

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The local 4-H club will hold a bake sale April 4th, in the T. L. Smith store.

Mrs. S. E. Smith, of Centre Hall, is spending some time with her nephew, Fred Tate, at Pine Grove Mills.

W. R. Hosterman and family, of State College, spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Barger, near Potters Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, on Saturday, drove to Wilkesburg to be with their daughter and Rev. R. E. Corman, over Easter Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Boyer, of Sunbury, on Friday, came up to visit her mother, Mrs. Jacob Lee at Centre Hill, who had been ill for two weeks.

Mrs. Charles Barges, of Penn Hall, is a patient in the Lewistown hospital. Mr. Barges, at the present time, is also physically incapacitated.

Plowing was being done during last week by many farmers in the valley. The work was accomplished by the use of both tractors and horses.

James Stover, plumber engaged with the Hosterman & Stover Hardware company, Millheim, is confined to bed at this time from intestinal flu.

The Senate passed the Scott bill making an appropriation of $50,000 to the Phillipsburg State Hospital to meet a deficiency in cost of construction.

The family of the late M. L. Emerick take this means to thank friends and neighbors for all kindnesses shown during their recent bereavement.

The Edward Bubb property, at Colyer, offered at public sale on Saturday, was bid up to $1700, but the offer was thought too much below value to make a sale.

On Easter Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, the local Reformed church choir will render a sacred cantata entitled "The First Easter." Everyone is cordially invited.

Paul Bradford sold the team of mules purchased by him at the Bradford and Bradford sale held last week at a profit of $70.00. Edward Egan was the purchaser.

M. N. Miller, a State Highway employe, at Potters Mills, improved his dwelling house materially when he finished the outside with cedar siding. He also expects to further improve the appearance of the home with paint.

Watch your speedometer on driving through Lewisburg. The borough finances evidently being low, a speed trap is in operation under the direction of Burgess Miller of that borough, who states that persons caught speeding will be prosecuted.

For the first time since the drought set in early last summer, the springs furnishing the water supply for the borough began a heavier flow after the rains last Saturday. This indicates the springs are deep and consequently do not respond to local rains.

Ralph E. Dinges, of town, a traveling salesman for the Staley Sales Corporation, of Baltimore, Md., motored to Canton, Ohio, on Saturday, and for the next three weeks will assist a fellow salesman in that vicinity in detail work in the interest of their company.

On Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Ralph S. Hagin, Mrs. J. F. Wetzel and Mrs. D. R. Keener motored to Lewistown where they heard the famous oratorio of St. Paul by Mendelssohn. The program was presented by the study club and was most delightfully rendered under the baton of Alfred Kuscheva, Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Spicher, of Altoona, were in town for a short while during last week. Mr. Spicher, who is a P. R. R. engineer, in the near future will be added to the 2,999 pensions now on the company's list. Mrs. Spicher, by the way, has almost completely recovered from an automobile injury received last fall when the car in which she was riding got out of control of the driver.

Ezra Harter was unable to oversee his sale on Saturday owing to his being ill and confined to bed at his home near the Georges Valley Lutheran church. The sale, however, although lacking the activity of Mr. Harter, and the continuous rain while the sale was on, appeared to have no detrimental effect. The stock of all kinds and machinery having been sold at good prices by auctioneer E. M. Smith.

H. S. Teacher Elected.

Miss Sarah R. Haines, of Millhelm, was elected at a meeting of the local school board held Monday evening, as teacher of mathematics and physics, in the local High school, for the remainder of the school term, to succeed Cloyd R. Fisher, resigned.

Miss Haines is a graduate of Susquehanna University, having been graduated at the mid-year (February) commencement. She will report for duty next Tuesday morning, following Easter vacation.

Homan Motor Co. Chevrolet Sales. Paul Meyer, Pennsylvania Furrace, sport coupe; George Schollenberger, Laurel, Delaware, coach; also fourteen used cars.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Mrs. John S. Dale, of State College, was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

The Fred Bender home is under quarantine for measles, the baby girl in the family being afflicted.

Pinchot's 20,000-mile road program has been introduced in the House by Representative Bidelapacher, of Lycoming county.

Mrs. Ralph Dinges accompanied Mr. Dinges as far as Wilkesburg on his trip to Ohio, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Smith.

Mrs. C. F. Helm and son Merrill, of Harrisburg, and Mrs. Howard Herman and two daughters, of Altoona, were guests of the W. F. Colyer family the past week end.

An attempt in the House at Harrisburg, Monday night, to secure the Sowers bill, reducing drivers' license from $2 to $1, from the highway committee, where it has languished many weeks, failed by a vote of 131 to 69.

T. E. Jodon will offer a car load of South Dakota horses and mules at his sales barn, Pleasant Gap, on Monday, at 1:00 P. M. The lot consists of mated teams single horses, brood mares, a span of mules, and a spotted colt, nine months old.

William F. Fetterolf moved to the Stump property in the Keller district a few days ago. He will make some improvements on the place, and in time one may look for a general transformation in surroundings of his new home.

J. D. Heller, manager of the Shaffer grocery store here during the past year, moved his family to Hollidaysburg beginning of this week. While he will live in the Blair county capital he will be employed in a Shaffer store in Altoona.

On Saturday Mrs. W. A. Henney drove to Latrobe, taking with her her husband, Wilbur A. Henney, who will remain in that place at the T. C. Henney home for a few weeks to recover more fully from a severe illness. Other passengers on the trip were Mrs. T. C. Henney, who had been here assisting in caring for her nephew, and Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Burkholder. The latter couple returned home with Mrs. Henney on Sunday.

Mrs. Catharine Sommers, housekeeper for her brother, Samuel Gingrich, and her brother-in-law, Jacob Confer, of State College, were motor guests of Mr. and Mrs. Moist Sommers and Mr. and Mrs. Ray, of Niagara Falls, on a trip to Philadelphia. The Niagara Falls party went to the city named to attend the funeral of a relative, while Mrs. Sommers and Mr. Confer became guests of the latter's daughter, a registered nurse in Philadelphia.

Mrs. C. A. Miller, Mrs. Hulda Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Frazier, with Edgar Miller at the wheel, drove to York on Tuesday to attend the funeral of Ambrose Miller, a relative. Mrs. Philip Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Eby, of Lemont, also went to the York county city for the same purpose. Burial of the body, however, was not made on Tuesday, owing to the fact that two sons in California could not reach the home on that day.

A power sprayer for fruit trees is being mounted on a Ford chassis by Edward Duntz. The power for operating the compression pump will be furnished by the Ford engine. The pump is new, but the remainder of the outfit is being assembled from parts suited to the work it is to perform. The equipment will give more satisfactory results than hand-operated pumps, because of the fact that the pressure will be higher and continuously uniform.

Woodrow Glasgow, Silver Auman, and David Orwig, all of Coburn, on Thursday noon of last week, made a narrow escape with their lives in an auto wreck as they were ascending the hill in the new addition to Millheim on the east. They were driving an Olds sedan, and for some reason it left the road and hit a telephone pole, reducing the car to junk. The young men were but slightly hurt. The car was the property of a relative of the former, the driver, living in Philadelphia.

High School Notes

Athletics—
The girls interested in baseball this season met on Wednesday and elected Adaline Dinges, captain, and Hazel Smith, manager. The schedule has not been made yet, but we are hoping to have as many games as last year. The boys competing in baseball held a meeting on March 30, after school. The purpose of the meeting was to elect officers for the baseball team.

The following were elected: Manager, Luke Jordan; captain, Fred Luse.

The Baked Ham Supper—
The baked ham supper which was held Saturday evening by the Athletic Association, turned out successfully. The amount taken in was approximately $95.00.
The delightful Los Angeles flew over the State on Tuesday on a training trip. She was too far north of us to be seen here, her course having been eastward over Williamsport.
