

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Messrs. Ray Zeigler and Merrill Bartley, both of Spring Mills, were in town on business on Thursday and found time to call here.

If you are in need of a heating stove, I will put a "Sunbeam" in your home, with board and pipe complete, for $70.00.—W. H. Miller, Bellefonte.

Richard Detwiler of Smilton, a Penn State student and prominent in college sports, was elected second vice president of the student Y. M. C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore spent Easter at Elysburg with Mrs. Moore's mother. On their return they brought with them their daughter, Miss Miriam Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Luse moved from their farm to the Hercher house purchased by them a few years ago. The town property was remodeled on the interior before the couple occupied it.

Mrs. Amelia King has returned to her home here after having spent the past five weeks with her niece at State College, Mrs. Hiram Lee and another niece, Mrs. S. W. Karstetter, at Curwensville.

Dr. George P. Bible, well known Chautauqua lecturer, now living in Bellefonte, will be the commencement speaker at the first East Penns Valley High school exercises to be held June 2, in the Municipal theatre, Millheim.

Rev. and Mrs. Fredrick Moore visited the former's parents here and on Wednesday were accompanied by Mrs. Moore to their home in Mercersburg. Friday they expect to attend the apple blossom carnival at Winchester, Virginia.

At a meeting of the Huntingdon Presbytery, held in Phillipsburg last week, Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick of Centre Hall, was elected as one of the two commissioners who will represent the Presbytery in the General Assembly to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, next month.

"Ted" Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lucas, of Lewistown, formerly from here, will graduate as a medical student from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, in June. In July he will become an interne in Atlantic City Hospital, Atlantic City. The institution has 350 beds.

An Easter pageant was well rendered by the members of the Methodist Sunday school in the church auditorium on Sunday evening. The scenes incident to the season were well brought out by the participants, all young people and children. The singing was also pleasing.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hockenberry and daughter, Louise, of West Brownsville, on an auto trip to State College stopped here on their return home on Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Harper. Mrs. Hockenberry before marriage was Miss Carrie Spicher, and lived here at the time of her marriage.

Carl A. Auman and Miss Anna Dungan, of Steubenville, Ohio, drove to Altoona on Friday and here on Saturday, and over Easter were guests of Mr. Auman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman. In Altoona they attended the funeral of Robert McCummon, an account of whose death appears elsewhere in this issue.

Mrs. Michael Smith, of Potters Mills, was in town on Saturday for the first time in a long while although she lives only five miles distant. She blames it all on growing old, and assuming her statement correct, she is growing so gracefully. Her husband who has long been totally blind, is physically otherwise in the A class.

On Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. Smith gave a dinner party in honor of their daughter, Miss Louise, and six of her friends.

While on the mountain gathering wild flowers, last week, Miss Evelyn Colyer, a local High school girl, fell and sprained one of her ankles. The injury occasioned considerable pain and inconvenience.

W. O. Rearick was one of several citizens in Milroy who recently interviewed the State Highway officials in their Harrisburg office relative to the location of the proposed concrete road at Milroy. Mr. Rearick and party represented the township residents as desiring the new road to follow the course of the present road at Milroy. The officials failed to give any satisfaction as to which of two or three routes would be selected.

Miss Margaret Wedler royally entertained a few of her friends at her home in Jersey Shore Wednesday evening of last week. Those present were: Mrs. John H. Knarr, Mrs. W. F. McMarron, Mrs. John M. Coldron, Mrs. D. C. Mitterling, Miss Mable Arney, Verna Emerick, Corbell Emerick and Margaret Jacobs. The evening was spent enjoyably and before leaving for their homes Miss Wedler's mother served the party delicious refreshments.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. J. H. Boon, while at the home of her father here, fell down the stairway while descending it from the second floor, and cut a gash more than an inch in length in her scalp. The wound was dressed by Dr. Morrow and since she has been wearing a similar head dress to that of her father, B. D. Ershler, who fell on the same stairway the Sunday previous. Both Mr. Ershler and daughter, the latter of Hartford, Conn., are getting along fine considering the seriousness of the injuries.

The class of 1927, Centre Hall High school, is providing more than a thousand covers for books to be used in the local schools and others in the valley. The covers carry advertisements of various firms in Centre Hall and the charge for this enables the class to give the service. Covers were furnished last year by the same class, the net profit to the organization being but $1.50. This year a larger surplus is anticipated. "Jim" Burkholder appears to be handling the business end for the members of the class.

SCHOOL NEWS OF INTEREST.

C. H. H. SCHOOL NOTES.

Lost First Baseball Game—

On account of bad weather last week the opening game of the school league between Centre Hall and Rebersburg had to be cancelled. Tuesday afternoon the "Tigers" motored to Rebersburg where they met defeat by a 7-0 score. Although it was very cold the diamond was in good shape and both teams showed school spirit. The Rebersburg boys had a good start in the first inning when they piled up four runs. They added three more in the sixth. Centre Hall didn't have a man reach first base until the fifth inning. This was the first game that Bierly, Rebersburg, ever pitched. Hartley, in center field, poked two flies out of the air which resulted in double plays. The players:

Centre Hall	Rebersburg
Wert	Cummings
Bradford	L. Bierly
Lutz	Guisewite
Breon	Confer
Luse	Brungart
J. Spyer	P. Bierly
Coldron	Rachau
Hartley	Tyson
McClellan	Breon

Girls' Team Also Losers—

The local girls' baseball team played their first game of the season at Rebersburg Tuesday. During the first inning the teams seemed to be well matched, the score being 1-1. The second inning ended with three runs for Rebersburg and one for Centre Hall; the third, four for Rebersburg and one for Centre Hall. At the end of the 5th inning Rebersburg had scored 7 runs and Centre Hall 6. The 7th inning ended the game with the score 11-8 in favor of Rebersburg.

The Paper Staff for 1930-31—

The present staff has selected from the Junior class the "Tiger" staff for the 1930-31 school term. The staff is as follows:

Amelia Copenhaver.....News Editor
Mary Reber.....Managing Editor
Wanda Brown.....Art Editor
Fred Luse.....Sports Editor
Robert McCormick.....Business Manager

These will contribute news for the "Reporter" the remainder of the year and will publish the Commencement issue of "The Tiger."

GREGG TOWNSHIP VOCATIONAL SCHOOL NOTES

The freshman literary program will be given in the Spring Mills Grange hall on April 25. They request your presence a they are working hard to make a success of it.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Henry D. Krape.....Aaronsburg
Rachael E. Hosterman.....Coburn
Calvin J. Gray.....Newark, N. J.
Julia C. Moore.....Bellefonte
John Ramlsh.....Bellefonte
Esther A. Lockard.....Lamar
Foster H. Noll.....Spring Mills
Annie Savilla Auman.....Spring Mills
Charles C. Waters.....Woodland
Beulah G. Dinges.....Tyertown
David A. Williams.....Fleming
Carolyn V. Miller.....Attoona

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Mrs. H. J. Lambert leased the hotel restaurant and is about ready to serve meals there.

A meeting of the Alumni Association of C. H. H. S. will be held Tuesday, April 29, at 7:30 o'clock, in the High school building.

The marriage of Howard Emery, of Centre Hall, and Miss Myra Lucas, of Bellefonte, is reliably reported to be scheduled to take place today (Thursday).

Dog Needs "Balanced" Diet to Keep Healthy

Most dogs are just as dependent upon simple, wholesome, nourishing fare as people are. If they are fed a lot of greasy stuff, or quantities of candy, they will get sick. On the other hand, practically every one will thrive on plenty of lean meat, either raw or slightly cooked; fresh fish, a fair amount of cereal, some thoroughly boiled green vegetables. Supplement this diet with a few pieces of crumbled stale white bread; and two or three times a week give the dog a good-sized fresh beef bone from the butcher. Never let him have poultry bones, though, or any other kind that breaks into sharp slivers.

And here is another point; mix the different kinds of food very thoroughly. This will prevent the picking out of particularly choice tidbits and the leaving of the rest. One great value of the foods recommended is that they constitute a sanely balanced diet, so your dog ought to eat all of them.—Exchange.

Sam Pepys Satisfied With "Plum-Porridge"

The Christmas plum pudding is an English national dish of comparatively recent date, for old Samuel Pepys, noted diarist and gourmet of the Seventeenth century, knew it not. Inspection of his memorable record reveals that the year before the great fire, in 1665, he wrote:

"Dined by my wife's bedside with great content, having a mess of brave plum-porridge and a roasted pullet." However, the "plum-porridge" must have been the forerunner of the modern plum pudding. It was made of strong beef broth, in which were stewed currants, raisins and dates, which were charged with bread crumbs, highly spiced and fortified with wine.

SALESMEN WANTED for lubricating oils, greases and paints. Excellent opportunity. Salary or commission.—The Jed Oil and Paint Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

Good Drivers—and Others

THE difference between good and bad driving depends almost entirely on the amount of thought and concentration the driver puts into it.

Almost invariably bad driving is the result of thoughtlessness and inattention. As a rule the new driver is more careful than the experienced one. His inexperience fills him with the full significance of his responsibility and the danger of driving.

On the other hand, the experienced driver becomes careless or, to put it more gently, over-confident in his ability. He or she may display this over-confidence by engaging in conversation or by looking at the scenery while driving. Driving a car requires the full attention of the driver, particularly in these days of heavy traffic.

I don't know why it is, but it seems that I am always running into the bird who stays in the middle of the road when he should be over to the right. He is the cause of many accidents and should be warned by any well-meaning driver, and certainly by law enforcement officials, that he is a nuisance and a menace.

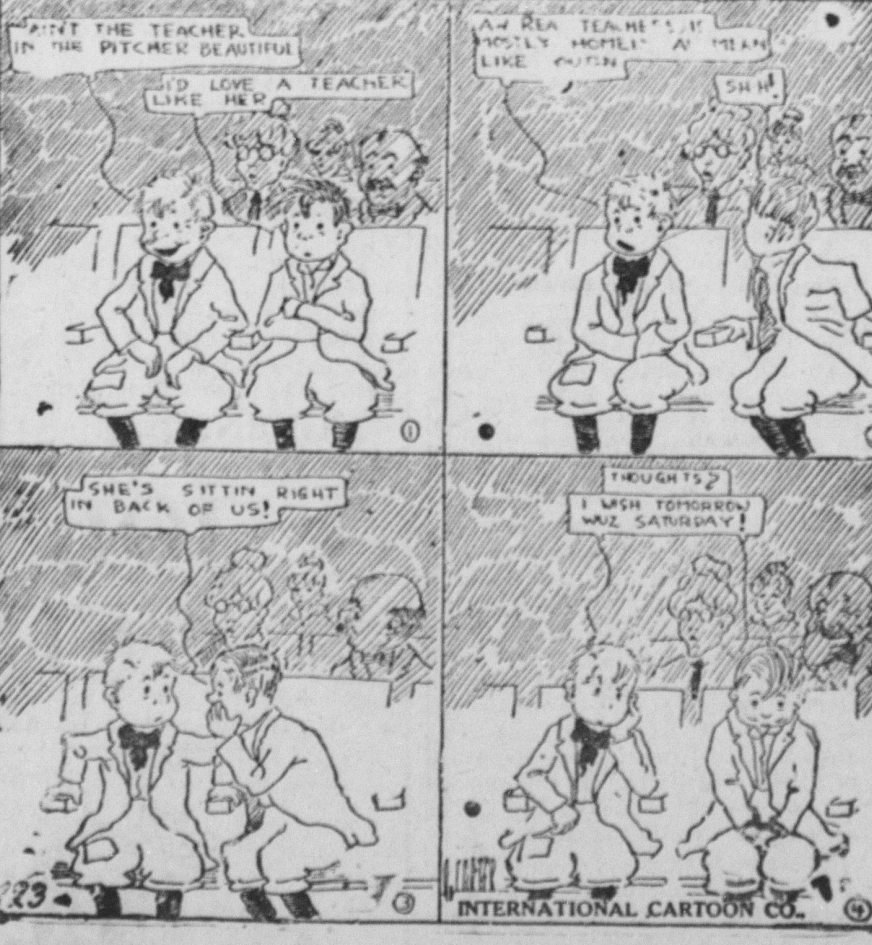

Then there is that other moron who speeds up to rush across a road just as the light is changing. It would be a real pleasure for me to tell him just exactly what I think of him.

These two examples of bad driving are direct results of thoughtlessness and recklessness and I am making it my duty to stop and talk to this sort of motorist just as a matter of motoring education. In the last year, I have talked to about twenty transgressors of this type and only once has the recipient of my remarks become angry and told me to mind my own business. As it happened, I followed this driver and it was only five miles from where I first encountered him that I found him in the arms (literally) of the law. I took the trouble to add my complaint to those already lodged and I really believe he will be a better driver when he gets his license back.

It is true there is a multiplicity of driving regulations and it is equally true that it is almost impossible for the average individual to keep track of all of them. But rules of common courtesy should not have to be remembered. They should be habitual. Yet if they were observed on American highways, driving conditions would show vast improvement overnight. And such an improvement would not only net greater peace of mind for all motorists but it would save hundreds of thousands of dollars annually as a result of fewer accidents.

JUST KIDS—The Teacher of Red Gulch By Al Carter

Summer --and for the MEN --and the Graduate

Enna Jettick Shoes | "WHERE YOU CAN FIND YOUR NEIGHBOR" | Walk-Over Shoes For Men and Women.

NIEMAN'S DEPARTMENT STORE

"WHERE YOUR DOLLARS GO FARTHEST" GREEN SAVINGS STAMPS WITH EVERY PURCHASE MILLHEIM

Look Over Our Last Week's Circular Again---

The Same Low Prices Hold Until Friday Evening.

Have you tried one of those delicious Easter Hams all separately wrapped, at 26c lb.

Oranges : Lettuce : Celery Always Fresh and High Quality.

A word to Restaurateurs and Roadside Eating Stands :

We can supply you, in GALLON SIZES, with Apples, Peaches, Apricots, Pie Cherries, Raspberries, Jars of Mustard, Mayonnaise, Etc., at WHOLESALE PRICES. Come in and talk it over.

The Clover Farm Stores Co.
T. A. HOSTERMAN, OWNER
Centre Hall

Hitt and Runn—When It Comes to Nerve Bull Isn't In It With This Fellow!

