Miriam, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Foust, of town, found a lawn mower and got her hand into the knives. The second, third and little fingers were cut, but not to the extent to cripple them.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hosterman, on Sunday, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kerlin, in New Cumberland. During their stay they all went to an air field, where the former and one of Mr. Kerlin's daughters "went up." The ride was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Charles Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kerlin, in New Cumberland, became very seriously ill at her home next door to that of her parents, on Thursday. She is having the attention of several physicians and nurses, but up to Sunday her case had not been fully diagnosed.

Miss Gladys Heckman, a nurse in training in the York hospital, is on a three weeks' vacation, which is being spent with her sister, Mrs. Archie Moyer, in town, and other relatives. She is getting along very well in her work and has improved physically.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hubler, of Millheim, made a round trip to Ridgway by auto, going by the way of Clearfield and returning by the river route by way of Renovo and Lock Haven. They were surprised to learn on their return that the distance varied but one mile, the latter route being the longer. At Ridgway Mr. and Mrs. Hubler visited their aunt, Mrs. Naomi Heckman.

Edward Foreman, of Canfield, Ohio, is with his brother, J. Wesley Foreman, at Farmers Mills, helping to put away the farm crops. The latter Mr. Foreman, who underwent a serious operation in the Centre County hospital, continues to improve, although at present he is confined to a wheel chair. He is said by his friends to always be in a fine hopeful spirit.

Miss Beatrice Noll, R. N., of Pleasant Gap, while practicing her profession in Philadelphia, developed an acute case of appendicitis on Saturday a week ago, and was immediately operated on in Jefferson hospital, Sunday following. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noll, parents of the young lady, with Hugh M. Smith, of town, at the wheel, motored to the hospital to be with her over the crisis. Her condition at present is very favorable.

Recent guests entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. L. Moore were Mrs. Winifred Loveland and Miss Ruth E. Loveland, of Hershey. Miss Loveland is the art supervisor in the Hershey schools and is now taking graduate work at State College. Kenneth I. Boyer was also a week-end guest. Mr. Boyer is a graduate of Muhlenberg College and now holds the responsible position of light engineer in the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company, located in Allentown.

Henry M. Hosterman and Wm. C. Nevl, of Boalsburg, were callers at this office last week in the interest of the estate of the late Wesley Nevil, late of Potter township, deceased, the former being the administrator. The Nevil property will be sold at public sale on August 15th as advertised in this issue. Mr. Hosterman, long a school teacher in Centre county, since discontinuing the practice of that profession, is engaged in the office of the purchasing agent for Penn State.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Knarr entertained during the past week the following friends and relatives: Mrs. Luke Swab and two children, of Philipsburg; Mrs. Ebon Bower, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Lenora Burd, of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Frank and two children, of Baltimore, Md.; Mrs. Philip Gross and two children, of Bellefonte; Miss Bettie Burrell, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Clara Meeker, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Hewett and two children, of Altoona. One of the Hewett children is remaining at the Knarr home for the week.

From here the Glenn family went to Williamsport, Rochester and on to a camp in Michigan.

The Pennsylvania Gas Company in this issue endeavors to tell the residents here the situation "as is" relative to the gas "tank" erected recently just outside the borough limits. There is such a thing as being too zealous as well as being too lax of one's rights. It is one of these conditions that the matter with the local council, and is not the latter.

From what can be gathered of the operations of the Millheim Manufacturing company, Millheim had comparatively slight losses. The concern gathered in the neighborhood of $5000.00, and is credited with having paid out a like amount. Of course, it is said, some of the employees who put their $125.00 into the company's hands later, are out all or nearly all of it; those who joined the movement early have little or nothing for their labor, but got back their deposits in wages. There is no prospect of the plant being operated in the future.

BEAUTIFUL NEW FORD

De Luxe Bodies

TOWN SEDAN DE LUXE SEDAN CONVERTIBLE SEDAN DE LUXE TUDOR VICTORIA CABRIOLET

THE most striking fine car types ever offered at such low prices are now being presented by Ford dealers. These are the six newest de luxe creations of the Ford Motor Company. They are designed and built to meet every need of the automobile buyer whose desire for motoring luxury and outstanding performance is tempered with sound economy.

Get the facts about these fine cars. Compare their lithe, clean-cut style with any you have ever created in your own imagination. Learn about the de luxe materials with which each car is trimmed and upholstered, and how carefully these are tailored. Sit and ride in the wide, restful seats and you will realize that just as no restrictions have been put on mechanical performance, so no limits have been placed on comfort and beauty.

There is much to interest the careful buyer—a choice of sparkling colors, a variety of rich upholstery materials, Rustless Steel, safety glass, Houdaille double-acting shock absorbers, one-piece welded steel wheels, slanting windshields, and many other features which make the Ford a happy investment.
