

SPRING MILLS

Arthur B. Lee has rented his farm to George Hackett, who will take possession of it next spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sinkabine, of Berryville, Va., are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. S. Meyer, and other friends.

The silk mill under the supervision of J. C. Robinson put out 7200 lbs. during the month of November. This is the largest production in the history of the mill. This institution means a great deal to our town as they are quite a number of ladies and men employed who receive handsome checks every two weeks.

The Junior class of the Vocational School will produce a play in the Grange hall next Friday evening, December 11th, entitled, "Jimmy Be Careful!" The characters are as follows:

Tillie, the Black's Maid—Violet Stover
Pietro, her admirer—Harold Duck.
Jim Fisher, Verna's fiance—Samuel Wise.

Ma Blake—Jane Campbell.
Aunt Ellen Means—Mary Emehizer.
Verna Blake—June Walker.
Willie Blake—John Zuber.
Chris Means—Kenneth Eungard.
Herb Clark—Ardek Myers.
Emilie Blake—Isabel Swabb.

The Board of Supervisors re-organized on Monday and elected the following: Wm. H. Bressler, president; Paul D. Swabb, treasurer, and C. C. Bartges, secretary. A. C. Sheestey is also a member of the board.

Rev. M. C. Drumm, of Middleburg, was visiting some of his friends in town last week, and on Sunday night taught the senior classes in St. Mark's Lutheran Sunday school.

Mrs. E. T. Jamison, who had been on the sick list for a month or more, passed away last Friday night. Her remains were laid to rest in the Spring Mills cemetery on Tuesday; Rev. S. F. Greenhoe officiated.

T. F. Ransburg, depot agent for the Railway Express Agency of Harrisburg, was a Sunday visitor at the home of Prof. Hayes.

LINDEN HALL.

Our bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Callahan, returned last Friday from their wedding trip to some of the western States.

James Swabb, Esq., who has been on the sick list, is improved at this writing.

Miss Isabel Horner spent the week-end with friends at State College.

George Ishler and son Gene went to Boalsburg on Sunday where they will spend some time at the Peter Ishler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Callahan, Mrs. Ruth Green and children spent Saturday with the George Horner family in Greens Valley.

Mrs. Wm. Mesmer, Mrs. Roy McClintic and daughter spent Saturday afternoon with Mrs. N. B. Martz. Mrs. Martz, although still bedfast, is slowly improving.

Saturday proved a lucky day for a number of our hunters: Sam Ross, John Ross, John Reifnyder and Charles Mesmer each brought home a deer.

Edward Perryman and Homer Patterson returned to their work at Exeter, N. H., after enjoying a week hunting.

The Board of Game Commissioners intimates that it would be a good idea for Pennsylvania to do like some other States, refuse to issue a hunting license the following year to those who fail to make a report on game killed by them.
