COL. BOAL OF BOALSBURG.

In Monday's Harrisburg Telegraph under the title "Watching the Game," by E. J. S., the following appeared: Retirement of Lieutenant Colonel Theodore D. Boal as finance officer of the General Staff of the National Guard is of interest to all who served with the 28th Division in the World War. Colonel Boal became known to practically every Pennsylvania soldier in Camp Hancock in the training period before the entrance of the United States into the war. Since that time he has been in close touch with all matters concerning the development of the division under the new army regulations. His home at Boalsburg in Centre county is in the nature of a military shrine where officers have flocked for the promotion of social and military activities. Colonel Boal is more than a soldier; he is a diplomat of the first order and a great host of friends will accompany him into his retirement and wish for him all the good things of life.

Barber's License Bill Signed by Gov.

Governor Pinchot signed the Mussmanno bill providing for the licensing and registration of barbers in Pennsylvania. It is effective Jan. 1, 1932. The measure provides for a five dollar registration fee for beginners desiring to be registered as barbers with the exception that those now practicing the trade shall pay a two dollar fee. The bill places under the jurisdiction of the department of public instruction the responsibility of supervising barber schools and colleges, licensing of apprentices, for which the registration fee is one dollar and licensing of barbers. Examination will be conducted by the department at Philadelphia, Scranton, Erie, Harrisburg, and Pittsburgh, quarterly in March, June, September and December for apprentices who have been registered for two years and who have completed a two-year course in a barber school or college or who have served two years under a practicing and licensed barber.

POTTERS MILLS.

Mrs. Mary Auman, of Indianapolis, is visiting at the J. H. and Mrs. W. H. Blouner homes. Mrs. Laura Lee is visiting at the home of her son, W. E. Lee, at the Potters Mills hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith, daughter, Mrs. Ruth Thomas and son William, son J. R. Smith and family, of Lewistown, composed a family gathering who picnicked in the Seven Mts. on Sunday. Harry Ishler and family of State College, took supper on Thursday evening at the H. E. Foust home. Ammon Bubb and wife, of Reedsville, visited Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ellen Wilkinson. Miss Sarah Sweeney and Miss Vesta Blaiser have gone to Lock Haven and Shippensburg State Normals to attend a teachers' summer course. Leland Walker and family of Boalsburg, Keller Snyder and family, of Yarnell, Rufus Cois and family of State College, spent Sunday at the Homer Walker home. Mrs. J. T. McCormick, of State College, is spending a few days at the Mrs. J. P. Miller home. Lowell Smith is spending some time in Millheim at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Wilson. John Bitner and Joseph Parker visited over the week-end with relatives in Altoona.

DEATHS.

BROOKS.—The little body of Gertrude Louise, daughter of Jewett and Ella (Burriss) Brooks, was laid to rest in the cemetery here Saturday afternoon, the child having died in the Centre County Hospital, Wednesday from appendicitis and lung condition, but had reached a stage where surgery could not bring relief. She was aged seven years and eighteen days. There survive her parents and these brothers and sisters: Elizabeth, Raymond, Harold, Esther, LeRoy, Paul and Lynn. The Brooks family moved from Ithonymeda, west of here, to the Branch, near Lemont, last spring.

BENNER.—Charlotte Marie, daughter of Warren and Alta (Miller) Benner, died on Sunday at the age of eight years, ten months and 21 days, from an affection of the brain. Funeral services were held on Wednesday, with interment at Madisonburg, Rev. A. J. Miller, pastor of the Reformed church, officiating. The parents and these brothers and sisters survive the deceased: Elmer, Catharine, Phyllis, Harding, Ray and Glenn.

STOVER.—Mrs. Elizabeth Stover, widow of Aaron Stover, died on Saturday at the home of Clarence Stover, north of Penn Hall, at the age of 79 years, 11 months and 20 days. Her maiden name was Orndorf, and she was a native of Haines township. Funeral services were held on Monday from the home of Mr. Stover, who by the way, is not a relative of the deceased, with interment at Woodward. The Evangelical minister at Millheim was in charge of the services.

CLEVENSTINE.—Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Clevenstine, aged 89 years, widow of Isaac Clevenstine, of Hublersburg, died at the home of her son, Harry E. Clevenstine, in Bellefonte, Thursday, of paralysis and infirmities incident to advanced age. She was born at Hublersburg and was a member of the Hublersburg Methodist church. She is survived by one son, Harry E. Clevenstine, of Bellefonte, and one brother, Samuel Walkey, of Newark, N. J. Funeral services were held at her home Sunday afternoon, Rev. Harry Hartman and Rev. Robert Theana, officiating. Burial was made at Hublersburg.

BARTGES.—Forest Lloyd Bartges, 31-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartges, of Sugar Valley, three miles south of Loganton, died Thursday afternoon of acute dilation of the heart, following an epileptic seizure. The deceased had been subject to the attacks since he was 2 years old. Thursday morning at 8 o'clock he left the farm home to go to his grandmother's home some distance away. He was found in the woods one-half mile from his home, in the afternoon, in a completely exhausted condition. He had become bewildered and lost his bearings completely. The efforts he made to extricate himself from within the woods for so many hours brought on an epileptic seizure and resulted in his death within ten minutes after being removed to his home. The deceased is survived by his parents, one brother, Foster, of Loganton, R. D., and a sister, Mrs. Jay Mark, of Loganton.

GARDNER.—Charles Gardner, a former well known resident of Tyrone, engaged the past few years in the mercantile business at Martha and more recently conducting a general store and cafe at Fort Matilda, died very unexpectedly at his home in the latter place on Thursday morning, a few hours after suffering a stroke of apoplexy. He had been in his usual health the previous evening and was giving his customary attention to his business. Deceased was a son of the late Andrew and Mary Ann Ream Gardner and was born in Antis township, Blair county, January 6, 1871.

HINDS.—Emma Joanna Hinds, widow of the late Ralph Hinds, died at her home at Fiedler after an illness of little more than a week, of complications.

Funeral services were held on Saturday in Aaronsburg Evangelical church, the Rev. A. C. Paulhamus officiating. Interment at Aaronsburg.

Deceased was born in Aaronsburg, March 6, 1863, a daughter of the late George M. and Susanna E. (Shirk) Rupp, hence was aged 68 years, three months and eleven days.

In August, 1883, she was married to Ralph Hinds who passed away four years ago. Surviving, however, are four children—Claude W. Hinds, of Aaronsburg; Charles R. Hinds, of Joliet, Ill.; Mrs. Florence R. Barker, of Reno, and Mrs. Mabel E. Beaver, of Pottsgrove. Also surviving are three brothers and a sister: James W. Rupp, of Seattle, Wash.; George R. Rupp, of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Jennie E. Bond, of Nescopeck, and Walter G. Rupp, of Aaronsburg.

TIBBENS.—Mrs. Tibbens, wife of James Tibbens, of Clearfield, died at the family home in that place and the body was brought to Pine Hill cemetery for burial. Both she and her husband are natives of Centre county. Mrs. Tibbens was the daughter of the late Henry and Susan Bloom, and was born in Ferguson township, about 72 years ago. Surviving are the husband and five children: Claude, of Clearfield; Ollie, Wayne, and Clara, of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Leslie Smith, of Clearfield. One daughter, Mrs. Nearhood, of Clearfield, passed away June 8th of this year. These brothers and sisters also survive: Corl and William Bloom, of State College; Robert Bloom, Centre Hall; George M. Bloom, Bellefonte, R. D.; Mrs. Catharine Osman, of State College; Mrs. Emma Fisher, of Philadelphia, and Miss Stella Bloom, State College.

HARPSTER.—George W. Harpster, aged 74 years, of Mill Hall, died Saturday night at the Lock Haven hospital, following an illness of five weeks of a complication of diseases incident to old age. He was admitted to the hospital Friday afternoon in a critical condition. Mr. Harpster was born and reared in Centre Hall, having been a son of Jacob and Catharine (Sweetwood) Harpster. He learned the blacksmith trade with his father, and from here went to Bellefonte where he was first employed by the Collins people. About seven years ago he went to Mill Hall and became an employe of the New York and Pennsylvania Paper company. He is survived by his wife, two sons and three daughters: Arthur Harpster, of Emporium; Walter of Bellefonte; Mrs. Catharine Evers of Lock Haven; Mrs. Charles Lucas of Charleston, W. Va., and Mrs. Harry Sampson, of Bellefonte.

The brothers and sisters surviving are: Miss Lizzie Harpster and Mrs. (Dr.) G. H. Widder, Harrisburg; Mrs. Ellen Barr, Boalsburg; Mrs. Catharine Moore, Isaac, Charles and Claude, of Missoula, Montana. Interment was made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

BOTTORF.—William Bottorf, of Bellefonte, died in the Geisinger hospital, Danville, Thursday, following an illness of several months of complications. He was born in Bellefonte 68 years ago.

He married Miss Margaret C. Blair who survives with two sons and two daughters: G. A. Bottorf, of Sunbury; Mrs. Edward Markley and J. W. Bottorf, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. J. A. Brochart, of Millersburg. He also leaves two brothers, Harry Bottorf, of Runville, and J. L. Bottorf, of Bellefonte. Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Markley, Sunday afternoon, in charge of Rev. F. G. E. Householder, pastor of the United Brethren church. Interment in the Union cemetery.

POORMAN.—Mrs. Ethel Zettle Poorman, 35, wife of Samuel H. Poorman, of Bellefonte, died at the Centre county hospital, Friday, as the result of a brief illness caused by complications. She was a daughter of Charles and Carrie Zettle and was born at State College. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Jean, also by her parents, near State College, and one sister, Mrs. Archie Whamond, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Poorman was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Monday afternoon, in charge of Rev. Ward Campbell, pastor of the Evangelical church. Interment in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

GARBICK-CUMMINGS. On Sunday morning at 7:45 o'clock, Lester Z. Garbrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Garbrick, and Miss Edna R. Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Cummings, were united in marriage by Rev. D. R. Keener at the Reformed parsonage, using the ring ceremony. The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of red roses and was attended by her newly married sister, Mrs. Blaine Lester, while Blaine Lester attended the groom. The bride and groom are planning to go on a camping trip through Ohio and probably adjoining states before beginning housekeeping. Best wishes to them from their friends.

LEISTER-CUMMINGS. Blaine Lester and Miss Alta Cummings subscribed to the vows of matrimony in a Maryland town on Saturday, going to and from the neighboring State by auto. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Cummings, west of town, a graduate of the local high school, and a young lady popular among her acquaintances. The groom is a son of Mrs. Clara Lester, and is employed at State College. He is an industrious, ambitious, stable and frugal young man. For the present the young people will live with Mr. Lester's mother, Mrs. Clara Lester, in town. The couple arrived here in time to be attendants at the wedding of the bride's sister, on Sunday morning, an account of which appears in this issue.

AVIS LOSES R. R. SHOPS.

Despite concerted action of Chamber of Commerce officials of the West Branch Valley and other interested citizens who sought to retain the locomotive shops of the New York Central Railroad, at Avis, the official announcement has been made that these shops will be removed by July 31, to West Albany, N. Y. The order releases hundreds of workmen from the employ of the railroad company, as railroad officials have outlined plans for a re-trenchment program which calls for 1,700 men to be used for locomotive repairs instead of the 2600 now employed at Avis, West Albany and Depew, New York. Other car shops still will remain at Avis, but are now inactive, and no mention was made of the probable date of reopening.

Kiddies' Day. Elks' Kiddies' Day, on Thursday of last week, was another big day for between 2500 and 3000 children from all sections of Centre county. The day was ideal for outing. Hecla Park, where the children were entertained, swarmed with kiddies in every quarter. The day passed by without an accident to any of the children, barring, perhaps, the uncomfortable feeling due from a stomach, loaded to capacity. Centre Hall and environs furnished 132 of the children, and they are indebted to F. Y. Goodhart, W. W. Kerlin, Harry Fleish and Miss Isabel Bradford for the transportation to and from the park. There was consumed by the guests 6000 packages of ice cream, nine bushels peanuts, bananas, cup cakes and sandwiches by the thousands, and lemonade by the barrels.
