

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The local lodge of Odd Fellows will confer the second degree on a class of nineteen candidates this (Thursday) evening.

Buyers from Nieman's Department Store, Millheim, are in New York City again this week for new summer coats and dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lambert have returned to Centre Hall after spending the winter at their southern home in Lake Worth, Florida.

Hugh M. Ralston was elected Dictator of Mifflinburg Lodge No. 1396, Loyal Order of Moose, at a session of the order held last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Redenbach expect to go to housekeeping in part of the B. Gardner Grove home, Mr. Redenbach is the new manager of the local Shaffer store.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kerlin returned home the latter part of last week from St. Petersburg, Florida, where they spent the winter as has been their custom during the past few years.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Centre County Hospital will hold their semi-annual Lummage Sale on May 6th. Anyone having donations will please call Mrs. W. W. Kerlin.

Arthur Holderman, of Tusseyville, last week received a car load of Chase products consisting of three tractors—one 25-45 Model T, and two Model C's—together with some farm machinery.

Mrs. Shane, of Howard, who with Mr. Shane are in charge of the Will Mayes stock farm at that place, accompanied by her two children, was in town last week.

Sheridan Garis, while digging garden for F. P. Geary, on Monday afternoon, was overcome, falling to the ground. Neighbors seeing his plight came to him. He regained consciousness in fifteen minutes, showing no ill effects.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson, Mrs. David Ramey Patten, Mrs. Oliver Mordorf, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., Master Ralph Wilson, Jr., Huntingdon friends of Mrs. H. E. Butz, called at the Lutheran parsonage Sunday afternoon.

The heavy score piled up against the Snow Shoe High school baseball team by the local High school team, leads them to think they can score ahead of the Port Matilda High school team on the latter's grounds on Friday evening.

Fred Weber, of Boalsburg, has on display an unusual piece of home-made furniture in the shape of a side-board built of solid walnut. The massive piece of furniture was built for his daughter, Mrs. Charles Ross, south of Centre Hall.

Be sure you read the ad. on the inside page of the Reporter, this week, which presents the New Chevrolet Six in twelve attractive models. The price range is from $475 to $650, and represents the greatest value for the money in Chevrolet history.

From the Mifflinburg Telegraph: A dinner in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Fred Grisinger of Aaronsburg, was given last Thursday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. D. Custer, Rev. Grisinger is pastor of the Aaronsburg charge and was a guest preacher at the Reformed church here, last Thursday evening.

A Hummobile, driven by James Heinbach, of Lewistown, on Saturday evening, skidded and turned completely around at the watering trough on Nittany Mountain. With Mr. Heinbach were several passengers but none of them were injured. Three of the car wheels were broken and other damage done to the car.

Wesley Henniger, a meat cutter in one of the State College butcher shops, collided with a car that came out of a side road onto the William Penn highway and stalled about fifteen miles below Lewistown. He was driving a DeSoto sedan, which was pretty badly damaged. Walter Hosterman towed the car to his repair shop in State College.

W. F. Rishel and J. Erud Slack, local breeders of purebred Holstein-Friesian cattle at Centre Hall, are some of the 57 in Pennsylvania and of 734 in the nation that have been nominated by fellow breeders as candidates for election as delegates to represent the Black-and-White breed at the 46th annual convention of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America at Syracuse, New York, on June 3rd.

The first mountain fire in this section for the season broke out in Seven Mountains Sunday afternoon when a scope of several acres, on the west side of the State highway, comprising a portion of the Treaster tract, at the Four place, was burned over. The fire might be termed a grass fire as most of the territory burned was cleared and covered with grass and weeds.

Patrons on rural routes out from Centre Hall have been solicited by strangers to have their mail boxes repainted at fifty cents each. Information obtained at the local post office indicates that no orders have been given by the Post Office Department to have this work done. It is therefore up to the rural box holders to use their pleasure—paint or not to paint; or if painting is needed, they can do the work themselves.

D. W. Sweetwood, of Spring Mills, was in town Saturday, moving about with the aid of a cane. It will be remembered that last November while working as a carpenter on a job for C. P. Long, he jumped from a scaffold to land on his feet, lest he fall backward with the possibility of allighting on his head. The jump proved serious enough, breaking bones in both feet. There was no adjustment made of the bones, nature being permitted to take its course in the mending. While the process is slow, Mr. Sweetwood believes that in a few months he will be able to discard his cane and go to work.

YOU CUT THE COST OF EACH KWH* THE MORE ELECTRICITY YOU USE

In order that every customer may enjoy to the utmost the use of electric appliances and of good light—the current cost per KWH* is lowered, step by step, the more electricity you use.

Actual bills for homes using the appliances shown here and adequate lighting cost only $3 to $5 a month. Of course, what constitutes "adequate light" varies with the individual family. But the trend today is toward more and better illumination, the basis of which is shaded light.

*KWH—Kilowatt Hour—the unit used to measure electrical energy.
