Mr. and Mrs. Nellis Kline, of State College, spent Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Horner.

Mrs. Ella Mothersbaugh, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Edward Durst, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Marion Ross and baby son, of Lemont; and Mrs. Fay Ross came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross last Thursday and did some household duties for about three weeks on account of a sprained knee.

Miss Christina Bailey, of Boalsburg, spent Saturday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Callahan.
Mr. and Mrs. George Ishler, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ishler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McClintic.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Messmer spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horner of near Tusseyville.
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hook spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude McClintic.

Mrs. Perryman spent Sunday at the State College with her mother and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ross attended the funeral of the former's sister, Mrs. Krebs, at State College, on Monday afternoon.

M. K. Green returned home Monday evening after completing a three weeks' schedule through the lower counties. He is an A. R. tester for the Penna. State College.

POTTERS MILLS.

Charles Caskey and family of Lock Haven, visited over the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sweetwood.

Miss Laura Belle McCormick visited Saturday night and Sunday with her friends, Isabel Jodon and Alice Spyrker, in Centre Hall.

Ross Smith, from Johnstown, visited over the week end with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Michel Smith. He brought with him a radio which was installed in their home. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Thomas, who presented the radio, and her son, William Thomas, Jr.

The serenaders were busy on Monday evening serenading Mrs. Johnston and Mr. Cohen, who were recently married.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Reubens Stuart, of Crafton, spent part of Sunday among friends in town, after attending the funeral of Mrs. Stuart's aunt, Miss Amanda Mothersbaugh. Mr. and Mrs. George Mothersbaugh also went to Altoona Saturday to attend the funeral.
Miss Anna Dale spent Wednesday in Bellefonte.

The town schools were closed last Thursday in order that the school rooms might be thoroughly fumigated in an effort to check the outbreak of scarlet fever. A number of new cases have been reported this week.

Mrs. Tammie Keller, of Milesburg, is spending some time at the W. H. Stover home.

Miss Rachel Hunter returned Sunday after a ten day visit in New York.

C. N. Kryder, of Centre Hall, was in town on business on Wednesday.

Theodore Segner and family, of State College, spent Sunday at the Charles Segner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess, of Altoona—newlyweds—were tendered a calumpanian serenade on Saturday evening at the E. W. Hess home.

SPRING MILLS.

The following were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Osrgan: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McCormick, Ben Osman, Albert Rittenhouse, Alj of Sunbury; Mr. and Mrs. Max Souther, of Montoursville, and Mrs. Harry Osman, of Williamsport.

Two men, each past 70 years of age, created a little amusement last week in Sunbury. Norman Masteller met his old friend, J. Orris McCormick, formerly of this place, and now an agent for the Tanner Shoe Co. They were chiding each other about getting old. Finally Mr. McCormick said, "I'll bet you $2.00 I can bet you on a foot race—out 10th street and back." Mr. Masteller took the bet and the race was run. McCormick won. He then remarked, "If you would have had Tanner shoes on, you would have won."

Mrs. Catherine Wagner is visiting her sisters in Philadelphia.

The Spring Mills band had their annual banquet in the Grange hall last week.

C. G. Decker, of Bellefonte, was a business caller in town last week.

Stove Explodes in Oak Hall Home. Clogged waterpipes in a stove in the Waldo E. Homan home, Oak Hall, were the cause of an explosion which destroyed the range, broke the kitchen windows, wrecked a cupboard and a clock early one morning last week. No one was injured.

Mrs. Homan had kindled a fire in the stove and went to the barn when she heard the screams of her son. She ran back to find the room in disorder and burning coils causing the woodwork to smoulder in several places. Limestone deposits in the spring water which Mr. Homan had ingeniously piped to the home and used in the heater are believed to have clogged the pipes. Circulation stopped, the water turned to steam, and an explosion resulted. Mr. Homan, one of Oak Hall's leading dairymen, was in State College on business at the time.

FARM CALENDAR

TIMELY REMINDERS FROM PENNSYLVANIA STATE COLLEGE SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Keep Farm Records—
This is the time of the year to start the new farm account books. Last year 1157 farmers kept such books in cooperation with the Pennsylvania State College agricultural extension service. This was a gain of 200 over 1930.

Feed Alfalfa to Birds—
If no succulent feed is available give the birds in the poultry flock some alfalfa hay to pick at each day, say Penn State poultry specialists.

Learn About Meat—
During the past year 88 butchering and meat cutting demonstrations were attended by 3616 persons, including farmers, homemakers, school children and meat dealers.

Use Economical Plows—
In stony land steel mouldboards for tractor plows are more economical than cast mouldboards because the latter break too often. Cast plowshares are more economical than steel if an efficient spring release hitch is used.

Produce Quality Cream—
To produce good quality cream use only clean separators, cans and milking utensils. Do not mix fresh skimmed milk with cream of former skimmings before it is thoroughly cooled, and keep it cool until delivered.

Young Animals Need Care—
Spring time is nursery time on the farm. Chicks, pigs and lambs all pay big returns for the time spent on them while they are getting their start.

Locusts Grow Good Posts—
Locust is the best species to plant for fence post material. This tree produces a very durable wood and does it in a short time. Some plantations on fairly good ground have yielded 1100 posts an acre in a 17-year period.

Home Each Week

IT was lonely on the farm now that winter had settled in. Mrs. Kemp sometimes catch herself listening for footsteps. But no one came.

Tom was back at his job in town. Jim was in college. And Sue, with her children, couldn't come home very often.

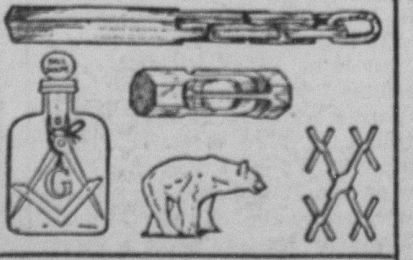

Then one evening the telephone rang. It was Jim. "Just wanted to chat," he told his Mother. "How're you and Dad?" For several minutes family news and happy confidences flew back and forth between mother and son.

The conversation ended. Mrs. Kemp turned from the telephone with eyes shining. "Dad," she exclaimed, "Jim gave me an idea! Let's call up Tom and Sue. From now on I'm going to visit the children by telephone and not sit here alone!"
