

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Potter township has a total of sixty miles of township roads.

W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Fiedler, Tuesday evening, January 13th.

The trackmen on the local branch are back to work again after their forced vacation.

The Nittany League of Youth will meet in the State College Methodist church, Friday night, 16th inst.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bradford and family were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bauer in Huntingdon.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Grove, of town, recently drove to Pittsburgh where they visited their son, Russell Grove, and family.

Mrs. F. P. Geary and daughter, Miss Agnes, returned to their home here last week, after having been guests of Miss Sue Reeder, in Williamsport.

The joint council of the Penns Valley Lutheran church will meet in the Lutheran church at this place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A son, weight 3 pounds, was born the day after Christmas to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith at their home near Tusseyville. Two girls and a boy in the family now.

Miss Edith Booser, a teacher in the Mt. Airy school of which institution she is also a graduate, returned there on Saturday after having visited her parents here for a short time.

Mrs. Sylvester Gutelius, of East Orange, N. J., formerly of Millheim, will broadcast over radio station WGRS on Wednesday, January 21st, at 4.45 p. m., as the guest of one of the artists in the "Movie Chat" hour.

J. W. Raymond, south of town, is at present visiting his brother, D. T. Raymond, in Sunbury. Mr. Raymond has not been in the best of health and is off the farm to obtain the benefits a change might bring.

A daughter was born on Tuesday night of last week to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Booser, in town. The baby has been named Dorothy Mae. A brother, five years old, is the only other child in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Jacobs and three children, drove here from Steubenville, Ohio, Saturday following Christmas, and remained at the home of Mr. Jacobs' mother, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, until the following Wednesday.

D. C. Mitterling and daughter, Miss Miriam, recently drove to Highspire where they visited Rev. F. W. Barry and family. They also stopped in Harrisburg and while on the streets met Mrs. Elizabeth Mitterling, the former's mother, who is now in that city.

Henry Blauser, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Blauser, of Potters Mills, who is a sophomore at Penn State in the school of Dairy Husbandry, spent his vacation gaining some practical experience at Mary Springs Farm, in Chester county, where a dairy herd of 210 registered Jerseys is kept.

Samuel S. Lewis, who will become Secretary of the Department of Highways under Governor Pinchot, follows James L. Stuart, the present head of that department. Mr. Lewis as State Treasurer, took issue with the Fisher 4-cent gasoline tax. He will now have an opportunity to apply his ideas of highway financing.

Miss Mary Daugherty, of Rome, Bradford county, was a recent guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Allis, in town. Miss Daugherty is a primary grade teacher in the Athens public schools. Before returning home she attended the teachers convention at Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rossman, accompanied by Mrs. Lewis Rossman, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. J. D. Neese, of Millheim, motored to Ohio last week and spent a short time with relatives in the Buckeye state. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Goodhart, in Youngstown, and of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bohn in Akron.

Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and sister, Mrs. H. W. Potter, and Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, all of town, furnished the music for the religious services held Sunday afternoon at Rockview penitentiary. The speaker was Louis Heinaman, secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. The attendance, which is voluntary, was large and the most respectful attention was given every portion of the program.

Franklin Sharer will again take up farming. Last spring he made sale while a tenant on the Jacob Sharer farm, which farm was sold to Ray J. Sharer. During the past summer he was employed for the greater part of the time at State College, but last fall concluded he preferred farming to the kind of work he was doing. The Spear Green farm, one mile south of Millheim, was consequently leased by him.

Christmas was a gala day at the Dayton Lansberry home, west of Centre Hall, when all the children and grandchildren, to the number of twenty-one, of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith, of town, met at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Lansberry. A large turkey, with all the fixins, graced the table. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, Bruce, Verna, Katherine and Freda Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith and son Gerald; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baylett and daughters June, Gladys and Nina; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barner and daughter Phyllis; Mr. and Mrs. Newton Zell, daughter Margie; Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Lansberry, Pauline, Erno, Sherwood, Delber and Drew Lansberry.

On two previous occasions mention was made in these columns of an Arkansas lady, Mrs. Jennie Staden, having come here at the solicitation of C. A. Weaver, a farmer, in Upper Brush Valley. After having been at the Weaver home for a week, she started home by auto on the last day of the old year, Mr. Weaver having generously loaned her his car in which to make the trip. She at least reached Bowling Green, Ky., safely, as indicated by a card mailed from there to Mr. Weaver. Unfortunately, Mr. Weaver failed to make arrangements to have the car returned to him, and since the motor vehicle was secured from the Homan Motor company on a lease, that firm has taken measures to trace the car through the State motor patrolmen. The woman, however, who committed no violation, is not being sought.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lansberry and two children, of Brackney, spent the week before Christmas at the home of Mrs. Lansberry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Glasgow, west of town. While visiting here the Lansberry home at Brackney was destroyed by fire, together with all its contents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burchfield, of Montgomery, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClellan, in town. Mr. Burchfield, who has been in Montgomery since quite a young man, is at present employed by the Decker

Leather goods manufacturing company.

The Southside Zebra is dead. A year ago a mule belonging to John Lingle, at Colyer, was striped with a paint brush well to the imitation of a zebra. The mule ever since has been downhearted, and finally died in disgust with life. William Strong, at Colyer, was his owner when he "kicked out."

The following persons were entertained at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Smith, on Christmas day: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jackson, G. B. Jackson and sister, Miss Clara, and Miss Clara Evey, all of State College; Mrs. F. M. Charles and daughter, of Boolsburg.

Lester Gasbrick, the inventor of a gasoline-driven sleigh, made a trip with the vehicle on Sunday, driving through the various streets in town. He carried two passengers and traveled at a good rate of speed. The vehicle is driven by a propeller on the rear. It has been in use several years but each year improvements are made.

giving it more speed and better control.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, N. C., were in town for a few hours, having accompanied John D. Meyer, of Tyrone, here. Mr. McCormick reports North Carolina's capital in fine shape and rural sections about it as prosperous, rain falls during the past summer having been sufficient to grow good crops. He is the leading mortician in his city, having been located there well on to thirty years.

Mrs. Carrie Tibbens Hackett of Millheim was among the Reporter's numerous callers on business during last week.

Mrs. Doll's Brungart, a week ago, returned to Youngwood, where she is with her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Keefe, and family.

Prof. L. O. Packer, after having been with his family here for two weeks, on Saturday returned to Pittsburgh to be ready for resuming teaching in one of the several high schools in that city.

Mrs. Ernest Frank entertained the Young People's society of the Lutheran church at her home recently. After the regular program was rendered the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nearhood and the latter's son, Lester Minnich, and wife, of State College, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Frank Smith, in town.

Miss Mary Ellen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew, Altoona, recently underwent a tonsil operation in the city named. She went back to her home, no ill effects following the operation.

Miss Kathryn Meyer, daughter of Harry N. Meyer, of Bellefonte, received word of the death of her roommate at Hood college, Miss Helen Harris, of Pittsburgh, who was killed in an automobile wreck.

Guests recently entertained at the C. D. Bartholomew home were Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Hazen and children of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reesman, Camden, N. J., and Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Itshel, of State College.

Herbert McClellan, of Fillmore, and Ova Gillett and Fred Hall, of Burnside township, were arrested and fined for killing deer out of season. The first killed one deer and the other two each two deer. A fine of $100 for each deer killed, and costs, was the sentence given by Justice Woodring.

Edward Vogt, aged eleven years, was painfully injured Saturday when the rear of a runner on his hand sled penetrated his leg close to the crotch. The boy, a son of Edward Vogt, the rendering plant operator, was climbing down a ladder at the foot of which the sled was standing on end. The wound apparently is healing nicely.

Upon the arrival of her sixth birthday, the day after Christmas, from 2:30 to 6:30 P. M., a birthday party was given Jean Bartholomew by her parents, to which twelve little folks were invited and attended, all of whom greatly enjoyed the event. The guests were Patty and David Booser, Billy Booser, Miriam Homan, Miriam Brooka Betty Searson, Isabel Emery, Nellie Knarr, Algie Smith and Joyce Bradford.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Pruyn of Spring Mills, have taken a baby girl into their home. The child was born on Christmas day at a maternity hospital near Philadelphia and was brought home by the Pruyns five days later. The child was given Elaine as its hospital name. She is said to be an exceptionally sweet baby and was brought into the Pruyn home at the repeated pleadings of their young son, Jack, for a sister. The little one is receiving the best of care and love and caresses as closely as possible to those of natural parents.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lansberry and two children, of Brackney, spent the week before Christmas at the home of Mrs. Lansberry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Glasgow, west of town. While visiting here the Lansberry home at Brackney was destroyed by fire, together with all its contents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burchfield, of Montgomery, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClellan, in town. Mr. Burchfield, who has been in Montgomery since quite a young man, is at present employed by the Decker

Leather goods manufacturing company.

The Southside Zebra is dead. A year ago a mule belonging to John Lingle, at Colyer, was striped with a paint brush well to the imitation of a zebra. The mule ever since has been downhearted, and finally died in disgust with life. William Strong, at Colyer, was his owner when he "kicked out."

The following persons were entertained at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Smith, on Christmas day: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jackson, G. B. Jackson and sister, Miss Clara, and Miss Clara Evey, all of State College; Mrs. F. M. Charles and daughter, of Boolsburg.

Lester Gasbrick, the inventor of a gasoline-driven sleigh, made a trip with the vehicle on Sunday, driving through the various streets in town. He carried two passengers and traveled at a good rate of speed. The vehicle is driven by a propeller on the rear. It has been in use several years but each year improvements are made.

giving it more speed and better control.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, N. C., were in town for a few hours, having accompanied John D. Meyer, of Tyrone, here. Mr. McCormick reports North Carolina's capital in fine shape and rural sections about it as prosperous, rain falls during the past summer having been sufficient to grow good crops. He is the leading mortician in his city, having been located there well on to thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lansberry and two children, of Brackney, spent the week before Christmas at the home of Mrs. Lansberry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Glasgow, west of town. While visiting here the Lansberry home at Brackney was destroyed by fire, together with all its contents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burchfield, of Montgomery, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClellan, in town. Mr. Burchfield, who has been in Montgomery since quite a young man, is at present employed by the Decker

Leather goods manufacturing company.

The Southside Zebra is dead. A year ago a mule belonging to John Lingle, at Colyer, was striped with a paint brush well to the imitation of a zebra. The mule ever since has been downhearted, and finally died in disgust with life. William Strong, at Colyer, was his owner when he "kicked out."

The following persons were entertained at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Smith, on Christmas day: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jackson, G. B. Jackson and sister, Miss Clara, and Miss Clara Evey, all of State College; Mrs. F. M. Charles and daughter, of Boolsburg.

Lester Gasbrick, the inventor of a gasoline-driven sleigh, made a trip with the vehicle on Sunday, driving through the various streets in town. He carried two passengers and traveled at a good rate of speed. The vehicle is driven by a propeller on the rear. It has been in use several years but each year improvements are made.

giving it more speed and better control.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, N. C., were in town for a few hours, having accompanied John D. Meyer, of Tyrone, here. Mr. McCormick reports North Carolina's capital in fine shape and rural sections about it as prosperous, rain falls during the past summer having been sufficient to grow good crops. He is the leading mortician in his city, having been located there well on to thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lansberry and two children, of Brackney, spent the week before Christmas at the home of Mrs. Lansberry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Glasgow, west of town. While visiting here the Lansberry home at Brackney was destroyed by fire, together with all its contents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burchfield, of Montgomery, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClellan, in town. Mr. Burchfield, who has been in Montgomery since quite a young man, is at present employed by the Decker

Leather goods manufacturing company.

The Southside Zebra is dead. A year ago a mule belonging to John Lingle, at Colyer, was striped with a paint brush well to the imitation of a zebra. The mule ever since has been downhearted, and finally died in disgust with life. William Strong, at Colyer, was his owner when he "kicked out."

The following persons were entertained at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Smith, on Christmas day: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jackson, G. B. Jackson and sister, Miss Clara, and Miss Clara Evey, all of State College; Mrs. F. M. Charles and daughter, of Boolsburg.

Lester Gasbrick, the inventor of a gasoline-driven sleigh, made a trip with the vehicle on Sunday, driving through the various streets in town. He carried two passengers and traveled at a good rate of speed. The vehicle is driven by a propeller on the rear. It has been in use several years but each year improvements are made.

giving it more speed and better control.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, N. C., were in town for a few hours, having accompanied John D. Meyer, of Tyrone, here. Mr. McCormick reports North Carolina's capital in fine shape and rural sections about it as prosperous, rain falls during the past summer having been sufficient to grow good crops. He is the leading mortician in his city, having been located there well on to thirty years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lansberry and two children, of Brackney, spent the week before Christmas at the home of Mrs. Lansberry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Glasgow, west of town. While visiting here the Lansberry home at Brackney was destroyed by fire, together with all its contents.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burchfield, of Montgomery, were guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClellan, in town. Mr. Burchfield, who has been in Montgomery since quite a young man, is at present employed by the Decker

Leather goods manufacturing company.

The Southside Zebra is dead. A year ago a mule belonging to John Lingle, at Colyer, was striped with a paint brush well to the imitation of a zebra. The mule ever since has been downhearted, and finally died in disgust with life. William Strong, at Colyer, was his owner when he "kicked out."

The following persons were entertained at a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Smith, on Christmas day: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jackson, G. B. Jackson and sister, Miss Clara, and Miss Clara Evey, all of State College; Mrs. F. M. Charles and daughter, of Boolsburg.

Lester Gasbrick, the inventor of a gasoline-driven sleigh, made a trip with the vehicle on Sunday, driving through the various streets in town. He carried two passengers and traveled at a good rate of speed. The vehicle is driven by a propeller on the rear. It has been in use several years but each year improvements are made.

giving it more speed and better control.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, N. C., were in town for a few hours, having accompanied John D. Meyer, of Tyrone, here. Mr. McCormick reports North Carolina's capital in fine shape and rural sections about it as prosperous, rain falls during the past summer having been sufficient to grow good crops. He is the leading mortician in his city, having been located there well on to thirty years.

NIEMAN'S GREAT JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE...

Beginning Friday Morning, Jan. 9, 1931--for 2 Weeks Only

A SALE WITH A PURPOSE:-Most stores make sales to dispose of old stock to clean out left-over merchandise. OUR REASONS ARE ENTIRELY DIFFERENT. Our stock is in excellent shape, MOSTLY NEW MERCHANDISE. We do not have unsalable, old merchandise. BUT WE DO WANT TO GIVE TO OUR CUSTOMERS, some real New Year's gifts. WE ARE USING THIS SALE TO ADVERTISE, to get publicity, to show our appreciation of your patronage. THEREFORE, we have Ruthlessly Slashed our Prices. We have Red-Pencilled and drastically Reduced every ARTICLE in our stock. These prices are only a few samples of what we really have. COME IN AND SEE FOR YOURSELF. OUR PRICES SPEAK, and THEY TELL YOU TO BUY AND SAVE.

MEN'S AND WOMEN'S HEAVY All-Wool Sweaters formerly $5.00; now $2.95

90 PAIR LADIES' FELT House Slippers All sizes; value to $1.25—49c

Boys New Overcoats formerly $9.00 & $10.00; all sizes now $3.95

Men's Dress Shirts Sizes 14 to 18; value $1.25 to $1.50 89c

32 Men's Sheepskin COATS Regular Value, $8.00 to $9.00. For this sale, $3.95.

ONE LOT 35 BOYS' SUITS, mostly large sizes; values to $10.00—$1.98

ARCTIC 95 PAIR of Ladies' Low and high fabric-top Arctics, almost all sizes; values to $1. Special at $1.29

ONE GROUP MEN'S SUITS All wool and fine silk and wool. Out-of-the-ordinary, finely tailored garments. Prices $22.50 to $27.50— for this Sale, $17.95

120 Pr. Rubbers Mostly Gold Seal; all first grade—not all sizes—10c

Mens Black Oxfords New Styles; values to $5.00; all with the New Metal Heelplate—$2.95

Men's Topcoats All sizes; extraordinary value Formerly to $15.00—now $9.75

A GROUP OF SHOES--all Sizes--medium and high heel--values to $6.00. A Value You Can't Afford to Miss! $1.95

Ladies' Winter Coats Not all sizes; one small lot--some originally $25.00; NOW $1.95

CHILD'S COATS SPECIAL -- Good weight Winter Coats, Sizes to 14-- $1.95

Flannel Shirts Men's Heavy, Warm--Regular $1.50 Values for this sale only--89c

MEN'S OVERCOATS Real Quality, cream of our stock, regular prices $22.50 to $30.00--NOW... $16.75

SPECIAL BARGAIN ONE LOT Men's Suits, all wool, assorted patterns, almost all sizes, val. $17.50 $9.95

EVERY ARTICLE MAY BE EXCHANGED OR MONEY REFUNDED

LADIES' SILK DRESSES VALUES FORMERLY TO $8.95... $3.95 VALUES FORMERLY TO 15.75... $6.95

ENTIRE STOCK MARKED DOWN

All RUBBERS ENTIRE STOCK GREATLY REDUCED

NIEMAN'S DEPT. STORE "WHERE YOUR DOLLARS GO FARTHEST" MILLHEIM

ENTIRE STOCK LADIES' HATS 50c and 95c

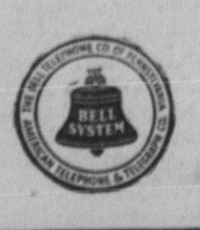

INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE

WANT TO BUY OR SELL? SEE US FIRST.

C. D. BARTHOLOMEW CENTRE HALL, PA.

There're winter profits in hauling cord wood. TELEPHONE the nearby town for orders.

The modern farm home has a Telephone

MILE-A-MINUTE MARTY —by— Decker Chevrolet Co., Bellefonte, Pa.

YEP, WE'RE DRIVING OUT TO THE COUNTRY CLUB TO DO A BIT OF SKIING!

YOU DON'T HAVE TO GO OUT THERE TO SKI. JUST DRIVE THAT CAR OF YOURS OVER THESE ICE ROADS!

SAY, BIG BOY - I BOUGHT THIS CAR AT DECKER CHEVROLET CO. AND THAT MEANS IT HAS RUBBER THAT GRIPS THE GROUND AND BRAKES THAT WOULD MAKE A FIXED STAR OUT OF A COMET!

- RELIABLE USED CARS ON EASY PAYMENT TERMS
- 1925 BUICK Sedan.
 - 1927 CHEVROLET Landau Sedan
 - 1926 CHEVROLET Touring
 - 1927 ESSEX Super Six Coach
 - 1926 CHEVROLET Landau Sedan
 - 1926 FORD Coupe.
 - 1923 FORD Roadster.
 - 1926 OAKLAND Sport Roadster.
 - 1927 PONTIAC Sport Roadster
 - 1927 CHEVROLET Touring.
 - 1927 ESSEX Coupe.
 - 1929 WHIPPET Sport Coupe.
 - 1930 CHEVROLET Coach (5 wire wheels)
 - 1929 Model 'A' Business Coupe.
 - 1913 FORD Touring (CHEAP)
 - 1927 CHEVROLET Coupe.
 - 1925 OLDSMOBILE Coupe.
 - 1926 DODGE Coupe.
 - 1924 FORD Touring.
 - 1927 OVERLAND Touring.
 - 1925 BUICK Sport Roadster.
 - 1924 CHEVROLET Roadster (CHEAP)
 - 1924 WILLYS KNIGHT Touring.
 - 1929 VIM Truck Dump Body.
 - 1924 Brockway Truck, Keanopy Top, transmission, 4-wheel brakes, stake body.
 - 1928 CHEVROLET TRUCK, 4 speed body.
 - 1926 CHEVROLET TRUCK, open express body.

Decker Chevrolet Co. Phone 405 BELLEFONTE, PA.