"MOTHER."

Of all the beautiful tributes paid to mother, the one we liked best appears in the current issue of "West Penn Life," that newsy organ of the West Penn System. The author of the poem was not given, but he should be immortalized. Here it is.

Folded they lie upon her tranquil breast My mother's tired hands, their labors done, Knotted and scarred in battles they have won, Worn to the quick by love's unkind behest, Pulseless they lie while from the crimson west
A flood of glory from the setting sun Shines on her face. I hear a deep "Well done."
God's Angelus that calls her soul to rest.
Found is the Holy Grail of knightly quest Here in her home, where such brave deeds were done
As knight ne'er saw since chivalry began:
She suffered, toiled, and died, God knows the rest,
And if Christ's crown shines not above her cross, Then all is lost—immeasurably lost!

DON'T OVERLOOK KISTLER.

Lack of contests for nominations on the Democratic ticket in the primary campaign tends to conceal from the attention of the electorate the circumstances that this party, by unanimous choice of its responsible selected leaders, will offer to the voters of Pennsylvania an opportunity to vote for an exceptionally high grade candidate for the United States senate.

Sedgewick Kistler, this candidate, naturally interests voters in this part of the State because he is one of their neighbors, his home being at Lock Haven. But his reputation and his qualifications, his experience in business and industry and the extent of his interest in politics, not as a professional politician or office-seeker, but as a citizen interested in good government, ought to commend him favorably to the attention of the entire State.

Mr. Kistler is fundamentally right in his view that our entire theory of government is based upon a two-party system, and that it won't do to give one party a monopoly in the conduct of government. The situation in Pennsylvania, which is too preponderantly Republican, attests the soundness of Mr. Kistler's position.

DEATHS

GUTELIUS.—Frederick Erhardt Guttelius passed away unexpectedly at his home in Millheim on Sunday morning from an affection of the heart. Funeral services were held from the home on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. Fred Griesing of the Reformed church. He had attained his sixtieth year on October 4th.

The deceased was a son of Samuel and Mary Louise Erhardt, and was born in Millburg. Desiring to follow the profession of his father, he took up the study of dental surgery and was graduated from the Pennsylvania College of Dental Surgery. He began the practice of his profession in Washington, D. C., and upon the death of his father, in 1895, in Millheim, he removed to that place and remained there.
He enjoyed the large patronage his skill in dental surgery commanded, and as a citizen became popular as well.
He held various borough offices which were given personal attention and faithfully administered. Religiously he was a believer in the faith of the Reformed church, and fraternally he was connected with various organizations, among which were the Modern Woodmen, Knights of the Golden Eagle, Sons of Veterans, Genealogical Society, Pennsylvania German Society, and Hugenot Society of Pennsylvania.

The deceased is survived by a wife, who before marriage was Miss Besse Stover, and these daughters: Mary, wife of Sylvester Gutelius, East Orange, N. J.; Violet, wife of Fred Dawe, Lansing, Mich.; Miss Catharine, a senior at Penn State, and Miss Louise, a senior in East Pennsylvania High school. Daniel Gutelius, of Warren, Ohio, and Mrs. Lydia Morris, Youngstown, Ohio, are brother and sister, respectively, of the deceased.

BRUNGGART.—Ira Brungart, farmer living about two miles east of Rebersburg, died on Tuesday. He is survived by a wife and several children. He was aged 69 years.

STRUBLE. — Mrs. Mariah Reish Struble widow of J. Calvin Struble, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Samuel I. Corl, in Ferguson township.
She had gone to the Corl home about a week previous to visit and became ill with pneumonia while there. She resided with her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strouse, of Ferguson township. She was born in Union county and was aged 83 years. Her husband, to whom she was married in 1887, died seven years ago. One sister, Mrs. Kate Shaffer, of Pine Hall, survives. Funeral services were held at the Reformed church at Pine Hall, interment in the Pine Hall cemetery.

HOMAN.—Mrs. Samuel Homan died in Williamsport, and funeral services were held from her late home there on Saturday afternoon. She was aged 66 years. Her husband, who survives her, is a native of Gregg township.
Four children also survive the mother, who was born and reared in Williamsport.

Centre Hall Scores Victory Over Orviston, 16-10.

In somewhat of a slugfest, the Centre Hall baseball team defeated the Orviston team, on the latter's grounds, Saturday afternoon, by the score of 16 to 10. Outstanding in the matter of clotting the ball were Harold Durst, who cleaned the bases in the first inning with a three-bagger, and George Rimney, who duplicated the trick a little later in the game. Paul Fetterolf laced the pill for three hits. Paul Martz pitched for the locals.

LUTHERANS SHOW
2000 SYNOD GAIN

A gain of 2900 members was shown its seventh annual meeting in Holy Trinity church, in Berwick, on Tuesday. The Synod has a membership of 50,000.

The morning session was devoted to the synodical sermon by the president, Rev. John Wagner, of Hazleton.

sponding secretary, Dr. W. M. Reardon, Millburg; statistical secretary, R.
C. S. Bottinger, Berwick; treasurer, R.
L. Schroyer, Selinsgrove.

Rev. F. U. Gift of the auxiliary.
Rev. Ernest Bottinger, son of the pastor of the host church, will be ordinated Thursday night.

We All Make Mistakes.
The Reporter, along with other newspapers—daily and weekly—makes mistakes in composing its type matter. More often it is a mistake of the hand (or machine) rather than of the head. The Linotype is a speedy machine; transposition of letters is an easy matter; sometimes a line slips out of its regular order in the paragraph. Well, you've all seen these "bulls." But Heinz preserve us! did we ever pull one like this—All of the hogs offered were from Brookhills' pedigree Pol-land China herd, and the cattle The ladies of the Ramsey Creek were all registered Jerseys.
Baptist church served a plate lunch in the sale pavilion.

Vote for
PINCHOT
for GOVERNOR

Vote for
KEISER
for STATE SENATOR

CLARENCE A. KEISER, of Grampian, Clearfield County, is a Candidate for State Senator on the Republican Ticket at the Primary Election on May 20.

Keiser Supports
Pinchot's Principles

KEISER stands for lifting the inheritance tax on small inheritances. For hard-surfaced roads in the RURAL districts. For old age pensions for the needy. For the 18th Amendment and Law Enforcement. For the State assisting her disabled and helpless ex-service men. Keiser is against the unfair use of labor injUNCTIONS.

KEISER is for repeal of the Tax Law that went into effect the first Monday in May, 1930, giving the authorities the power to sweep away your home, if you are unable to pay your taxes on account of sickness or unemployment or any other circumstances. Mr. Keiser's opponent, Senator Harry B. Scott, voted for this Bill to sell your home, unless you can arrange for the money to pay your taxes and the enormous costs that will be added by August 1st.

In standing four-square with Governor Pinchot, Keiser is standing foursquare with the overwhelming Republican majorities in Clearfield and Centre Counties, comprising the 34th Senatorial District.

KEISER is not straddling between Brown and Pinchot, as Senator SCOTT, his opponent, is doing, but is out in the OPEN, for and with PINCHOT.

Don't fail to Mark Your Ballot for KEISER
