

SUNDAY EVENING WRECK TAKES TOLL OF LIFE

Richard J. Matthews, of Altoona, a Spectator at Nittany Mountain Wreck, Run Down by Harry Ruhl, of Lewistown, and Dies in Centre County Hospital.

A wreck of slight consequence, on Nittany Mountain, at Greens Valley road, Sunday evening, resulted in the serious injury and subsequent death of a spectator. The unfortunate man, Richard J. Matthews, of Altoona, who on reaching the scene of an accident at the point named, left his car to make inquiry as to what happened, when he was hit by a Ford coupe driven by Harry Ruhl, formerly of Bellefonte, but now of Lewistown, a barber, and so seriously injured that he died in the Centre County hospital, Bellefonte, some hours after being taken there.

Richard J. Matthews, of Altoona, a spectator at Nittany Mountain Wreck, Run Down by Harry Ruhl, of Lewistown, and Dies in Centre County Hospital.

The first accident happened at about four o'clock when a Chrysler driven by Rufus B. Owens, of Lewistown, and a Lincoln, driven by Reuben Welty, of Bellefonte, collided. Both cars were hit on the left front. The Lincoln was coming north and attempted to turn into the Greens Valley road, as the Chrysler was going south on the concrete. Mr. Welty was accompanied by his wife, and Mr. Owens was alone in the Chrysler. None of the three was hurt, and no great damage was done to either car.

It was about 6:30 that the Ford, driven by Ruhl, came along and smashed into the three men previous-

Floyd R. Horner, 33, living on the Horner homestead near the site of the wreck, was also injured, and became hospital patient. The latter, like Mr. Matthews, was attracted by the collision of two cars and was standing in the roadway when struck.

The Ruhl car approached from the north, and is said to have been traveling at a rapid rate of speed. Others standing in the path of the car managed to get out of the way. The Ford hit the Chrysler car and badly damaged it on the left front. Mr. Ruhl was accompanied by his wife. It is reported he was intoxicated.

The injured were taken to the hospital at Bellefonte. A State Highway patrolman had informed Ruhl not to leave the scene, but he and Mrs. Ruhl were brought to Centre Hall by Guy Shunk, and were on their way to their home when overtaken at Milroy and brought back. They were taken in charge by a State Highway patrolman here and taken to Bellefonte. Late at night the couple were permitted to return home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ruhl were hurt, the former receiving one or more injured ribs and cuts on the face; the latter's injuries were of less consequence.

Monday evening a jury was empaneled by Coroner Heaton and evidence taken after viewing the body in the Widdowson funeral parlors in Bellefonte. The jury rendered a verdict of Mr. Ruhl having been guilty of reckless driving and negligence.

PAUL BRADFORD JOINS HOLSTEIN-FRIESIAN ASS'N
One of 371 Admitted in Past Four Months in 37 States—Association Has 31,000 Members.

Paul E. Bradford, well known breeder of pure-bred Holsteins in Potter township, has just been admitted to membership in the world's largest livestock recording association, according to word just received from the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, and is one of 371 from 37 different States that has been favorably recommended for membership during the past four months in this national association.

More than 31,000 members are now active in the Holstein-Friesian Association an approximately 1800 new members are admitted annually. Business is handled with more than 40,000 breeders of Holsteins, including non-members each year. More than 125,000 pure-bred Holsteins were registered last year and more than 100,000 have been registered each of the past eight years. The total registrations now exceed 2,000,000 mark (the 2,000,000th Holstein having been registered February 4) and the second million was added in the past nine years.

Last January 1, a total of 30,796 active members was listed in the association and recent additions bring the total to 31,878 of which 2710 are in this State. The total number of new members to be admitted for this State so far this year is 138.

NEW CHEVROLET FOR 1931.
Definite assurance that Chevrolet will introduce a new car for 1931 on Saturday, was revealed at Cleveland on Monday, during the staging by Chevrolet factory officials of the first fifty dealer meetings to be held in the next five weeks throughout the country.

Included in a carload of equipment brought in for the meeting was a new car substantially bigger than the current model, and extensively changed in appearance.

Although the meeting was closed to the public, it was learned that H. J. Klingner, vice-president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Co., who attended the meeting there, told the 500 dealers and associated bankers in attendance at the City Auditorium that the car would be publicly announced the coming Saturday, and that, despite its increased size and improved appearance, it would be priced considerably below current levels.

dealer reported. If the sentiment among the dealers at Cleveland is any criticism, the new car ought to prove the most successful product in the history of the company.

FARM CALENDAR

- TIMELY REMINDERS FROM PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE •

Heat Chickens' Drink—
Heated drinking fountains should be standard equipment on all poultry farms where lights are used for birds in winter.

More Fires This Year—
Farm fire losses have increased from 25 to 50 per cent during the current season of drought, government reports show. Special precautions against this great destroyer are urged.

Save Soil for Plants—
Leaf mold or other rich soil should be placed in a box and stored in the cellar before the ground freezes. This will come in handy for repotting plants during the winter.

Observe Honey Week—
National Honey Week will be observed November 7 to 14. Exhibits, demonstrations, radio broadcasts, and recipe leaflets will bring to the attention of the public the value of this food product.

Make Soil Compost—
A good soil compost can be prepared for plants started next winter or spring by piling alternate layers of manure and garden loam soil four feet wide about the same height, and as long as needed.

Feed Hay Carefully—

If hay is scarce, feed the best of it to milking cows and young calves. Give the other stock the poorer roughage supplemented by some grain.

Offer Short Course—

The tenth annual Poultry Short Course will be held November 10-13 at State College. Incubation, brooding, nutrition, judging, culling, diseases, and marketing will be discussed during the week.

Keep Farm Accounts—
Plan to keep records on the farm business during 1931. It pays to know what operations make the profit.
