A LIKELY PROSPECT FOR THE 1934 TICKET

The Philadelphia Ledger Mentions Senator Harry B. Scott of Philadelphia, as Being Considered for the Republican Nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

Under the heading "The Mirror of Harrisburg," a correspondent from Harrisburg to the Philadelphia Sunday Ledger, under date of August 22nd, writes as follows concerning a distinguished Centre countian, Senator Harry B. Scott, who has become one of Pennsylvania's most outstanding characters in State affairs:

"When the leaders of the Republican organization buckle down to the job of making up their slate for the 1934 campaign, one of the party stalwarts who will be considered for the nomination of Lieutenant Governor is Senator Harry B. Scott, of Centre county."

"If the candidate for Governor resides in the East or West, Senator Scott will have an excellent chance of landing the nomination for second place on the State ticket, but if the head of the slate should happen to be a resident of the central part of the Commonwealth, the Centre county statesman will have to be content with another place."

"It is probable, however, that before 1934 Senator Scott will have had the honor of presiding over the Senate. He may be the president pro tempore of the upper branch of the Legislature upon expiration of the term of Senator James S. Boyd, of Montgomery county, who was the choice at the close of the 1931 session."

"Senator Scott is looked upon as one of the strong men of the Senate. He is one of the group of organization legislators that saved the Senate for Senators and prevented Governor Pinchot from dominating the upper house."

BANKERS CONVENE AT STATE COLLEGE THIS WEEK

The fourth annual conference of the agricultural committee of the Pennsylvania Association and county key bankers, is in session at the Pennsylvania State College this week. The bankers' meeting overlapped one day with the Potato Exposition, and the delegates spent that day in visiting exhibits and demonstrations of the show which is sponsored by the Potato Growers Association. The bankers' responsibility to agriculture in the present depression is the keynote of this year's conference.

We may soon be able to see wings sprout on the shoulders on the heads of the various State departments and on those of lesser importance. The governor has ordered that politics must be taken out of the game commission-ers' affairs, and that those holding positions under that board "must not engage in any political activity beyond casting their own ballot on election day." In the final, this means like the order given to the county superintendents of highways, that the local politicians be less crude in their methods—accomplish the same thing without being discovered.

About 250 beavers occupy streams on the water shed of the Lewisburg Water company. Within the next few weeks efforts will be made to remove the beavers and transport them to more desirable locations.

DEATHS.

ZECHMAN.—John F. Zechman, 75, retired funeral director and furniture dealer of Beaver Springs, died at his home following a lingering illness. He was a lifelong resident of Snyder county, as a young man having been engaged in farming and wagon-making. Later he engaged in undertaking and the furniture business at Boalsburg, after which he returned to Beaver Springs.

Surviving are his widow, Edna Ewing Zechman, and these children: C. F. Sunbury; Prof. W. I. Zechman, of Bethlehem; Cyril N. Zechman, of Pittsburgh, and Bessie A., wife of John Ritter, Bellvue, Ohio; three brothers, Geo. Robert and Zach Zechman, of Ohio, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Blingaman, of Beavertown, also survive.

SHENEBERGER.—Mrs. Rebecca Sheneberger, widow of John Sheneberger, died at her home in Rock Rapids, Iowa, on August 13. She was a daughter of Jesse and Julia Jordan, and was born in Boalsburg, May 20, 1843, being therefore 86 years, 2 months and 17 days of age.

Surviving are four sons: Philip, John George, and Keller, also one sister, Mrs. Michael Smith, of Potters Mills.

GARVER.—Marion Newton Garver died on Sunday at the home of his brother, John H. Garver, west of Centre Hall, from chronic nephritis. Interment was made on Tuesday at Centre Hall, Rev. H. A. Pruyn, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.

The deceased was a son of Henry and Mary (Zerby) Garver, and was born on the Garver home where he died. He was aged 73 years, 1 month and 20 days. There survive him two brothers: Perry Garver, of Grant City, Missouri; the brother previously named, and a sister, Mrs. Frank Boob, in Union county.

HINDS.—Thomas R. Hinds, aged 43 years, well known farmer of Snyder-town, died suddenly at 6:30 Thursday evening of angina pectoris while attending a ball game at Lamar between the Lamar and Bellefonte teams.

Mr. Hinds had witnessed three innings of the game when he was taken ill and walked to the Grieb refreshment stand just at the edge of the field and after getting into his car, asked the attendant to send for his son, Clair Hinds, who was one of the players. Before the boy reached his father's side the latter was dead.

Mr. Hinds was in good health up to the day of his death, and had been at the game only about fifteen minutes when the attack came. He was born at Hecla and lived all his life in the vicinity. He was an active member of the Grange and of the Reformed church at Hubersburg.

He is survived by his wife and three children: Hilda, Thomas R. Jr. and Claire, at home, and his mother, Mrs. Samuel Hinds. Three brothers and four sisters also survive: John H. of Bellefonte; Perry, of Hubersburg; Charles and Mrs. Gertrude Funk, of Mingoville; Mrs. Lizzie Herman, of Philadelphia; Miss Edna Hinds, of New York, and Mrs. Margaret Grenoble, of Lock Haven.

BASEBALL.

Champions One Day, "Rookies" Next.

Playing like a team that felt there was nothing more to fight for, the Centre Hall baseball team permitted their old-time rival, Coburn (Millheim, if you please), lick them to a standstill in Thursday's twilight game, here. After winning the little championship series with C-M, the local club put up a cellar championship exhibition with the same club and took the count for 10 to 2. The team lacked spirit, George Lutz's left-hand offerings were soft picking for the enemy, the hard-hitting Cable showing the way for his teammates by socking the ball to all parts of the field—right, center and left—clear to the fence. Lutz's fielding of hits to the mound was decidedly off color too and he was thus responsible to a great degree for his undoing. C-M's first three runs, however, were because of errors. The bases were loaded, when a 2-bagger cleared them. Better infield work would have retired the side scoreless.

Corman twirled for C-M, and did good work; in fact, better than Cable exhibited in his last two games in the exciting series. Coburn-Millheim also had a new catcher—"Dooly" Rutherford, of Laurelton—not new to local fans, but new for the C-M team, which club "got away with something" when they corralled this catcher. Coburn has a pair of catchers of her own, but not so good, they reason. "Dooly" certainly strengthens the team, but how did C-M work the cards to get him? Other clubs need strengthening in various departments but are nevertheless going on their own power. Why not C-M?

Centre Hall, 11; Rebersburg, 7. The first game during the week of the Grange Fair, on Saturday afternoon, was taken by Centre Hall, from Rebersburg, 11 to 7. Centre Hall replaced practically its entire team after the first few innings when they had a 11-2 lead, with "second string" men. Rebersburg took advantage of the situation and gained on their opponents, until Martz was rushed to the rescue and prevented further scoring.

Other Scores During the Week: At Lamar, Thursday, August 20—Lamar, 4; Centre Hall, 1. Monday—Pine Grove Mills, 10; Spruce Creek, 4.

Tuesday—Milroy, 6; Centre Hall, 4. Game called in sixth inning on account of rain.

What If They Do Hold Hands?

"Hello, Mary. This is Bill. What do you say to a movie tonight?"

"Fine. Will you be out about seven-thirty?"

So Mary and Bill go to the movies as do hundreds of other Marys and Bills and probably they hold hands—but they can hardly be blamed for that. We all like the movies but do we and Bill and Mary, as we are carried away from everyday worries and cares, think of the part electricity plays in the modern theatre.
