Invitations were confined to the members of the sophomore class of which she is also a member, in the local High school. The evening was spent most delightfully by the young people. Delicious refreshments were served.

A three months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dutrow, living on the Keller brothers' farm east of town, was bitten by a rat. The child was in a crib in the room occupied by the parents, and after midnight gave a cry indicating something unusual had happened. On examination it was discovered the rodent had bitten the baby in the toe and leg. Dr. Morrow was called to treat the wounds.

Miss Beulah H. Person, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Person, now living in Brooklyn, N. Y., has taken up nursing as a profession and has entered the school for nurses in Hahnemann Hospital, Philadelphia. Her cousin, Miss Margaret Burkholder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Burkholder, of Stroudsburg, has entered the Methodist hospital, also in Philadelphia, and will take a course in nursing in that institution.

The Centre Hall Grammar grade school held a wolver roast at Brown's place, Seven Mountains, Thursday evening of last week. The pupils were accompanied by their teacher, Mr. Bohn, also Misses Burkholder and Yearick. Of course, the affair was not permitted to shorten the day's work in the school room. Every minute of the time spent at the Locust State camp was enjoyed by every one, and the attendance was almost 100 per cent.

William A. Wagner, of Altoona, plotted his guest, Mrs. William Bitner and Mrs. M. P. Roseman, on an auto trip through Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Iowa, covering a two weeks period, arriving home on Saturday. The first stop was made with Mrs. Bitner's son, John H. Bitner, at Youngstown, Ohio, and then they went on to Loraine, Ohio, where John Pauley, a relative, was their host at the home of a daughter, at Berrien Springs, Mich., the Stamms, who went west from here many years ago, and in Clinton, Iowa, in turn Nancy Kimpport now married, entertained them. Mr. Pauley, named before, died the second day after they left his daughter's home, and was buried at Rockford, Ill., where the trio attended the funeral.
