Curtis B. Reber, local dairyman, will distribute circulars on Grange Park this week, calling attention to deliveries he will make on the fair grounds daily from 7 to 9 A. M.; earlier deliveries on request.

Dr. George C. Thomas, who a few days ago opened an office in the Braucht home, Spring Mills, where he also lives, is much pleased with the prospects of an extensive practice. He came to Spring Mills from Subury, preferring a country to a city practice.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Corman, of Greensburg, are auto guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Snyder on a ten-day trip through Southern States. They left here Monday, at China Grove, North Carolina, they will visit Mrs. Corman's uncle, Rev. J. H. Keller, and family.

The Reporter, on Monday morning, was favored by a call from Miss Elizabeth Hoy, daughter of Mrs. Anna Mingle Hoy, of Philadelphia, and Philip Mingle, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Gross Mingle, of Riverton, New Jersey. Both young people are looking unusually fine. The former is secretary in a fraternal organization, and the latter is with a wool house in Philadelphia.

S. V. Hosterman, district attorney in Lancaster county, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Frances Hosterman, and a gentleman friend of the latter, on Wednesday stopped here to greet friends on their way to the State College golf fields. Mr. Hosterman has three or four murder trials on hand at the next Lancaster county court which indicates that he is not always at leisure to play his favorite game—golf.

John Corman, assistant principal of a vocational school at Unionville, near West Chester, accompanied by Mrs. Corman, who is a teacher in art in the same school, have been guests of Mr. Corman's brother and wife and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, at Sunset club house. On Sunday Mr. Corman drove to Unionville and brought with him three of his students who are interested in the meetings being held at Penn State this week.

Rapid progress is being made in the construction work of the new building being erected by Coleman Winard, postmaster at Spring Mills. The building is 32x42 feet, and is being arranged for post office and residence accommodations. The post office will occupy the north section, 17x42 feet. The construction work is being done by G. P. Garrett, of Rebersburg, who now has employed on the job Adam Wolf, R. I. Winkleblich and Miles Brungart. John Day is putting up the chimneys.

Charles E. Fisher, of Danville, was a visitor in town for a short time Monday, and favored the Reporter with a call. Mr. Fisher is the Republican county chairman of his home (Montour) county, besides being a business man of prominence. He has long been connected with the brick business, and has no gloomy reports to make on business conditions in his line. In fact, production is on a very satisfactory basis and has been consistently so for some time. Mr. Fisher is the type of gentleman one likes to meet—genial, optimistic and well informed.

The bankers of Centre county met on the Garden Roof of the Philips hotel, Philadelphia, Friday evening. The leading speaker was Gen. Martin, treasurer of the State of Pennsylvania. The gathering was attended by R. M. Smith, Daniel Daup, Jr., T. F. Delaney and F. M. Fisher, representing the First National Bank here; H. F. Erdley, A. B. Lee, T. J. Decker and J. H. Rishel of the Spring Mills National; S. W. Gramley, Mr. Smith and R. S. Stover of the Millheim National Bank and Trust Co., and Curtis M. Bierly and Mr. Meyer of the Rebersburg State Bank.

A fire was narrowly averted in Spring Mills a few days ago, the origin of which was peculiar. J. W. Decker, who lives in the vicinity of Long's store, was annoyed by a large number of wasps that had infested the garret of his home. To rid the place of the wasps, the tiny nests along the rafters were singed. After completing the operation and assuring himself that no embers were left, Mr. Decker left the garret. In a short time smoke was seen coming through the shingle roof. Mr. Decker was informed and with John Meyer quickly went to the attic and extinguished the fire before any property damage was done.

Miss Anna Jane Musser, of Mill Hall, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Musser, a frequent visitor at the Goodhart home here, was rather seriously injured in an automobile accident recently. She was visiting with relatives in Tyrone and together with a young lady and her gentleman friend, started for Altoona. At Bellwood an insurance agent driving a car lost his bearings through a strong light on a passing car and hit the car Miss Musser was a passenger in, which car had driven to the side of the road to avoid a collision. The young lady was cut on the chin, the gash requiring ten stitches, and also received a bruise under the right eye. Both arms were also injured, the left arm having become useless the following morning, but since has become near normal.

Miss Evelyn Bierly, of Rebersburg, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Clara Leister, in this place.

Prof. L. O. Packer and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brooks, on Tuesday, drove to Philadelphia, where until Thursday they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Buckwalter. Mr. Buckwalter is secretary of the Philadelphia Electric Company, and father of Frank Buckwalter, of Cincinnati, Ohio, whose wife is a daughter of Mr. Packer.

The Rev. Doctor Noah E. Yelmer, of Erie, will speak at the regular services in the Methodist church at Centre Hall and at Sprucetown and give the prohibition moving picture, "The Last Raid of Sheriff Kendall of Linn County" at Spring Mills, August 30.

Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Gress, of Bellaire, Ohio, arrived here by auto on Tuesday evening and remained until today (Thursday). Since the first of the month they have been vacationing in various parts of Pennsylvania and adjoining States. Rev. Gress, almost twenty years ago, was pastor of the Centre Hall Reformed church, and has a large number of warm friends among the Reformed and other denominations who are always glad to welcome him back. Rev. and Mrs. Gress continue their interest in this community and its people.

Rattler Hunts Woods Mice.

W. D. Shoop recently dispatched a large rattler snake while in an effort to capture several woods mice caged by him. A young rooster at freedom at Shoop's mountain lodge gave the alarm that something was happening about the place that was unusual. Shoop secured his BB, having in mind a visit by a weasel, but upon investigation found the rattler coiled near by the cage housing the mice and striking the wire protection. Two shots from the little rifle brought no results, but the first volley from a shotgun did. The reptile had eight rattles and a button, and each time a pebble was thrown at him to get him away from the mice, the bells clanged.

Shoop is training the mice. They respond to their names sit up and shimmy. Four chipmunks occupy another cage, and are said to be dull students.

Southern Farmer Tells of Conditions.

We all know that times are hard right now, but not many of us have really figured out the cause for such a condition. A Tennessee mountaineer recently took time to go over the matter and then wrote his conclusions to his local paper, as follows:

Dear Mr. Editor: There seems to be so much talk about our so-called Republican prosperity. I believe 'tis my duty to write my views on the same and help to analyze the situations as far as possible so's we can make our own minds we had other change our ways of living and so forth.

I have taken my own case for instance, and I see my mistakes and many others have acted likewise. I bought a Ford instead of a farm, and it is worn out but the farm I figured on is still o. k. I invested in a radio instead of a cow, and the radio gives static instead of milk.

I am feeding five nice hounds which answer to the names of Red, Red Wing, Slobber, Jake and Bayrum, instead of five pigs. I had our piano tuned instead of the well cleaned out. I spent all my cash in 1929 and traded my future wages for 1930 in installments, so hard times caught me in bad shape last fall.

If I had spent my last $100 for flour instead of gas and oil, I'd have been o. k. I built a nice garage last year instead of covering my barn and I loaded in the mountains a week or two instead of being in the pasture fixing it so's my cow won't get out, but she's dry and mortgaged to boot for two blankets my wife bought from an agent instead of paying the preacher. I'm on a cash basis now, but I ain't got no cash.
