

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. James J. Glenn of Carlisle, was present at the re-dedication service in the local Presbyterian church, Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Glenn is a native of Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crockett, of Muhlenburg, Berks county, were guests since Friday of last week of the former's sister, Mrs. George Vogt, and husband.

Rev. Samuel Martin retired as pastor of the Presbyterian church at State College, after serving it for twenty-two years and rounding out thirty-one years in the ministry.

Claude Fisher and Roy Jamison, both high school teachers here, were at their respective homes over the weekend. The former lives in Selinsgrove and the latter in Mifflinburg.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Boal, of the Rockview district, on Sunday visited the saddened home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lambert, east of Spring Mills. The families are related through Mrs. Boal.

J. S. Derstine, of Freeport, Illinois, and sister, Mrs. John H. Puff, of town, on Monday morning went to Audenried, Luzerne county, where they are guests of their brother, Rev. M. S. Derstine, and Miss Rebecca Derstine.

Delegates from Penns Valley charge of Methodist churches attending the Young People's Council at Hazleton were the Misses Gladys Smith, Florence Brooks, Amelia Copenhaver, Mrs. T. L. Moore and Mrs. H. A. Pruyn.

Robert Wesley Rudy, of State College, robbed the cash register in the garage of Frank McClellan, the Chevrolet dealer at State College, and in default of bail was committed to the county jail to await the next term of court.

Mrs. H. L. Pepoon and mother-in-law, Mrs. Cora Pepoon, of Bellefonte, spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacMorran, former neighbors. After October 1st, the Pepoon family will remove to Sussex New Jersey, where Mr. Pepoon will continue in the employ of one of the leading milk producing concerns.

Bellefonte Central railroad officials announce that their road between Bellefonte and Tyrone will be open for traffic by October 1st. It is not known to the public what arrangements have been made for terminal facilities at Tyrone, as the Bellefonte Central tracks terminate at Stover, three miles east of Tyrone.

Frank P. Phillips, at Potters Mills, contemplates entering a different line of business, and consequently will offer for sale household goods, autos and real estate at public sale, November 29, prior to which time more definite notice will be given. According to a statement of Mrs. Phillips made to the Reporter on Tuesday, they expect to locate in Milroy.

The Earlstown road from Old Fort to the intersection of the Tusseyville road is to be oiled and chipped by the State Highway Department. This section of road is in very bad condition, and since it is now an official detour it will be improved. In the construction of the concrete road from Potters Mills to State College, this road, in the future, will be used in transporting road materials.

A parking ground to the rear of the Clover Farm Store has been prepared by T. A. Hosterman, owner. The ground will accommodate ten or more cars, and is conveniently located and easy of access. Parking space in Centre Hall, like in nearly all towns, is becoming a problem. Such a movement as made by Mr. Hosterman, if it became general where practicable, would very much aid in solving the parking question.

The Logan Sportsmen's club house, in Blue Ball gap, east of Centre Hall, on Sunday, gave shelter to a number of persons from town. A dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Emery, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank White, Miss Algie Emery, George Michael, and Russel Copenhaver, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Gilliland, Miss Gilliland, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilliland, Bellefonte.

Mrs. Rough, mention of whose visit here from Buchanan, Michigan, is made elsewhere in this issue, gave a favorable report of two persons known here. One was Will T. Richards, who has been a resident of the Michigan town named for many years. He is living a life of ease in a delightful home of a friend. The other, the widow of Dr. Wm. Reber, lives in Berrien Springs. She is well up in the nineties and lives in comfort at the home of a daughter.

Daniel C. Daup, Sr., president of the First National Bank, here, fell from a ladder while assisting in painting a shed roof on one of the buildings on his farm near Potters Mills on Thursday of last week, and sustained a contused ankle causing him much pain for several days. At first it was thought a bone had been broken, but an X-ray made at the Centre County Hospital disproved that belief. At the present time Mr. Daup is not suffering much pain, but he will be unable to use the limb for some time.

Mrs. Catharine Rough and daughter Verna, and the latter's husband, J. C. Rehm, of Buchanan, Berrien county, Michigan, drove to Pennsylvania last week and visited Mrs. Rough's brother, David Young, at Colyer, and many others of her acquaintance. The lady, now eighty-two years old, left Potter township when she was twenty. She now lives in one of the best-kept homes in Buchanan, and is not wanting for anything, at least of a material nature. She is a remarkable person for her age. Time has not disturbed her mental faculties, permitting her to enjoy life to its fullest capacity. Her son-in-law is a general merchant in Buchanan, and enjoys an extensive trade. From here the party will motor to Reading where an only sister, Miss Maggie Young, lives with the Emmet Jordan family. Sidelights to Gettysburg, Philadelphia and the National Capital will be made before returning to Michigan.

How Telephone Calls Are Timed

The clock-like device above is the calculagraph—an electrically operated mechanism that records the elapsed time on out-of-town telephone calls. Upon receiving the details of a call from a subscriber, the operator writes them on what is known as a ticket, and when the conversation starts she places the ticket beneath the dial of the clock, and pulls a lever, which stamps the time. At the conclusion of the call, a ticket is again placed under the calculagraph and restamped. In this way the time consumed in the conversation is computed with unerring accuracy. This photograph was taken in the operating room of a dial central office.
