Mrs. Askey, housekeeper for Harry Weaver, passed away in the Geisinger hospital during an operation. She had been a patient in that institution some time ago but had never fully regained her health.

Emerick Heirs Lose Suit Against Astor.

Heirs of John Nicholas Emerick, partner of the original John Jacob Astor, many of whom are in Centre county, and others scattered all through Central Pennsylvania and the Western States, are being notified that they have met another disappointment in their efforts to share in the great Astor fortune.

For many years, the Emerick heirs have conducted suits against the Astor estate on the basis of an alleged agreement between the two pioneers of the American fur trade that certain interests turned over to Astor were to revert to the Emerick estate after a specified time.

The will is alleged to specify this agreement and numerous other documents are in the possession of the Emerick representatives, their counsel claimed. The latest attempt to claim a portion of the Astor fortune was dismissed by the New York Supreme Court.

G. O. P. Has Majority of Two In the Next House.

An unofficial list of members elected to the House of the 72nd Congress issued a few days ago by William Tyler Page, clerk of the House, showed 218 Republicans, 216 Democrats, and one Farmer-Labor.

On the basis of certificates issued by Otto G. Field, Secretary of State for Indiana, Representative Albert H. Vestal was listed as re-elected from the 8th Indiana district over Claude Ball, the Democratic candidate, who was defeated by nine votes.

Sunbury Church Cross Visible Far.

Aviators arriving at the Sunbury airport declare that a lighted cross recently placed on the tower of the Zion Lutheran church, is visible for 65 miles. They first see it when they cross the crest of mountains near Tamaqua, heading west at night, where it shows as a blur of light, rapidly assuming form.

FARM CALENDAR

TIMELY REMINDERS FROM PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Feed for Health— Adding cod liver oil to the poultry ration will help to maintain the health of the flock and also to improve the texture of the shells.

Cows Need Roughage— Cattle need roughage in the ration. Where the amount fed may be somewhat less than usual but substituting concentrates for a large part of the roughage should not be attempted. It is better to make use of the straw stack or to buy hay, oat feed, or beet pulp.

Burn Insect Quarters— Cut down the insect population in 1931 by cleaning up the garden and burning all infected vegetation this fall. Winter quarters of many harmful insects will be destroyed in this way.

Need Water for Milk— Cows will produce more milk if they can get clean drinking water when they want it. Heat the water in tanks in the winter to remove the chill.

Keep Rust from Farming— A coat of grease on the plowshares and moldboard, cultivator shovels, and other farm implements of similar nature, comes off more easily than a coat of rust.

Take Annual Inventory— Take an inventory of the farm property before starting the record book. It is well to be informed as to what equipment and supplies are on hand for the year's operations.

Lights Mean More Eggs— Artificial lights will stimulate the egg production of normal hens. Many poultrymen prefer to turn on the lights early enough in the morning to give the hens a 12-hour day in which they may eat and lay.

Apply Complete Sprays— Fruit growers who spray consistently harvest uniformly clean crops of a high grade product. Omitting one or more applications is a costly practice, say State College entomologists.

PRESENTING THE NEW CHEVROLET SIX

Today the Chevrolet Motor Company presents the Bigger and Better Chevrolet Six, a new model of the six-cylinder car which has enjoyed such wide popularity.

In both the chassis and body of this new six-cylinder Chevrolet you will find expressed, as never before, Chevrolet's well-known policy of progress through constant improvement.

For—without departing from the basic features which have won the enthusiastic approval of over 2,000,000 buyers—Chevrolet has produced a six-cylinder car which represents an entirely new standard of quality, value and refinement in the low-price field.

Your first impression of the new Chevrolet will be one of striking fleetness, grace and beauty. The car is longer, lower and modernly smart. The radiator has been deepened and its appearance enhanced by a curving tie-bar and chrome-plated parabolic headlamps. The long hood lines sweep back unbroken to blend gracefully into the new Fisher bodies. And never was Fisher's fine craftsmanship more evident than in the bodies of the new Chevrolet Six!

Not only are the smart, graceful, new bodies roomier and more comfortable, but as you study them you will discover many gratifying new features and pleasing refinements—many examples of that painstaking attention to detail which is the basis of true quality.

Mechanically, too, the new Chevrolet Six is a better automobile. The wheelbase is longer. The frame is stronger. The steering is easier. The clutch is more durable. There is a smoother, quieter, easier shifting transmission. In fact, wherever finer materials and more advanced design could add to Chevrolet quality or increase Chevrolet's traditional economy of ownership—improvement has been made. See the new Chevrolet Six—and you will agree that here is the Great American Value!
