

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Vote for Auman for Sheriff. adv

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Lee motored to Williamsport on Friday.

The regular State highway "Stop" sign at Old Fort has been removed from its post.

Next Wednesday will be a cold day; and for a large number of candidates who will find themselves out in it.

Rev. J. M. Reareck, of Millintown, now retired, filled the pulpit in the Lutheran church in Millintown for his brother, Rev. W. M. Reareck, on Sunday.

Thomas Kerstetter and family, of Dillsburg, were in town on Sunday, stopping with the former's sister, Mrs. J. M. Luse. Mr. Kerstetter is conducting a hotel in the York county town.

James Keller and family, who spent a part of their vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Keller, went to their home in eastern Pennsylvania, where Mr. Keller is teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCormick, Mrs. McCormick's mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carson, of Potters Mills, attended the funeral of Dr. S. S. McCormick, at Hubersburg, on Thursday.

The East Penns Valley High school, sponsored by Millheim borough, Penn and Haines townships, has an enrollment of ninety-five pupils, thirty-one of whom comprise the freshman class. The senior class has sixteen members.

Ward C. Miller, son of the late Dr. E. M. Miller, Millheim, who graduated from Temple University, Philadelphia, entered the dental office of Dr. R. H. Savage, in Dunbury. He is entitled to D. D. S. as a suffix to his name.

Misses Margaret Bradford, Helen Odenkirk and Agnes Cummings, all graduates of the Centre Hall High school, '31, on Tuesday went to Williamsport where they entered the Williamsport Commercial College to take a full course.

A first-prize winner in the livestock department at the Grange Encampment and Fair, whom those reporting winners for publication failed to credit, was A. M. Riegel, of Centre Hall. Mr. Riegel had on exhibition the largest Shorthorn's bull ever seen at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Bitterlich and daughter, Miss Helen, of Philadelphia, were week-end visitors of Mrs. Mary Cook, at the Mrs. Elizabeth Devine home. They also visited with their many former friends at Colver and Potters Mills, returning to Philadelphia on Labor Day.

From the Orangeville Courier: Col. G. B. Goodhart, Orangeville's local horseman, was awarded the following premiums at the Green county fair, held last week at Monroe, in all classes: First in heavy draft horses; heavy draft team; medium draft team; general purpose team; gentleman's driving team; gentleman's single driving horse, and one special award on white Arabian stallion, "Laddy Boy" given as an award of merit.

Mrs. Margaret Godshall and daughter, Miss Eva Bailey last week drove to Washington, D. C., and returning brought with them Mrs. George Sachis, also a daughter of Mrs. Godshall, who will remain here for a week, when her husband expects to come, for her. Vernon Godshall, who had been in Washington during the vacation period, also returned home to begin school at Penn State.

Postmaster R. M. Smith will attend the National convention of Postmasters in Omaha, Nebraska, opening on the 14th, having left for that point early Sunday morning. John H. Knarr accompanying him. It was their intention of striking the National highway at Washington, this State, and continue on it. At Emporium, Kansas, Mr. Smith will visit two sisters, Miss Emma Smith and Mrs. Annie Smith, and then go on to the convention city. Mr. Knarr will go to Enid, Oklahoma, to spend some time with his father, Charles Knarr, known to many here. The return home will be by a northern route to Detroit, including a run into Canada. Of course, the trip is being made in Mr. Smith's car.

Lewis Brooks, three years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Brooks, west of town was brought home from the University hospital, Philadelphia, the latter part of last week by his father, Lee Brooks accompanying him. Lewis, during May of 1930, drank water from an abandoned Banner lye can, the result being a stricture of the esophagus. About the middle of February of this year, an orange seed lodged in the stricture, necessitating the boy being taken to the hospital for its removal, and he has been there since until last week. He has very much improved physically and there are bright hopes for his complete recovery. It will be necessary to take him to the hospital at intervals of about six weeks for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Corman, last week drove to Unionville, Chester county, and remained for the night with Mr. and Mrs. John Corman, and together the six went on to Philadelphia, sightseeing and visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Lusk, nephew and niece, of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher. Mrs. Lusk had just received the sad news that her sister-in-law, wife of Rev. Frank B. Ulrich, of New Holland Lancaster county, had died and left a son three days old. The auto party, while in Philadelphia, got into an auto jam in the vicinity of the Duffy home and experienced much difficulty in making headway along the wide thoroughfare, the traffic and city police being unable to cope with the large number of autos and mass of people on the highway and on the private grounds of the Duffy place. Mr. and Mrs. Corman, who have been here vacationing for a month, returned to Wilkinsburg the latter part of last week.

CENTRE COUNTY HOSPITAL NOTES.

The following were admitted as surgical patients at the Centre County Hospital during the past week:

Brobeck, of Walker township; Loretta Askey, 6 years old, of Walker township; Wade Evey, of Pleasant Gap; Miss Mary Ann Solt, of Axemann; Miss Elizabeth Ruth Cox, of Pine Grove Mills; Phyllis I. Benner, 12, of Madisonburg; Roseanna Dubbs, 10, of Fleming; Mrs. Fred Warner and infant daughter, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Violet Walker, of Oak Hall.

Get out and vote next Tuesday, or make no complaint if the candidates selected do not meet with your approval.

T. M. HUEY, PATTON TOWNSHIP, Democratic Candidate for County Commissioner.

A descendant of one of the early Democratic settlers of Centre county, and for the past thirty-eight years has resided in Halfmoon and Buffalo Run Valleys. When twelve years of age he went to work on a farm to make his own way and help to support his family. When he was twenty-one years of age he started in the farming business for himself on a small farm in Huston township, Centre county. After one year of experience of farming alone he married. Five years later he moved to Halfmoon Valley where he farmed as a tenant farmer for twenty-seven years. Then in order to make a home for his widowed mother he moved to his present home at Fillmore. During his thirty-three years in Patton township he served twenty-five years as chairman of his party. Has held township office almost continuously in a township where the Democrats have always been largely in the minority. When the Farmers Trust Company of State College was first organized he was on one of the first board of directors, in which position he served for a number of years.

If nominated and elected to the office of County Commissioner he has pledged his entire time and best interest to the service of the tax payers of Centre county, whose servant he would be.
