LINDEN HALL.

The Linden Hall Sunday school will hold their Christmas exercises Tuesday evening, December 22nd.

Mrs. Harold Callahan, Mrs. Ruth Green and daughter Miriam and son Gerald spent last Tuesday with Mrs. W. L. Poorman at Boalsburg.

Mrs. F. E. Wieland and Mrs. Ruth Green assisted N. J. Martz's to butcher last Wednesday.

Lawrence Callahan, who has been suffering from a severe attack of quinsy, is improving at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hook and children, east of Old Fort, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McClintic.

Mrs. George Mothersbaugh and daughter Ruth, of Boalsburg, spent Saturday at the J. H. Ross home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ross and children, of Mill Hall, visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Durst and Jimmie and Robert Goarhart, sons of Mrs. Durst, took supper with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross on Saturday evening.

LINDEN HALL No. 2.

The hunting season is over. The mountains on both sides of the valley provide profitable hunting fields, a number of deer having been brought in from each—Old Nittany not lagging.

Quite a number of hunters from the eastern part of the State made their headquarters at the Robert McClellan home, as many as twenty taking their meals there in a day, and fifteen lodgers at night.

Some readers who are hunters will recall "Ebbie" Morgan, of West Chester, a garageman, who hunted these mountains each deer season for several years back. He brought with him this year his newly wedded wife, a graduate nurse from Wilmington, Delaware, hospital, a very charming young woman. He was also accompanied by Jack Hulmes and friend, Miss Gertrude Reynolds. The ladies were left in the care of Mrs. McClellan while the men went gunning. They got one shot but missed.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Dr. Peter Swank purchased the John G. Ishler property on Main street, expecting to occupy his new possession in the near future.

Hunting is the main topic in this vicinity. Among the day hunters who were fortunate enough to secure a deer were Wm. Meyer, Charles Segner, Dan Mothersbaugh and Ted Lucas.

J. D. Patterson has taken over the Dyer home near town.

A number of people from town spent Saturday in Bellefonte and Lewistown.

The Christmas celebration in the town will consist of a play and social in the Lutheran S. S. room on Friday evening, Dec. 18th. A Christmas Party in Victor Grange hall, Tuesday evening; entertainments in the public schools; a Christmas service in the Reformed church on Wednesday evening, December 23, and the Lutheran Sunday school will render a service, "The Nativity," according to St. Luke, on Christmas eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hosterman, of Greensburg, were week-end visitors at the home of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hosterman.

The ladies of the Reformed Missionary society had an all-day quilting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hazel, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher, of York, and John Fisher, of Bellefonte, were visitors in town last week.

Mrs. Harold Fisher was called to Huntingdon on Tuesday morning owing to the sudden death of an aunt.

PLEASANT GAP

Mrs. Jack Noll entertained recently with two tables of Bridge. A unique feature of the party was the fact that all the guests were Nolls, namely: Mrs. Edna Keller Noll, Mrs. Esther Noll Melroy, Mrs. Ruth Kersteter Noll, Mrs. Grace Brungart Noll, Miss Beatrice Noll, Mrs. Helen Noll Hamilton, Miss Jean Noll, Mrs. Jack Noll.

Mrs. J. R. Barlett, Mrs. Ray Noll and Mrs. Jack Noll attended a meeting of the Children's Aid in Bellefonte on Monday afternoon.

We are glad to know that Miss Margaret Irvin is convalescing rapidly from her recent operation at the Centre County hospital.

Mrs. Ward Showers was hostess to her Bridge club on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Grace Noll has been visiting at her home in Rebersburg and assisting with the butchering.

Miss Ellen Eckert and Miss Jean Noll spent Sunday at Avis with Miss Eckert's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eby made a shopping trip to Harrisburg Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline Cranoble, of Lock Haven, spent a day with Mrs. Cronobje's father, John C. Mullinger, at the Showers-Mullinger home.
