DAIX WINS OVER
PINCHOT OPPOSITION

Governor-elect Pinchot lost his first political battle when Augustus F.
Daix, Jr., of Philadelphia, was nominated for Senate speaker for the second time. Pinchot had picked William D. Mansfield and used his influence to set aside an old custom of giving the speaker at least two terms. The vote was 22 to 24. Senator Scott voted for Daix.

DEATHS.

STOVER—Mrs. Matilda W. Stover died January 3, 1931, at 7 o'clock P.
M., at her late residence in Reedsville, death being due to a heart attack.

She was the daughter of Henry and Mary W. Kohler, deceased, and was the last of a family of thirteen children. Born in Milroy, May 5, 1854, her age at time of death was 76 years, 7 months and 28 days. Her earlier life was spent in Milroy, the latter twenty-five years in Reedsville and the intervening years at Potters Mills.

Her husband, John O. Stover, preceded her in death four years ago.

She is survived by one son, H. B.
Stover, and one daughter, Mrs. Laura Fultz, and two grandchildren, Misses Mabel A. and Ellen S. Fultz, all at the parental home. Funeral services were conducted at her late residence in Reedsville, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock; interment in Woodlawn cemetery, Milroy.

STOVER—A heart attack, after an illness of eight weeks, proved fatal for Orris J. Stover, prominent lower Bald Eagle Valley resident and county auditor, at his home at the Blanchard House, Blanchard, a hostelry which he successfully conducted for many years.

Mr. Stover was born in Liberty township 67 years ago and was a son of John Adam Stover and Catherine Reichley Stover, both deceased. His wife, who was Alice Heaton, a daughter of the late Henry Heaton, of Boggs township, died in 1923, leaving him with one daughter, Mrs. Russell Spangler, of Blanchard.

Mr. Stover was one of the few hotel keepers before the days of prohibition who refused to apply for a license and sell intoxicating drinks in his hotel.

For the past twenty years Mr. Stover had been tax collector of Liberty township. In 1925 he was elected to a seat on the Board of County Auditors and until the time he became ill he served his county very efficiently.

Fraternally he was affiliated with the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks, the I. O. O.
F. and the Moose.

Funeral services were conducted by the Elks Lodge of Bellefonte, and were held at his home at Blanchard with interment in the Askey cemetery.

mer pastor of the Bellefonte Lutheran church, died at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Vincent Krone, of Av-ala, near Pittsburgh, following an illness of infinites of age. Had he lived until January he would have been 92 years of age. He was born at Aaronsburg. He was married to Mrs. Mary Misser, of Spring township. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Ida Reno and several grand-children. Rev.
Schoch was a well known Lutheran minister, and his first charge was Bellefonte. His remains were brought to Bellefonte and placed in state in the Lutheran church where scores visited the bier. Services were conducted by Rev. Clarence Arnold; interment in the Union cemetery.

AILMAN—Mrs. Nanette Mary Ail-man, aged 73 years, of Houserville, died at the Centre County hospital as the result of a fractured hip, received when she fell at her home December 3. She was born at Houserville and was the last member of her family.

She is survived only by her husband, Herbert Ailman. The deceased was a member of the Evangelical church and lived all her life in the vicinity in which she died. Funeral services were held at her home on the last day of 1930, the Rev. W. E. Smith, pastor of the Centre Hall Evangelical church officiating. Burial was made in the Houserville cemetery.

WAITE—Mrs. Cora Mae Waite, aged 55 years, wife of George H. Waite, of Clintondale, died at her home after a lingering illness with pneumonia.
She was a lifelong resident of Nitany Valley and moved to Clintondale about eight years ago. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, her father, Henry Brugard, of Lock Haven, and a number of brothers and sisters.

Private funeral services were held at her home, in charge of Rev. Paul Keller, of Snydertown, assisted by Rev.
T. R. Husler, of Lock Haven, and interment made in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

ROSS—William Ross, aged 9 years, son of Joseph Ross and Emma (Smith) Ross, deceased, died in the Centre County hospital Monday preceding Christmas, of Bright's disease. Funeral services were held Monday morning; the father and step-mother, one sister, Mary and one brother, Joseph, survive. The lad was a nephew of T.

L. Smith, of Centre Hall.

SHIMP—Betrim E. Shimp, aged 66 years, fell dead in his blacksmith shop in Lewistown some time Saturday night. He was found lying near the stove Sunday morning by one of his daughters. Interment was made on Tuesday in Lewistown where he was born and reared. There survive him a wife and two daughters—Mrs. W.
E. (Pearl) Oles and Mrs. Anna Simpson, both of Lewistown.

Mr. Shimp, about forty years ago, lived in Centre Hall and was employed in the foundry here.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Kryder and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Homan, on Monday, made a business trip to the State capital.

Local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will join in celebrating the 17th day anniversary of Thomas Wilkey, the founder of Odd Fellowship, next Tuesday evening in the local Odd Fellows hall.
All members and their families are invited.

William H. Homan came into possession of the John D. Homan property, east of the borough, through various deals made in the past. The consideration was not made known. The property consists of some farm land, a large brick house and a good barn.

Due to the changing buying habits of the public, and in the interests of more economical distribution of merchandise, a group of Millheim merchants are announcing a change in store closing hours. Under the new arrangement these stores will be open for business each Monday, Wednesday and Saturday evening. See notice in this issue.

Miss Lehaelle Wiggins, of Tankhannock, who recently was advanced from a State worker to a National field worker of the W. C. T. U., was in town on Tuesday, and spoke to the young people of the Y. P. B. and L. T.
L. branches of the society she represents. From here she went to Spring Mills, Millheim and Rebersburg where she also spoke in behalf of these organizations.

The State Highway Department very graciously (?) turned back to the township of Potter the portion of the State highway between Tusseyville and Potters Mills. This is the department's method of abandoning its roads. It is now the business of Potter township to maintain this section of road, or take measures through the local court to vacate it. It is likely the latter course will be taken with respect to portions of the road, while other sections will no doubt be maintained for the convenience of property owners on it.
