SPRING MILLS Mr. and Mrs. James Stambach and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Burris, all of York, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rager and son Roy of Schrader, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Auman spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Skiles. Friends and acquaintances of Melvin Shunk, Sunbury, were sorry to hear of his death, as Mr. Shunk was born and raised in this town some thirty years ago, and was esteemed by all his associates. Rev. George Bright, of Ohio, is at present visiting his cousins, Bright and Elaine Bitner and their families. Rev. Bright is a son of the late John Adam Bright, who was well known throughout this community some 30 or 40 years ago.

This village is certainly showing that its citizens are active in making many improvements. The Water company has its main line placed along Long Avenue and as far as the Dunlap residence a distance of about 2000 feet, and merchant C. P. Long has built the fourth residence property which is now under roof; houses Nos. 2 and 3 are now being plastered. This building enterprise has given employment to a number of mechanics and laborers and adds a great deal to our village. Rumor has it that the town is to have a new business enterprise during the next year. Mr. Long also expects to build three more residence properties next spring.

The Grenoble brothes have leased the sand quarry on top of Brush mountain from C. P. Long. Sheds and grinding machinery will be placed for grinding and screening sand of the best quality for plastering and concrete work. Many tons have been sifted the past two months and placed on the market.

A very pleasant party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bechtel near Penn Hall, on Friday evening, among whom the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stover and Miss Josephine; Mr. and Mrs. James Stambach of York; Marian Meyers, Miss Tehudy, Cora Ripka, Isabel Swab, Lester Poorman and family, Clayton Poorman and family, Kathryn McCool, Mary Homan, Mabel Hagen, Jerry Albright, Nevin Shook, Mary Neese, Roy Krumrine, Kathleen Slagle, Nevin Keller, Mary Zubik, Prof. Hunsberger, Joseph Swabb and family; Jay McCool, Freya McCool, Sara Vonada, Gladys Rishel, Glen Zerby, Harold Homan, Harry Leitzeil, Richard Slack, Verna Ripka, Ardell Myers, Mildred Foust, Ralph Confor, Luella Hastings, Misses Phyllis and Olga Wagner, Geraldine Bitner, Bernice Smith, Lester Hastings, Ray Mark, Carl Hastings, Adeline Bradford, Guy Jamison, M. and Mrs. Bright Bitner, Emory Flory, Stover, Roseman, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Decker and family, Luther Frazier, Mrs. J. M. Mullinger, C. C. Bartges, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Corman, Robert Slegal, Ruth Ripka, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Condo, Luther Wagner, Harvey McCool and Earl Delaney. There was an abundance of refreshments served, prepared by Mrs. Bechtel, who knows how to prepare good eats. The party dispersed a little after midnight, and all expressed themselves as having spent the evening very pleasantly.

Sick at Spring Mills. Harry Snively is gradually improving from a rather serious illness due to complications. He was at the Lewistown hospital, a few weeks ago, for treatment, but is now at his home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Grove, young people, have been ill, but their condition is not regarded as alarming. Harry Hoy is also reported ill, but not serious.

DEATHS.

HARTER.—Harry Harter, a well-known carpenter in Bellefonte, died on Saturday from injuries received in a fall from a roof on which he had been working. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon and interment made at Pleasant Gap. He was aged about 60 years. He is survived by a wife, also by several children, Clement Harter, of Bellefonte; Albert Harter, Renovo; Mrs. Harry Hill, Pleasant Gap; and Mrs. Elias Breen, Axe Mann, are full brothers and sisters of the deceased, and Jacob Sharer, Centre Hall, is a half-brother.

HARPFSTER.—Jacob Harpfster, one of the best known residents of Westport township, died at the home of his son, Robert, at Gatesburg, after a brief illness with an attack of pneumonia.

He was a son of Samuel and Margaret Gates Harpfster and was born at Gatesburg 70 years ago. He was educated in the public schools of his home community and Juniata College. He taught school twelve years, then engaged in farming in which he was unusually successful. In the fall of 1893 he married Miss Emeline Gates who passed away in 1915, but surviving him are three sons and one daughter—Isaac, Ira and Robert Harpfster, all living in the vicinity of Gatesburg, and Mrs. J. F. Rossman, of Rock Springs. He also leaves three brothers, Daniel, Samuel and Ira G., all at home on the old farm.

VANTRIES.—George L. Vantries, a native of Centre county and for many years a resident of Bellefonte, died at his home in Pittsburgh, as the result of general debility.

He was a son of Samuel and Susan Poe Vantries and was born in Harter township 81 years ago. His boyhood life was spent on the home farm but when he grew to manhood he went to Bellefonte and for a number of years was bookkeeper in the offices of P. E. Crider & Son. Twenty-five or more years ago he went to Pittsburgh where he lived ever since. About forty-two years ago he married Miss Etta Mattern, of Tyrone, who survives with no children.

MEEK.—Seized with a heart attack, Mrs. Winifred B. Meek Morris, Pittsburgh, died suddenly late Wednesday afternoon of last week, at Bellefonte. She had not been in good health for two years and came to her old home in Bellefonte in July, hoping the change would prove beneficial.

Mrs. Morris was the youngest daughter of the late P. Gray Meek, for years prominent in Democratic politics through the State and editor of the Democratic Watchman for 50 years. She was a gifted writer of poetry and prose.

She is survived by son, Thomas King Morris, of Pittsburgh; a brother, Geo. R. Meek, publisher of the Democratic Watchman, and two sisters, Mary Gray Meek and Elizabeth B. Meek.

TOBIAS.—[The following obituary notice was forwarded to this office by Mrs. Gertrude Anderson, of Berrien Springs, Michigan, and refers to a former resident of this vicinity, having gone to Michigan from here. The note states further that Mrs. Tobias is very feeble.—Ed.]

Abraham B. Tobias, 79, was found dead in bed at an early hour, Tuesday morning, November 4, by his wife. He had been dead since about 5 a. m., it was stated by medical authorities. Mr. Tobias, who had been in ill health for more than a year, was one of Berrien county's well known residents. For a number of years he had resided on a farm near Arden, moving from there to Berrien Springs a year ago.

Born in Centre county, Pennsylvania, on January 13, 1851, Mr. Tobias was one of a family of 13 children, of whom he was the last surviving member.

Mr. Tobias had lived in Michigan since an early day and had been a member of the Odd Fellows' lodge and the Evangelical church at Arden.

He and his wife were one of the few Berrien county couples to celebrate a 60th wedding anniversary, a date which was observed quietly last January because of the ill health of the pair.

Besides his wife, Mr. Tobias is survived by six children: Mrs. Martha Culliton, Kewanna, Ind.; Mrs. Gertrude Anderson, Muskegon; Elmer Tobias, Royaltown township; Cephas A. Tobias, and Mrs. John J. Stover, of Berrien Springs; Caleb Tobias, Salt Lake City, Utah. The eldest son, Wm. H. Tobias, died a year ago in March at Salt Lake City. There are also 31 grandchildren surviving Mr. Tobias.

STOVER.—John Fredrick Stover, aged 65 years, 4 months and 24 days, died at his home in Berryburg at 10 o'clock Sunday evening, November 2, after an illness of about a week with heart asthma. He had been a resident of that community for 45 years.

Mr. Stover was a son of the late William and Mary (Runkle) Stover, and was born June 6, 1845, at Centre Hall. He went to Berryburg as a Western Union telegraph operator. Some time later he was clerk for the late Joseph F. Romberger in his general store.

He was married to Miss Grace Romberger, daughter of the store owner. After Mr. Romberger's death he took charge of the store and also became postmaster. He was postmaster of that community for thirty years, and held that office at the time of his death.

His death was unexpected, as he had followed his regular routine the day previous and had attended to his store and postal duties up until Saturday evening.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Joseph W. Stover, garage owner, and one granddaughter, all of Berryburg. Mr. Stover was a member of the Lutheran church at Berryburg.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon, November 6th, at his residence; interment was private. Rev. R. E. Kramer, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, of-

Belated. Burial in Union cemetery at Berryburg. The deceased was the last surviving member of the William Stover family.

ALTOONA BOOSTER MERCHANTS TO STAGE PARADE AND PAGEANT, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28

The fact that Christmas is fast approaching is brought very forcibly to the attention of our readers in the large advertisement being used in this issue by the Altoona Booster Association to tell of a wonderful Parade and Pageant that will be held in Altoona on Friday, November 28, the day after Thanksgiving.

The Parade has been arranged in honor of Santa Claus who has sent word to the Altoona Merchants that he will come direct to their stores from his North Pole headquarters where he has been busy in his workshop ever since last Christmas making toys for his millions of boys and girls throughout the world.

According to the information sent by the Jolly old Saint, he will arrive in Altoona, accompanied by his Santa Claus band, in time to lead the Parade that has been arranged in his honor and which will start promptly at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, November 28.

There will be an interesting group of story book favorites in the parade such as Humpty-Dumpty, Cinderella, Aladdin and his Wonderful Lamp, Jack and the Bean Stalk, and other interesting story book characters and attendants all dressed in gorgeous costumes just as they are described in the story books.

Santa Claus will also have in his Parade an Eskimo Band dressed just like the people with whom Santa lives throughout the year at the North Pole.

An Invitation from Santa Claus. Santa Claus sends a special invitation to all children as well as their parents to come to Altoona and see him and his wonderful Parade.

He wants all boys and girls to bring their letters to him and his couriers will gather them up along the route. This is important as this arrangement will insure the letters going direct to Santa Claus for his attention.

The management of the Altoona Booster Association assures us that this will be the best and most colorful Santa Claus Pageant that has ever been held in this section and one that every child should see.

Opening Christmas Shopping Season. The Altoona stores will inaugurate the opening of the Christmas Shopping Season on the same day that the Santa Claus Parade is held, Friday, November 28.

This will be the time when the stores will have their complete display of Christmas Gift merchandise ready for inspection. The suggestion made by Altoona merchants to their out-of-town friends to trade in their home stores first but to come to Altoona Booster Stores for the things their home merchants cannot supply, pertains to Christmas Gift buying the same as to other merchandise.
