

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The concrete road between Bellefonte and Milesburg has been opened for two-way traffic.

Today (Thursday) the Fresh Air children will arrive for Bellefonte, Centre Hall and State College.

The alumni of the former Pine Grove Mills Academy will hold a reunion on Saturday, July 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Shaeffer, of Altoona, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lanson Burris for a day.

Levansburg has joined Mifflinburg in holding a Chautauque at the latter place, the dates for which are August 4-7.

Mrs. William Hall and daughters Mary and Bettie, from Lewistown, spent a week at the home of Mrs. Clara Foster.

Miss Edith Booser is here with her parents during the summer vacation from Mt. Airy School where she has been an instructor since graduating from the institution several years ago.

Benton D. Tate, who had been in the telephone service since 1891, was retired by the Bell Telephone Company. He is well and favorably known in all sections of the county. He is unmarried.

E. C. Confer, of Spring Mills, R. D., while working on one of the saw mills operated by the Meyer Brothers, had his left hand pretty badly mangled by coming in contact with a cut-off saw. The injuries are improving.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Neese, of Auburn, New York, were in Centre Hall prior to the Fourth, visiting Mrs. Neese's brothers, Clement W. and Milford Lusa, M., and Mrs. Neese are former residents of Centre Hall.

Ralph Tressler, who quit farming in the spring to engage in the butcher business with his brother, in Redsville, has come back to Potter township and is living in what is known as the John Lee property, near Colyer, and is working on the State road.

Rev. W. A. McClellan, formerly pastor of the Rebersburg Reformed church, is now located at Rockwood, Somerset county, where he previously served a pastorate. His son, Dr. Roy McClellan, has been a hospital patient for a few weeks but is now improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gregg, of Altoona, were at the Centre Hall hotel during a portion of their vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Gregg were both born and reared here. Mr. Gregg is employed by the Bell Telephone company and has but a few more years to serve until he will be placed on the retired list.

Wm. H. Baird, of Pleasant Gap, owner of the farm on which Michael Delaney is tenant, south of town, made a number of repairs on the barn during the past two weeks, made necessary principally on account of the recent wind storm. Improvements were also made at the house.

J. H. Eitner, at Pottery Mills is already occupying the new dwelling house built for him by the county. The property he occupied was condemned for State highway purposes and was owned by Lloyd Smith. The commissioners razed the old house and put up the new one close to the site of the former one.

Miss Marguerite Swann, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. W. L. Swann, of Millheim, expects to be called soon to Norristown State Hospital where she will put in the next twelve months as a dental hygiene interne. Miss Swann completed the dental hygiene course at Temple University in June, and the internship is a necessary feature prior to professional practice.

Robert Wolf, of Altoona, was the last adult in the group of children being entertained at the home of D. G. Fortney and John Fortney, of Tusseyville. The others are Helen and James Wolf, of Altoona, and Beatrice and Alice Spangler, of Downs Grove, Illinois. Mrs. Rebecca Wolf, mother of the Wolf children named above, was also a guest of the Fortneys, but returned home last Friday.

H. C. Rothrock, former assistant superintendent of schools in Centre county, was one of the school teachers in the State to be put on the retired list. Prof. Rothrock was principal of Centre Hall High school in the early history of his chosen profession, and later held a similar position at Boalsburg, Port Matilda and at other points in the county. His entire service covered a period of fifty-eight years.

W. T. Bair, editor of the Phillipsburg Daily Journal, Centre county's only daily newspaper, which was founded by Mr. Bair 43 years ago, paid us a fraternal call on Tuesday evening. Mr. Bair has over fifty years active newspaper work to his credit. The Phillipsburg Daily Journal has carried on for over two score years despite the predictions of wisecracks of an early demise. Mr. Bair is indeed a credit to the great "fourth estate."

Mr. and Mrs. William Ashley, of Chicago, are guests of the latter's brother, D. C. Mitterling. Mr. Ashley was only recently discharged from a Government hospital where he was treated for ailments following being gassed in the World War. From here he and Mrs. Ashley will go to Washington, D. C., with the hope of the former securing employment of some character in the Boulder Dam project.

Don Gingery, of Clearfield, the Democratic nominee for State Senator in the 34th Senatorial district against Harry B. Scott, Republican candidate, was in town last week in the interest of his candidacy. He expects to put up a real fight against Scott, and is confident it will be a winning fight. He is popular in Clearfield county and has been honored at the polls heretofore. Mr. Gingery served as a member of the lower house of the State Legislature when Mr. Scott represented Centre county in that body, and is fully acquainted with his present political opponent's political record—past and present—and will give it to the public. With Clarence A. Kaiser, an independent Republican candidate of no mean caliber, as was attested by the Clearfield vote at the primary election in May, Mr. Scott will not have a walkover by any means in November.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Sprucetown M. E. church will hold a August 9th.

Mrs. R. F. Neill, east of town, assisted in caring for a nephew in Buffalo Run Valley, who was ill.

Rev. Harry Buck, of Minneapolis, Minn., is a guest of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Geary.

Arthur Thoman, of the Pittsburgh district, was in town recently to visit Mrs. Thoman at the home of her father, H. E. Grove.

Mrs. H. W. Dinges, who had been rather seriously ill, has improved very much. She is now able to be up and around in the house.

Mrs. Della Reiber and daughters, Misses Mary and Ruth, are spending a few days in Johnstown among relatives and friends.

Rev. W. R. Picken, who has been with his daughter, Mrs. R. P. Campbell, at Penns Cave, since returning from Florida, is not in the best of health.

Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk and daughters, Helen and Sarah, last week drove to Philadelphia where they visited among friends until the beginning of this week.

The local W. C. T. U. members and families will hold a basket picnic Tuesday, July 22nd, afternoon and evening, at Grange Park. The regular meeting will be held after supper.

Gas mains are being extended through the upper section of Pleasant Gap, and will eventually be laid over Nittany Mountain to Centre Hall, where customers are waiting to make connections.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Zettle and son John and daughter, Miss Gusdie, and the latter's gentleman friend, all of Berwick, were guests on Sunday of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zettle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alexander and little daughter Lucelle, also their nephews, William and Forrest Magee, of Venonah, N. J., came here by auto last week, and Sunday Mr. Alexander and the Magees returned home. Mrs. Alexander and little daughter will remain here for two weeks or more, at which time Mr. Alexander will come here for them.

On Friday Mrs. Lenora Post, of Pottery Mills, will return to the Cooper Hospital, Camden, N. J., after having spent a two weeks' vacation at her home and in Centre Hall. She graduated from the Cooper hospital a short time ago, but will remain there until the end of November during which time she will be engaged in special training.

A delightful lawn party in honor of Susan Smith, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, of town, was given by the parents on July 3rd, the third birthday anniversary of little Susan. A group of children enjoyed themselves as only children can. Mrs. Smith served elegant refreshments to Susan's little friends.

Mrs. Anna Belle Whiteman's funeral was attended by these out of town relatives and friends: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Grove, Harold Zettle, of Berwick; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Geary and children of Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chattum, Lock Haven; L. R. Lingle, G. H. F. Shook and daughter, of Spring Mills; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harter, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shook, of Coburn.

Victors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kifer recently were Mr. and Mrs. George Cairns, Mrs. G. H. Fennell, all of Jeannette; Miss Uola Wilson, of Blairsville; Miss Grace Delaney, Harry Bartley, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Anderson and daughter Betty Gene, all from near Greensburg; Paul Lomadine and Dorothy Steele, of Altoona.

Floyd Horner, on Nittany Mountain, a few days ago speled a large rattlesnake endeavoring to swallow a half-grown rabbit. It was so thoroughly engaged in taking the rather unusual meal that it permitted itself to be captured and placed in a box without a struggle. After it was in confinement for a while the rabbit was disgorged. It was some little time until its largely distended throat and neck assumed their normal condition.

The Clover Farm Stores will hold a picnic today (Thursday) at Bland's Park, Tipton. Tickets will be furnished free to children, giving them the benefit of amusements, etc., on the park. Grown-ups will also receive tickets for more substantial benefits. The tickets are supplied by the local Clover Farm Stores merchants, wherever located. The picnic is open to all. See the Clover Farm Stores for further particulars.

Ernest A. Frank, who has been selected to teach the Waddle school, is attending the Summer Session at the Pennsylvania State College. Mr. Frank recently returned to Centre Hall from Baltimore, where he served as a paragon. He intends to follow the teaching profession, and is working for a permanent certificate. He is assistant scoutmaster of the Boy Scouts of Troop 2; he is a member of the local baseball team, and superintendent of the Lutheran Sunday school.

Mrs. Roger T. Bayard, of Tyrone, and Mrs. (Rev.) W. C. Dunlap, of Reading, daughters of the late Hon. Leonard Rhone, are on an European tour. They left New York Thursday morning of last week, and were due to arrive in Berlin, Germany, on Tuesday. Other important cities they will visit are Prague, Czechoslovakia; Vienna, Austria; Zurich, Switzerland; Heidelberg, Germany; Brussels, Belgium; expecting to reach London, England August 17th, and leave for home six days later.

The funeral of William McWilliams was attended by the following friends and relatives from a distance: J. H. McWilliams, Louisville, Ky.; J. B. McWilliams, Laquis, Pa.; W. E. McWilliams, W. H. McWilliams and wife, Johnstown; Mrs. J. M. McWilliams and son Joe; Mrs. Artie Miller and son, Mrs. Black and Mrs. Elder, Tyrone; Dr. Frank Bailey, Milton; J. Siminton, Mrs. Wilson Ebbas Altoona; Mrs. Floyd Cummings and son McAlevysfort; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bailey, Saxton; Fred Haas, Sunbury.

"BUMP" FOR PRESERVATION

The abolishing of an operator-clerk at Centre Hall and reduction of employees at other points on the L. & T. caused somewhat of a hubbub among the employees along the line. The reduction affected regular station agents since it removed help, and clerks scanned the bulletins for available openings based on length of service. In vulgar railroad parlance the action is called "bumping."

There will be no operating clerks on the line between Bellefonte and Glen Iron. Telephones have been installed on poles at various stations where the train conductors will get their orders instead of receiving them from the operator clerks. The order affected Oak Hall, Centre Hall, Spring Mills and Coburn.

D. M. Bradford, with twenty-three years of service, will go to Bellefonte where he will have similar work to that he had at Centre Hall.

Miles W. Johnson, clerk under J. C. Lee, Rising Springs, went to Mifflinburg.

R. A. Brant, a former operator clerk at Coburn, will divide his time between Coburn and Centre Hall. He will work here between the trains east and west.

Frank Ishler, station agent at Oak Hall, has been reduced to a clerk. He will work both at Oak Hall and Leont.

The changes became effective Wednesday.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Jacob From was brought here from Ohio by his son, James E. Frohm.

A three-day open season on antlerless deer from November 27 to 29 will be decided by the State Game Commission in all counties where residents sign petitions complaining of damage by depredations of deer, according to a resolution adopted by the commission.

Miss Helen Bartholomew, Mrs. C. D. Bartholomew and daughter Jean, Miss Doris Moltz, Miss Jennie Bartholomew, and Mrs. Susan Lutz, on Wednesday drove to Berwick, where the latter will be a guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beck. The others of the party will go on to Freeland and will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bray. Mrs. Bray, it will be recalled, was Miss Sarah Moyer, of Rebersburg, before marriage.

FOR several months, dogs had been chasing sheep. Farmers over a wide area were at a loss to check the marauders. One moonlight night the owner of a valuable flock saw a strange dog running. Immediately he telephoned his neighbors and slipped out of the house to protect his own animals. Within half an hour he heard a distant volley of shots. Shortly his telephone rang to inform him that the killer had been caught red-handed.
