PINCHOT'S TAX PROGRAM.

The Pinchot method of taxation for thebenefit of the unemployed will put the burden to an extremely large extent on the taxpayers of moderate wife of Arthur Gunsallus, of Nittany, means, and the employed who are only, in many instances, on part time. The sum of $16,000.000 to $20,000,000 and undergoing an operation. She was s year will be produced from the two tricts go to and from their work in cars; many travel as much as twenty to thirty miles one way. Two cents additional tax on gas, plus the three cents now collected, will mean five cents tax on every gallon of automobile fuel used, or a tax rate of more than thirty per cent.

Had the Governor seen fit to do so this vast sum could have been collected from a tax on incomes, thus relieving the wage earners, but there is no mention of a State income tax and ed from the last issue of the Orangethe Legislature cannot consider it since ville (IIL) Courier: Alfred Potter, 71. the scope of the special session is lim- a resident of Freeport for the past 22 ited exclusively to the items listed in years, passed away at a local hospital the Governor's call.

LEAVE BUSINESS TO BUSINESS BRAINS

John P. Wallace, Editor of Wallace's Farmer, Des Moines, Iowa, voices the opinion that the railroads of this coun try could operate more economically and efficiently if relieved of some of the existing government regulations and restrictions. Federal invasion into private business has invariably resulted in increased costs and added burdens upon the people. A shining exgrain and cotton. Instead of helping the farmer, grain and cotton prices have declined to the lowest figure in history. It is universally conceded that, had the government kept hands off, grain and cotton prices would have remained much more firm and steady. At least it would have been known where the grain was and what was going to be done with it. As B. C. Forbes states the case: "Let the gov- ployed in the hosiery mill in Millheim. ernment attend to its knitting, and leave business to business brains, for when the government dabbles in business, expect a flasco.'

Hallowe'en in Centre Hall.

The sky that night was cloudy; The cold air promised sleet; The queerest looking creatures Walked up and down the street: Ghosts, witchess, bums, and goblins In every place were seen-It was a night for evil, It was grim Hallowe'en-We gazed at them in trembling: What would these demons do? When we were deep in slumber, Where would they be? We knew But when we rose next morning, How great was our surprise! With faces toward the Diamond We gazed, then rubbed our eyes: For through the gray of dawning ... We saw the place was clear So, friends, let's take our hats off And give our youths a cheer!
