

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

H. L. Ebricht dealt his Dodge coupe on a Buick five-passenger coupe.

If not one thing, it's another—this month, auto tags; next, operators' cards.

The five voting machines forced on to Phillipsburg by Secretary Beamish, cost $5,821.25, or $1,164.25 per machine.

After spending three weeks with her sister in Baltimore, Mrs. Samuel Shoop returned home the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Jennie Lingle will spend her Christmas with her son, James B. Lingle, and family, at Kennett Square, near Philadelphia.

A cantata entitled, "Tinsel and Gold" will be rendered by the members of the Methodist church here on Wednesday evening, December 23.

Mrs. C. A. Spyer, Mrs. F. V. Jodan, and daughters, Misses Emma and Cherry Jodan, with Miss Myla Spyer at the wheel, autored to Lock Haven on Saturday.

Mrs. R. G. McClellan, of Linden Hall, attended a meeting of the Past Tempars Association of Centre and Clinton counties, held in the hall of the Centre Hall K. G. E. last Thursday afternoon.

At the last meeting of the directors of the Centre County Hospital, Myron M. Cobb resigned as director and secretary of the body. Hugh M. Quigley, son of the late Judge Quigley, was elected to fill both the places made vacant by Mr. Cobb's resignation.

At the December meeting of the W. C. T. U., held at the home of Mrs. H. L. Ebricht, plans were made to hold a dues social in the M. E. church on Tuesday evening, January 12th. The county officers will be present.

At a regular session of the argument court on Monday, Theodore C. Jackson was admitted to practice at the bar. He will have an office in Phillipsburg. Mr. Jackson was formerly cashier of the Moshannon National Bank, Phillipsburg, and is a native of Huntingdon.

Glenn Bloom, of Fillmore, will become tenant on the A. W. Alexander farm, above Old Fort, when vacated next spring by Edward Musser, after two years tenancy there. Mr. Bloom is a nephew of Robert Bloom, of near town.

Three hundred permanent camp site leases have been granted throughout the State this year, making the total 2,500, at an average price of about $19 each. The camps erected by the lessees are estimated to be worth $2,500,000.

The staff of the Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary will be read by a warder, not yet named, who will receive $6500 a year. For maintenance and operation an appropriation of $544,000 has been provided. A staff of 137 employees will take care of the complement of 1200 prisoners, beginning July 1st, 1932.

Francis M. Gallagher, county commissioner-elect in Lycoming county, will recommend a ten per cent. reduction in pay of all persons holding jobs under the jurisdiction of the county salary board of which he will be a member by virtue of his position as county commissioner. He says salaries have been pushed up for political reasons.

According to report Recorder-elect D. A. McDowell will have as deputy when he take charge of the office in the court house, January 4th, Hoy Royer, son of Clayton Royer, of Bellefonte. The young man is now a clerk in Schaeffer's hardware store and the vacancy caused when he leaves there will be filled by Lloyd A. Stover, retiring Recorder, who was a clerk there before he was elected to office.

Miss Emeline Brungart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Brungart, of town, since last week is a member of the East Penns Valley High school faculty, taking the place of Miss Emma Walker, teacher in English, resigned. The resignation of Miss Walker was forced through an unfair position taken by the State Educational Department. Miss Brungart is a graduate of Penn State, 1931, and has had no previous experience in teaching, except as a student teacher, but it is predicted that she is entirely capable.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bradford have returned from their vacation trip to Beach Hill, West Virginia, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shadle, on Mt. Vernon farms. Mr. Shadle is giving much attention to growing stock and has had several prize-winning Belgian stallions, a year old last May, weighing 1565 and 1710, to draw prizes at the Chicago Stock Show just closed. A herd of 51 cows produced an average of 14,000 pounds of milk, equal to 454 pounds of butter fat. In his own State Mr. Shadle's stock has long held the championship prizes.

Paul Horner, 13, and sister, Pauline, 11, children of Mr. and Mrs. Orvis L. Horner, of Colyer, are youngsters who give promise of developing into musicians of note. Paul with his violin, and Pauline with her guitar, are now able to play practically all the popular airs, without having had a day's teaching from an accredited teacher in music. With a knowledge of the bare rudiments of music, gleaned from several persons with whom they fortunately came in contact, the youngsters' aptitude soon manifested itself and they "took to music" like a duck to water. Now the demand for musical programs in and about Colyer is very limited, yet Paul and Pauline were able, quite recently, to please an audience of hunters at the Storch hunting camp near their home, and the men showed their appreciation by rewarding them quite handsomely.

KIWANIS CLUB

ADMITS NEW MEMBERS

The reception of twenty-one members featured the meeting of the Bellefonte Kiwanis Club at the luncheon held in the Penn Belle hotel Tuesday noon. Sixteen of these are new members and five are former members who have returned to the club. They are as follows: James R. Hughes, Dr. Leroy Locke, Harry Clevenstine, Blaine Mabus, Horatio Moore, Dr. Richard P. Noll, B. B. Holland, Albert Grove, B. H. Kingsley, H. Laird Curtin, R. S. Snyder, George Purnell, J. Shannon Rooper, Howard Holtzworth, F. G. Rogers, Isadore Claster, D. L. Currier, Hayes W. Mattern Jr., L. Ward Hill, Earl S. Orr and S. W. Smith.

Guests present were: H. D. Munroe, Harrisburg; N. P. Bentz Spring Grove; and W. W. Campbell, Bellefonte. The speaker of the day was Franklin H. Kean of Chicago, field representative of Kiwanis International. Taking as his subject "Two Men and a Community," he held the attention of his hearers as he pictured in a masterful way St. Paul as an organizer with an intensive spiritual outlook and vision. Materialism, the speaker stated, proved its inadequacy during the period between 1921 and 1929. Higher values of life need to be cultivated and the spiritual needs to be made predominant. The value of a Kiwanis Club is in multiplying possibilities of community service along the lines of the spiritual and in civic helpfulness.

State College Janitor Ends Life by Hanging.

David H. Ewing, 54, for 18 years a janitor in the electrical engineering department of the Penna. State College, committed suicide on Monday by hanging himself in the laboratory. His body was found by Prof. H. M. Stover when he opened the laboratory for class. County and college officials said they could learn no motive for Ewing's act. He is survived by a widow.
