S. Fague, and grandson, Donaid, went to Yeager-town to spend the day with friends. They did not return until about 8 o'clock in the evening. The were just righly getting settled down for the balance of the evening when the door bell rang and, on opening the door, found assempled on the porch and in the yard a company of friends to tender him a genuine surprise. The entire evening was spent in a most pleasant manner, interspersedl with games and social intercourse. They did not come emply handed for at a convenient hour were served refreshments in sufficient quantity to satisfy the hunger of every one present. Not only that, but they brought a fine donation of supplies for the pastor and family for days to come. Those present were: Mrs. Henrietta Confer, Mrs. W. H. Gessner, Miss Mildred E. Heller, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Rebecca, Barbara and Betty Jane; Mrs. C. M. Watts, Jean Watts, C. P. Long, Isabel Musser, Mr and Mrs. Homer Fetterolf, Barbara and Bernice: Prof. Fay, Mr, and Mrs. A. C. Confer, Ralph Zeigler, Paul Weagley, Calvin Kennely, Benjamin Jackson, John Albright and son Kenneth, Miss Mary M. Lobb, Mrs. Rollad S. Fague and son Donald, and Rev. Harry W. Newman.
