

THE CENTRE REPORTER ISSUED WEEKLY.

CENTRE HALL, PENNA.

SMITH & BAILEY, Proprietors. S. W. SMITH, Editor. EDW. E. BAILEY, Associate Editor and Business Manager.

Address of the Post Office in Centre Hall as second class mail matter.

TERMS—The terms of subscription to the Reporter are $1.50 a year, in advance. Display advertising rates made known on application.

SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICES

PENNS VALLEY LUTHERAN CHURCH (Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, Pastor.)

CENTRE HALL REFORMED CHURCH (Rev. Delas R. Keener, Pastor)

Centre Hall—9:30—Sunday School. 7:30—Church Service.

Spring Mills—9:00—Church Services. 10:00—Sunday School.

Farmers Mills—9:30—Sunday School. 10:30—Church Service.

EVANGELICAL (Rev. W. E. Smith, Pastor)

Tusseyville, 10:30 A. M. Centre Hall, 2:30 P. M. Lemont—7:30 P. M.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL (Rev. H. A. Froy, Pastor)

Smulton—9:00—Sunday School. 10:00—Morning Worship.

Centre Hall—9:30—Morning Worship. 7:30—Evening Worship.

The regular meeting of the Nittany League of Youth will be held in the Centre Hall Methodist church, Friday, May 1. Rev. E. Z. Utts of Lewistown, will speak on "Lady Luck." All are cordially invited.

PRESBYTERIAN (Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Pastor)

9:30—Sunday School. 10:30—Morning Worship.

Win from Mifflinburg.

The ball game between teams from the Mifflinburg and the Centre Hall High schools, played here on Tuesday evening, resulted in a victory of 10 to 9 for the home team. Breon made a home run, Rickert and Hartley each a 2-base hit and Philip Smith is credited with three singles; Luke Jordan and Fred Luse also made good plays. Lohr pitched a good game for one entirely without experience. Dersham started for Mifflinburg.

SMALL BARN BURNED.

The small barn on the property owned by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shultz, close to the Bethesda church, Penns Cave district, was destroyed by fire at midnight Monday. The fire is presumed to have originated from a brooder stove in a small building near the barn furnishing heat for two hundred chicks. A Chevrolet roadster in the barn also burned. The place was tenanted by Mr. Rossman, who discovered the fire too late to prevent destruction of the buildings. There was insurance for $200 in the Farmers Mutual company, F. M. Fisher, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Shultz the owners, live on the Clayton Pressler property on the north side of Brush Mountain. Mr. Shultz at this time is seriously ill from pneumonia.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Mrs. John Horner and Samuel Wise are two Spring Mills residents who are ill at this time.

J. M. Coldron, the painter and paper hanger, was confined to bed over Sunday. On Monday he was about again and expected to begin work.

Coal in small quantities has been found on the mountain near Banner-ville, Snyder county. Work will be pushed to find if it crops out in paying quantities.

John W. Cartwright, of Milesburg, is one of five P. R. R. workers to be retired. He was employed by the Pennsy for 32 years. The company now has a pension roll of over 10,000.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Centre County Motor Club will be held at the Centre Hills Country Club, State College, on Friday, May 1st, at 6:15 P. M.

During the celebration of National Egg Week there will be broadcasts from 12:00 to 12:15, May 1, 4 and 6, over WFSB, 1230 kilocycles. These will be educational talks, music and dialogues.

Jeremiah (Pete) Schaeffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schaeffer, of Spring Mills, while working at State College, sprained a ligament in one of his legs that put him out of commission. Last fall the young man suffered from a similar injury.

A new beacon light tower near Huntingdon is having the electrical equipment installed by Edgar Sommers, of Pleasant Gap, assisted by Frank Smith and Harold Durst, of Centre Hall, and Harry Foust, Potters Mills. The work is being done this week.

Hugh ("Stoek") Smith, son of Postmaster R. M. Smith, has been seriously ill since the latter part of last week. His condition, however, was improved Wednesday morning. Miss Rimmey, R. N., and his sister, Mrs. Helen Bitter, are taking care of him.

D. C. Redenbach, the local Shaffer store manager and wife entertained Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Koon, of State College, in their new apartment in the B. Gardner Grove house, on Sunday. Mr. Redenbach and wife moved from State College on Friday.

DEATHS.

BITNER.—After an illness of about two months, the last nine days of which period she was confined to bed from yellow jaundice, Mrs. Joseph Bitner died on Monday evening at her home in Penn Hall. Funeral services will be held from the home this (Thursday) afternoon, Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, assisted by Rev. Fred Griesing, officiating. Music by the Lutheran choir.

The deceased, Elizabeth Priscilla Bitner, a daughter of Elias and Rachael (Wiand) Fetterolf, was born near Spring Mills April 6th, 1856, making her age 75 years, 21 days. She was one of five children, the only remaining member of the Fetterolf family being Mrs. Charles A. Krapp, of Spring Mills. One daughter, Jennie, wife of J. Paul Swabb, Spring Mills, survives her, as do also three grandchildren—Joseph Swabb, Jr., Mrs. Randall Meyer, and Miss Isabel—and three great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Bitner was a life-long member of the Lutheran church and when physically able was a constant attendant at services. She was of a domestic disposition, giving her home and her family first consideration. Her home was one noted for its hospitality. Had she lived until June 3rd, she and her husband would have celebrated their 56th wedding anniversary.

DUNKLE.—Mrs. Ida Dunkle, aged 58 years, widow of the late Joseph H. Dunkle, died at her home 131 Jones street, Lock Haven, Friday morning as the result of a stroke suffered the day before.

She was born in Mingo and had lived for the last seven years in Lock Haven. She was a member of St. Luke's Reformed church. She is survived by four sons and three daughters: Fred J. Dunkle, at home; Fern of Boalsburg; Joseph of Howard; Walter, of Erie; Mrs. Philip Fredericks, at home; Mrs. Edward Yearick, Mill Hall; and Mrs. John Bryan, of Woolrich. Two brothers also survive, F. C. Johnson, of Pittsburgh, and Albert Johnson, of Altoona.

Funeral services were held on Monday morning from the residence with Rev. W. E. Harr, pastor of St. Luke's Reformed church, in charge. Burial was made at Hubersburg.

GISEWITE.—Mrs. Annie Gisewite, wife of Frank Gisewite, passed out of this life on Thursday, at the age of sixty-eight years, at her home at Woodward. Funeral services were held on Monday forenoon and interment made at Woodward, the pastor of the Evangelical church officiating. The deceased was a member of that denomination.

Deceased was a daughter of John C. and Amelia (Hostrman) Stover. She is survived by her husband, a son and two daughters; also, three sisters: Mrs. Thomas Meyer, Coburg; Mrs. George Weaver, Rebersburg, and Mrs. Mary Ardery, Bellefonte.

SECRIST.—After an illness of about a week from pneumonia, George Wallace Secrist passed away at his home in Millheim on Sunday morning. Interment was made Wednesday afternoon in Fairview cemetery, west of Millheim, after services by Rev. Louis V. Leshor, of the Lutheran church, pastor of the deceased.

The deceased was born in Salona but when a youth in his teens came to Penns Valley and engaged with Mr. and Mrs. Noah Stover, west of Millheim, as a farm hand, and remained there for a number of years, finally marrying their daughter, Miss Joanna Stover, now deceased. A daughter, Corn, wife of Earl Bartiges of Vicksburg, however, survives the parents. About two years ago, Mr. Secrist married Miss Eva Zimmerman, who also survives him, as do also a brother and a sister, namely, Charles Secrist, of Lewisburg, and Mrs. Carrie McCloskey Ridgway, both of whom together with the daughters, attended the funeral.

The deceased was a carpenter by trade. He was a good citizen and active in the affairs of his home town.

SPICER.—Mrs. Mary Spicer, wife of Roland Spicer, of Pleasant Gap, died in the Centre County hospital of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Spicer was born at Jacksonville about 46 years ago. Surviving are her husband and the following children: Robert of Bellefonte; George, Helen, Gertrude, Dorothy, Phillip, Betty and Adaline, at home. She is also survived by her father, George Wells, one sister, Mrs. George Dickle, of New Buffalo, and a brother, Howard Wells, of Lemont. Funeral services were held at the home in charge of Rev. C. C. Shuey. Interment in the Lutheran cemetery at Pleasant Gap.

SEIBER.—Mrs. Mary Catherine Seibert, aged 74 years, wife of Hamilton Seibert, died at her home at State College of complications. She was born near State College. She is survived by her husband, two brothers and two sisters: John T. McCormick, of State College; Dr. F. S. McCormick, of Hubersburg; Mrs. Hannah Osman and Mrs. Anna Bowers, both of State College. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon in charge of Rev. J. F. Harkins, pastor of the State College Lutheran church. Interment was made in the Pine Hill cemetery.

RUDY.—Mrs. Rebekah, wife of Frank Rudy, died at the family home in Stone Valley after an illness of several weeks from complications. Her maiden name was Keyler, and she was born at Pennsylvania Furnace 76 years ago. She has resided in Stone Valley most of her married life and has been a consistent member of the M. E. church, a devoted wife and mother, and a good neighbor. Besides her husband, she is survived by these children: Herbert Rudy, of Petersburg; John Rudy, of Centre Hall; Mrs. John Keller, of Pine Grove Mills, and Mrs. Frank Bookhammer, of MoAlova's Fort. She is also survived by one brother and thirteen grandchildren. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, Rev. Zong, of Petersburg, officiating. Interment in the cemetery at Steffy's church.

BARLETT.—David Barlett, eighty-four years old, died in Bellefonte Wednesday of last week. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon. He resided in 1917 after forty-five years of service with the P. R. R. as a freight handler. Surviving are the following daughters and sons: Mrs. George Rothrock, Mrs. C. D. Young, Mrs. Howard Dry, Mrs. Grace Lilledahl, and David Barlett, all of Bellefonte; Sidney S. and Rexford M., of Tyrone.

BECK.—Miss Mary E. Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Beck, residing near Penns Cave in Brush Valley, died Tuesday afternoon of last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Irvin Shaffer, of Flemington, after an illness of several years with a complication of diseases.

She was 41 years of age and was born and reared near Penns Cave and was a member of the Evangelical church. She is also survived by three brothers and one sister: Charles E., of New York; Perry, Eugene W. and Irene, at home.

Short funeral services were held at the Shaffer home at Flemington, in charge of Rev. M. R. Schaeffer, of Brush Valley, assisted by Rev. V. O. Dickinson, of Newberry, pastor of the Pentecostal church.

The cortege then proceeded to Brush Valley where services were held prior to interment in the Yearick cemetery.

DECKER.—Mrs. Emma G. Decker, of State College, passed to the Great beyond on Monday of last week. She suffered from influenza and neuritis. Deceased was born Sept. 9, 1852, at Snyder town, where she was buried. She was the widow of the late Wm. Decker, of Hubersburg, and is survived by two children—Miss Laura Decker and Roy M. Decker, and two grandchildren, Ann Louise and Mary Elizabeth Decker, all of State College, and Stroudsburg, and one brother, M. L. Beech, of Howard, besides a number of nephews and nieces mostly living throughout Nittany Valley. Deceased was a most faithful Reformed church member and church worker and had a host of friends in her home community.

ROSSMAN.—George W. Rossman died at his Ferguson township home and was buried at Meek's church cemetery. He was a son of David Rossman and was born at Pleasant Gap. His wife who before marriage was Miss Annie Shuey, survives him, as do also these children: J. F., Guy D. and Allen R. Rossman, of Pennsylvania Furnace; R. L. and E. J. Rossman, of Altoona; Mrs. Clair Burns and Mrs. Robert Harpster, of Warriorsburg, and Mrs. George Elder, of Cumberland, Md. He also leaves these brothers and sisters: John C. and W. G. Rossman, of Mifflinburg; M. C. of Tyrone; Henry, of Howells; Mrs. Harry Houser, of Colona; Mrs. George Markle, of Boalsburg, and Mrs. R. N. Campbell, of Pennsylvania Furnace.

Collecting Fines on Dog Law. Two game wardens, Alkey, of Milesburg, and Eisenberg, of Huntingdon, have been enforcing the dog license law in Potter township, resulting in a number of dog owners being fined between $8.00 and $10.00, which covers the cash penalty and costs.

Do you have to hold the phone book under the living room lamp to find a number?

Correct general illumination makes it possible to read any place in a room, without straining the eyes.

WEST PENN POWER CO. BETTER LIGHT MEANS CLEARER SIGHT

PENNY-A-WORD COLUMN

25c pays for a four-line ad. in this column. These little ads. are wonder workers in the way of results. Advertise anything here, from a "Help Wanted" to a "House and Lot for Sale."

FOR SALE.—A lot of fine shoats for sale.—A. M. Riegel, Centre Hall.

HATCHING EGGS.—S. C. Rhoda, Ireland Red hatching eggs, 75c per 15.—J. C. Robinson, Spring Mills.

FOR SALE.—Several tons of good timothy hay; also a lot of good chestnut fence posts.—H. W. Dinges, Centre Hall. 2t

FOR SALE.—4 passenger Dodge Victory Six. Like new; only run 3600 miles. Price right. Inquire, H. C. Brungard, 615 Chestnut Street, Mifflinburg, Pa.

FOR SALE.—3 burner oil stove with oven, in good condition.—Apply at this office.

FOR SALE.—Freed-Eismann radio set, with eliminator; beautiful cabinet. Can be used in country home where no electric current is available.—Apply at Reporter office.

PLANTS.—I am raising hot-house garden plants on a large scale, all the leading varieties; also, bottle onion seed. See me before buying elsewhere.—J. Roy Schaeffer, Centre Hall; phone 41R3. 13t

FOR SALE.—Five tons of baled hay.—S. E. Brown, Spring Mills; phone 18R14.

FOR SALE.—Several tons of good timothy hay; also a lot of good chestnut fence posts.—H. W. Dinges, Centre Hall. 14t

Learn to Play BRIDGE

Or, if already a player, perhaps you would be interested in improving your game. Either

CONTRACT OR AUCTION

Recently I completed a course of instruction in New York from Mr. Wilbur C. Whitehead, the noted teacher and authority on bridge. I was awarded a Whitehead Diploma entitling me to teach Contract and Auction. Perhaps I may be able to be of assistance to you.

Individual or Group Instruction

On Monday, May 4, I shall open my Bellefonte Studio, Room A, Third Floor, South End, Crider Exchange Building, Phone 714-J. (Residence phone 765). I shall be glad to consult with you if desired.

REBECCA C. DORWORTH

Advertisement for Goodyear tires. Includes text: 'CORRECTION IN YOUR TIRE BUYING', 'I WILL BUY ONLY THE LEADING MAKE', 'GOOD YEAR', 'THIS YEAR GOODYEAR MEANS EVEN GREATER VALUE at still LOWER COST!', 'THE TIRE SENSATION of 1931', 'More People Buy Goodyear Tires than any other kind.', 'AGAN'S GARAGE', 'PHONE 56', 'Centre Hall'.

Advertisement for Homan Motor Co. Includes text: 'A Real Opportunity to Get A Good Car at Low Price', 'IN THIS GREAT SPRING SALE USED CARS', 'Each car carries the RED O. K. TAG, which is your guarantee that whichever car you buy so marked has been carefully reconditioned by our expert mechanics. Truly, it is an "O. K. THAT COUNTS."', 'THE CARS ARE RIGHT', 'THE PRICES ARE RIGHT', 'THE GENEROUS PAYMENT TERMS ARRANGED', 'RELIABLE USED CARS ON EASY PAYMENT TERMS', 'TRUCKS!', 'Plenty of honest service remaining in ALL these Trucks', 'Come in today and look over our stock. Day and Night Service', 'HOMAN MOTOR CO.', 'Phone 6R2', 'CENTRE HALL'.