

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The time for equity as well as the regular argument court is the second Monday in April.

Wilbur A. Henney has been quite ill for the past two weeks, and part of the time delirious.

The W. C. T. U. dues social will be held in the High school building, Friday evening, March 13.

C. P. Long, prominent Spring Mills resident and merchant, was a business caller at this office last Friday.

E. T. Jamison, the well known insurance agent at Spring Mills was in town on business on Monday.

Mrs. W. W. Parker, west of town, has been seriously ill from double pneumonia during the past week or more.

March gave us a few days of bad weather, but there is yet a chance to redeem itself as there are nineteen more days in the month to do it in.

Mail materials for hemstitching and piecing to Miss Isabel C. Johnson, care of Peacock Art Studio, Bellefonte, Pa. Work guaranteed and promptly returned.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Longwell, accompanied by their son, Robert, and daughter, Bettie, five weeks old, were visitors the other Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Homan, in town.

During last week farmers in various sections of the county were plowing—some with teams, others with tractors. "Plow early" is a slogan that has long stood the test for good results.

W. F. McClellan, head of the McClellan Chevrolet Company, State College was a business caller here on Tuesday morning. You will see in this issue a line of Chevrolet used cars, all reconditioned, offered for sale at low levels.

About three inches of snow, together with rain, fell between Saturday evening and Monday morning. The State highway snow plows removed the slush from the main highways on Sunday. Monday morning the remaining slush was frozen into ice.

Miss Tillie P. Keller, after a three months leave of absence from the local post office due to illness has returned again to her duties as assistant to Postmaster R. M. Smith. Miss Keller spent the period of her absence with her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) W. K. Shultz, at Minersville.

Rev. W. E. Smith, pastor of the Centre Hall and Spring Mills congregations of the Evangelical church, was returned by the Central Pennsylvania Conference. This will be welcome news for both the members of his several congregations and a large number of acquaintances outside his church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stover, and their two-year-old adopted daughter, and Mrs. Alvin Meyer, all of Altoona, were in town for a few days during last week. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McClanahan and other relatives. The child referred to above was taken into the family about two months ago, and of course, is receiving much attention by the foster parents and their friends.

The Susquehanna University Alumni Association of Centre county, of which Rev. J. F. Harkins, State College, is president, and Mrs. J. R. Miller, Millheim, secretary, enjoyed a reunion and banquet at Laird's Dining Room, State College, on Monday evening. There are about 49 alumni members in this county. Those in attendance from Centre Hall were: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, Prof. J. F. Wetzel, and Mrs. H. L. Ebright.

As this issue of the Reporter goes to press, the second horse sale by Robert Dodds is about to begin at the sales stable on Hoffer street, Centre Hall. The horses arrived in a palace car Friday noon. They are said by horsemen to be a fine lot, and while in the stable have been looked over by a large number of persons who appeared to be prospective buyers. The gathering at the sale now on indicates that to have been the fact.

ALL THIS WEEK AT THE "STATE" THEATRE

The State Theatre will show all this week on an all-talking Columbia picture which is regarded as the prize screen capture of the season. This gripping romance, "The Criminal Code" is from Martin Flavin's smash Broadway hit which won the Theatre Club Trophy as the best play of the year.

Walter Huston, the star of such well-known motion picture successes as "The Virginian," and "Abraham Lincoln," as well as "The Virtuous Sin," plays the leading role in "The Criminal Code." Phillips Holmes is said to give a fine portrayal of a sensitive youth reacting to prison conditions. Constance Cummings, who plays the feminine lead, makes her first appearance in motion pictures and is acclaimed a distinct "find."

New Showing at the Richelieu.

There are more laughs in an Oakie grin than the whole hyena family could muster in a lifetime of laughter. There are more laughs in Jack Oakie's "Sea Legs" than in any Oakie picture to date. "Step from Syracuse," and the "Gang Buster." Its a swell sea swell capped with the Oakie wise-cracks. "Sea Legs" opens at the Richelieu Theatre today, and is manned and womaned with a great fun-producing cast including Harry Green, Lillian Roth, Eugene Palette and others.

"Not Exactly Gentlemen"

Romance built on a background of a historic period in America's growth—the Dakota Land Rush! Romance built around three bad men who set out to protect one lone defenseless girl. Romance built around the lives of simple, good people who carved a nation out of a wilderness. Romance coming next week to the Richelieu Theatre in "Not Exactly Gentlemen," featuring Victor McLaudon, Fay Wray, Lew Cody. Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.
