

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Miriam Moore was at her home here over Sunday, returning to Hershey where she is employed in the public schools.

Kryder Frank was laid up for two weeks or more during which time he was engaged in nursing a large carbuncle on one of his shoulder blades.

The Gregg Township Vocational school basketball team closed their season by a win over Petersburg V. S. at Petersburg last Friday; score, 22 to 17.

Mrs. Mary Cook, of Colyer, formerly of Fredericksburg, is housekeeper for Mrs. Elizabeth Devine. Mrs. Devine is employed in the office of the Keplin poultry plant.

Charles McCool, long employed in the Sheffield milk plant at Spring Mills, is improving after having suffered for some time from complications arising following a frozen toe.

C. F. Emery, the merchant, was confined to bed from sickness over the week-end. He has missed but few days from his store since locating here about twenty years ago.

While turning from the street to his home, the car driven by J. W. Dashem collided with a car driven by a stranger from New York State. Some damage was done to both cars.

Randall Miller, the Millheim insurance man, has been seriously ill since Saturday night, when he took a chill on returning home from State College. His condition the beginning of the week began to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kiehl, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Vaughn, Mrs. Clara Turnbaugh, of Altoona; and Mrs. D. C. Redenbach, of State College, visited the latter lady's husband, D. C. Redenbach, the new Shaffer Store manager at Centre Hall, on Sunday.

"Bobbie," the small son of Mr. and Mrs. James Goodhart, in town, underwent a mastoid operation in the Centre County hospital on Tuesday of last week. His condition at this time indicates complete recovery in the course of time.

The Hosterman-Stover company, of Millheim, beginning of this week installed a new steam plant in the Booser garage. The plant will heat the front business place, the storage-garage and residence of J. S. Booser. The boiler is one manufactured by the Weil-McLain Co.

The Mrs. Carrie Smith property on Water street, Millheim, was purchased at public sale by Ralph Bressler, for $250. Mr. Bressler, now single, it is said, will join the benedictines, and if that important event happens the property will be improved and used by him and his bride.

Logan M. Decker purchased the fifty acres of woodland in Decker Valley, sold by him as administrator of John D. Decker, on Saturday. There was also sold at the same time various items of personal property belonging to the administrator. The sale was largely attended.

Mrs. Jacob Lee, at Centre Hill, on Saturday afternoon, suffered a light paralytic stroke. Her condition since has improved to some extent. The death of her brother, George H. Bitter, in Millroy, the day previous to the stroke, no doubt had some detrimental influence when her advanced age is considered.

During a few days last week the condition of Miss Hazel Burkholder, following a mastoid operation at the Clearfield hospital, was not so favorable, but by Saturday there was a change for the better, the patient resting comfortably. This is the report of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Burkholder, brought from the hospital on their last visit there.

Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. W. F. Keller, Mrs. E. W. Miller, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. S. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebricht, Mrs. W. A. Odenkirk, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, Mrs. Margaret Godshall, Mrs. Roy Searson, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Spyrker were among others who attended the W. C. F. U. conference at State College on Monday, the principal speaker at which was Mrs. Gifford Pinchot.

Saturday noon several men were observed fishing with a throw net in Elk creek, in the narrows above Millheim. The license number of the car they were driving was noted, and a telephone message was sent to Constable Mensch in Millheim. Before the constable reached the scene the men had left, but an effort is being made to locate them through the car license number. Delay in this was occasioned because of the fact that the number had not yet been reported to the Bellefonte patrol office.

A muskrat wandered out of its environment one night last week and exhibited itself to the front of the Hagan garage, where a number of persons showed a desire to capture it, but feared the nasty disposition of the critter. Came along George Goodhart. George is a hunter, trapper, and knows wild game as we know our type cases. George got Mr. Muskrat into a bag and took him home to his farm where he released him. No one can account for the animal's coming to town, except "Tom" Smith, who thinks the muskrat "smelled" the new well, and came to see what kind of water we had. More 'n likely.

WOULD LIKE TO RENT a small house or get about 3 or 4 rooms unfurnished by April 1st, or sooner.

And the Drought Continues.

For freakish performance this winter claims the title. Generally speaking it has been a warm winter. Yet in some parts of the South it has been an unusually cold season. While there has been a lack of snow in some northern sections, parts of the South have seen falls of the "beautiful" for the first time in years.

And the drought continues. After the driest summer on record, winter failed to bring much relief. Pennsylvania is one of the many States in which the winter was the driest in a period of 30 years or more.

Since the normal pattern of weather distribution has been so violently upset ever since last spring, there is no telling what this spring may bring forth. Whatever is forthcoming, the weather will continue to be an absorbing topic of conversation.

D. D. G. M., J. E. Klingler will install the officers of Centre Hall Lodge I. O. O. F., No. 895, on Thursday evening, April 2d.

Two horse sales are billed for Centre Hall - Saturday, March 28th, by C. E. Shively, and Friday, April 3rd, by Robert Dadds.

Mrs. Reynolds, wife of Col. W. Fred Reynolds, Bellefonte, is slightly improved. Her condition had been very critical during last week.

Wednesday morning D. C. Mitterling shipped a car load of twenty-five cows to Ferd Fisher, at Collegeville. This is the first lot of cows shipped from here in a long while.

Mrs. Lucy Henney invites her customers from all sections to call and examine the new stock of hats - hats suited for all young and old, and priced to suit present conditions. The spring stock is now on display.

As much as between forty and fifty per cent of the purchases made at some of the larger sales in this immediate community were paid in cash. That indicates that not all bidders at public sales are chasing up stock, implements, etc., because of the credit extended.

P. H. Luse and family, on Tuesday, moved from the Huyett farm, west of here, to his home in town, purchased from the King estate, and remodeled. Twenty-nine years ago he moved from the home now owned by John Durst, south of the borough limits, to the farm from which he moved the other day. Mr. Luse built the Durst home several years before leaving it.

The Bradford sale last week was attended by a number of Bradfords and friends from a distance, among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. William Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Rindall Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Moses and children, Mrs. Harry Clesman and daughter, all of Phoenixville; Albert Bradford, Mr. Brown, Mr. Smeltz and William Bohn, of Willard, Ohio. Following the sale, in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bradford gave a party to a large number of their relatives and friends.

High School Notes

The Centre Hall High school news was compiled for this week by Evelyn Colyer and Tessie Cummings.

On Wednesday, March 15, the Centre Hall teams had a practice debate with Bellefonte High school teams.

On Monday, March 23, the home team debated with Millheim's debating team. The question was: Resolved, That Old Age Pension Legislation Should be Adopted by the Commonwealth of Pa. The home affirmative was victorious at Millheim, but the home negative team was defeated. The total score of Millheim's points was higher than Centre Hall's, making Millheim the winner of Group C.

The Juniors will hold a festival on the High school grounds, May 20. Further information will be supplied later.

The Sophomores will give a radio program on Thursday, March 26. Besides the radio program there will be a debate: Resolved, That Drinking is More Beneficial to Mankind. The affirmative will be upheld by Betty Ebricht and the negative by Isabel Bradford. Everybody is welcome.

The Athletic Association will hold a supper on March 28, beginning at 5 o'clock, in the High school building. Adults, 50c; children, 25c.

The Juniors are preparing for their Assembly program, under the chairmanship of Alice Burkholder, which will be given April 2.

This week will end the third quarter of the school year.

The Athletic Association has secured its baseball equipment for this season. After Easter vacation the baseball teams will be practicing regularly.

The Tennis Club will have a tournament.
