SPRING MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dukeman, of Clearfield, were visiting some of their friends in town last Sunday. C. F. Bartges, of Harrisburg, spent the week-end at his parental home He returned to his place of employment early Monday morning. S. E. Gebble has retired from farming and is now engaged on Public Liabilty and Property insurance. He is working for the Keystone Indemnity Exchange. Last Thursday evening some mean sneak broke into the house of Ben Hackenberg and stole a valuable gold ring and bracelet. Mr. and Mrs. Hackenberg have very good evidence who the chap is and if the jewelry is not returned within a reasonable time the chances are he will be arrested again, as this is not the first trick of this kind the suspect has been in.

It is the writer's opinion that the school board has made a very w'se move when they made a contract with Homer Fetterolf to furnish the water for the Vocational building. Mr. Fetterolf is now building a reservoir back of his residence.

Eugene F. Lee, who recently finished a course with the Plerce Business col-lege in Philadiphia, has accepted a clerkship with the State College bank. Samuel Wise, who had an accident while working for the supervisors about a week ago, is not getting along very well; he has a great deal of pain in his 'foot.

Misses Phyllis and Orie Wagner en tertained the following at a cabin party at Paddy Mountain last week: Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Wise, Herbert Peterson of Montclair, N. J.; Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Decker and little Virginia, Robert Hanscheon and Ronald Wagner of Spring Mills; Mesrs. Stanley and Eu-Bierly, James Mallory, James Stover and Preston Zeigler, all of Rebersburg. They all report having had a very good time, and all told having caught about 150 fish and about 25 eels, more or less.

POTTERS MILLS.

P. P. Henshall and wife, of Philadelphia, spent the past week at the home of Mrs. Ella Wilkinson. They brought home with them Mrs. Wilkin son who spent the past two months at the Henshall home, and took home with them Walter Wilkinson to stay with them for a few weeks Alvin Zeilers and family, of State College, visited on Sunday at the E. B. Palmer home.

J. M. Carson and son Clarence mo tored to West Chester on Saturday and brought home with them on Sunday Mrs. Ed. Foust and two children, who will visit at the Carson home a few weeks.

H. E. Foust and wife spent Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

Paul Sanders, wife and two children, of Maplewood. N. Y., Ivsited over Monday at the G. H. McCormick home. Mrs. Sanders will be better known as Miss Mary Bible.

Floyd Walker who spent two weeks with the Boal Troop at Mt. Gretna has returned home

It wont be long now until we learn what effect the "3223" perforations on the Luzerne county ballot, in May, will have in Pinchot's claim to the nomination for governor on the Re publican ticket.
