

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Nancy Henderson, of Howard, is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Smith.

The Bellefonte Hardware Company put down a linoleum covering on the floor in the local post office.

Mr. and Mrs. Domer Emerick and young son, of Altoona, on Sunday visited the former's mother, Mrs. Phoebe Emerick, and sisters, in town.

Mrs. Lola Person, who had been with her mother here for some time, on Friday went to Chicago, where she will be a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Williams, wife of Rev. Elmer Williams.

Harvey Vonada, of Spring Mills, one of the Reporter's faithful subscribers of long standing, accompanied by his grandson, came to Centre Hall on Monday, the former visiting this office.

Miss Grace Smith completed the enumeration of school children in the borough between the ages of 8 and 16 years and found the number to be 118. These come in the compulsory school age.

The Alumni association of the Gregg Township Vocational school will hold a corn roast in the "Pines," east of Spring Mills, Friday evening, August 14, at 8 o'clock. All alumni are invited to attend.

Luke Jordan, a former High school boy here and resident of the south side of the valley, is "bell hop" in the Nittany Lion hotel, on Penn State campus. In his uniform Luke jocks every inch a good boy.

Miss Mary Musser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Musser, east of here, has been in the office of Dr. J. V. Foster since May. Her sister, Miss Ruth Musser, is an assistant to Dr. Foster and has been in his office for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Henry and daughter, Miss Loraine, of Wilkes-Barre; and Mrs. J. G. Kirn, of Kingston, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Vogt. Mr. and Mrs. Henry are uncle and aunt, respectively, of Mrs. Vogt, and Mrs. Kirn is a sister.

After having been in the Centre County hospital for six weeks, Mrs. George Lohr, living on what has long been known as the Boal farm, now owned by Boyd Speicher, returned to her home on Thursday. Although not completely recovered, Mrs. Lohr is on a fair way to do so.

Miss Frances Jacobs, who for a few weeks has been a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, beginning of this week returned to her home in Steubenville, Ohio. She went by train as far as Pittsburg, where she was met by her father, Guy W. Jacobs, and the remainder of the distance was covered by auto.

Miss Luella Ripka, last week, graduated from Williamsport Commercial College, after having been a student there for eleven months. Mr. and Mrs. Ripka, their daughter, Mrs. James Royer, and granddaughter, Wana, went to Williamsport on Friday and brought back with them Miss Luella, who is now ready to accept a position.

Miss Wanda Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown, returned from Waynesboro a few days ago where she visited her uncle, James Fesse. Miss Mildred, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, is about to leave for Moores, (Delaware county) a Philadelphia suburban town, where she will enter upon her fourth year as a teacher of the 7th and 8th grades in the public schools.

Miss Anna Stover, R. N., engaged in a veterans' hospital at Waukesha, Wisconsin, is on vacation a part of which is being spent in Centre Hall with her sisters, Mrs. Wm. McClenahan and Mrs. John H. Durst. Beginning of the week she drove to Montgomery and brought here with her James Stover, her brother, who is not in good health. Other guests at the same homes are Mrs. Alvin Meyer and daughter, Miss Mildred Meyer, of Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Moore and Miss Miriam Moore were guests over the week-end of Mrs. Moore's sister, Mrs. Charles Shull, and family, in Shamokin, and on Sunday afternoon attended the services at the Odd Fellows' Orphanage in Sunbury. They were accompanied home by Miss Bernice Hull, who will spend a week with them. Miss Hull is a teacher in the Shamokin schools. Miss Ruth Loveland, of Hershey, is also a guest of her friend, Miss Miriam Moore.

At the Sunday morning religious service held at Rockview Pentecostal, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Mrs. W. H. Potter, accompanied by Miss Myla Spiker at the piano, sang several selections. Their services have been frequently demanded, and of course, cheerfully given, during the past few years at these services. L. C. Heineman, secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., was the speaker. Mrs. E. W. Miller and Miss Grace White were auto guests of Mrs. F. V. Goodhart on this occasion.

Farmers in many sections of the valley report large numbers of grasshoppers in the fields, doing more or less damage to oats and vegetation of various character. It is about forty years since grasshoppers ceased being a great hindrance to growing clover. During a period twenty or more years prior to 1890, young clover was totally destroyed by the pest. Timothy was grown exclusively on many farms, with attendant loss of fertility. The grasshopper of that period came early in the season and died during July and August. It had an insatiable appetite, first for clover and then for any of the grasses, oats, corn, etc., finally attacking hand implements and clothing if left in the field. Pure manila binder twine was cut readily. The hopper today appears to be of another species, one less destructive.

FRANK AUMAN HELD FOR ATTEMPTED ARSON

Frank Auman, on Friday afternoon, attempted to burn his home at Potters Mills. He carried hay and straw in a sack to two bed rooms, placed it under beds and set fire to it. On leaving the house, he locked the doors and awaited results. Neighbors were suspicious of his actions and were soon taking measures to counteract his deed, when smoke was seen to roll from the second floor of the small dwelling. Entrance was gained through windows reached by ladders, and soon the burning bed clothing was thrown to the ground. No part of the frame structure had been ignited.

A Middle county patrolman happened along, and took charge until a member of the State Constabulary came onto the scene. Auman was placed under arrest, and after a hearing before Justice Carson, was held for court. Not being able to procure bail he has since been in the county jail. Auman and his wife, it is said, had quarreled.
