RICHELIEU THEATRE ATTRACTIONS. Do you want to be thrilled? To hold your breath with a drama of life and death, of hate and love, unfolds in ever mounting action against a background of storms at sea, of ships crashing in the night, of daring rescues and perilous encounters?

Then see "Derflet" the feature at the Richelieu theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, in which the great George Bancroft depicts a masterful character, taken right from the salty ocean, in a manner that is thoroughly moving and convincing in a drama of deep-sea love and hate that will stir you to the very depths of your soul.

Daimless courage and heroism, of the kind so often displayed by the coast guard, at last gets the recognition of the audible screen, in the Fox movie production, "Men On Call," featuring Edmund Lowe and Mae Clark, coming to the Richelieu Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

"No theatre-goer who is decently grateful for the divine gift of eyesight should fail to see 'Hell's Angels' at State Theatre.

"Stat" Theatre All Next Week. "Charley's Aunt," a hilarious comedy of student life at picturesque Oxford University, is the latest vehicle of that famous player, Charlie Ruggles, beloved of millions of fans.

The story centers about two Oxford students, who invite their sweethearts to luncheon at their rooms and then find themselves minus the chaperon they had counted on. "Babba," one of their college friends, is disguised in feminine attire, pressed into service and introduced as "Charley's Aunt." The complications that result from this are infinitely funny.
