Centre County Exhibitors Capture Many Prizes at the State Farm Show

MONEY AWARDS FOR CENTRE COUNTY EXHIBITORS TOTAL $637.50—PETERS BROS., STORMSTOWN, SCORE HIGH IN DAIRY DEPARTMENT.—$75,000 ESTIMATED CROWD AT SHOW.

The sixteenth annual State Farm Show held at Harrisburg last week was the largest in the history of the show. All previous attendance records were broken. The total estimated crowd was over 278,000 during the week. Exhibitors in the various departments found competition very keen. The quantity and quality of exhibits in all departments far exceeded any previous shows. Centre county exhibitors came home with their share of premiums.

The following list gives the names, departments and winnings as near as it was possible to ascertain at this date:

Penn State Wins First on Percheron
In the horse department the Pennsylvania State College won first on an aged Percheron stallion and first on a two-year-old Percheron stallion, also winning grand champion with the aged Percheron stallion "Sir Laet."

The swine department in the Poland China class, second on junior yearling sow, 6th and 8th on junior sow won by Hartle Bros., Bellefonte; 8th place junior sow pig won by Peters Bros., Stormstown; 5th in the senior sow pig class 4th in junior sow pig won by the Penna. State College.

In the Berkshire class, 5th place junior yearling sow, 3rd and 7th on junior sow pig won by the Penna. State College.

The Chesterwhite class 4th place on junior yearling sow, 1st and 3rd on junior sow pig and reserved grand champion won by the Penna. State College.

Duroc Jersey class, 2nd place junior sow pig, 3rd junior sow pig, won by Penna. State College.

Dairy Department.

In the dairy department, Holstein class, bull calf four months old and under one year, 8 entries; 4th place won by Peters Bros., Stormstown; bull 3 years old or over, 8 entries; 5th place won by Peters Bros.; heifer 4 months and under 1 year, 8 entries; 3rd and 5th places won by Peters Bros.; heifer 18 months and under 2 years, 24 entries; 3rd and 5th places won by Peters Bros.; cow three years and under 4, ten entries; 5th place by Peters Bros.; Exhibitors' herd (5 animals), 4 entries; 3rd place by Peters Bros.; Breeders' Young Herd (5 animals), 6 entries; 3rd place won by Peters Bros.; Produce of Dam (2 animals), 19 entries; 3rd place by Peters Bros.

The Egg Show.

First place in class of 5 dozen white eggs, Kerlin's Poultry Farm, Centre Hall; 2nd place in class of one dozen white eggs, Daniel Daup, Jr., Centre Hall; 3rd and 4th places in class of one dozen white eggs, Roy Duroc, Centre Hall; 4th place in farmers' class of one dozen white eggs, Thomas Delaney, Centre Hall; 4th and 5th in farmers' five dozen white egg class, Thomas Delaney.

Centre's 4H Lamb Club Exhibits.

Hampshire class: 2nd place, Charles Harter, Nittany; Shropshire class: 2nd place, Minnie Tate, State College; 3rd place, Eugene Lederer, Jr., State College; 8th place, Richard Luse, Centre Hall; 10th place, Wm. Hipple, Pine Glen.

Southdown class—7th place, Margaret Ross, Centre Hall; 8th place, Carl Burkholder, Centre Hall; 9th place, Richard Ross, Centre Hall; 10th place, Albert Homan, State College; 11th place, Lee Homan, State College.

The Centre county club consisted of 10 pens in the three breeds mentioned. The jumbo sold at auction on Friday for an average of 8 1/2c a pound.

In the Small Grains Department, 5th place on a sample of wheat, H. A. Hoy, Bellefonte.

Rural Dramatics.

Rural Dramatics Department: Rebekah Lodge of Pine Grove Mills presented the one-act play "Mother's Old Home" in competition with six groups in the central district. They were awarded 4th place in the district.

Miss Elizabeth Goheen of Pine Grove Mills, won first honors in a special entertainment presentation which was not to exceed six minutes and to be presented between acts of the one-act play groups.

Centre county was represented in the Horseshoe Pitching contest by L. P. Fiedler, Aaronburg, and Wert Bohn, Boalsburg, who substituted for Howard Stere, of Unionville. The contest was won by the defending champion of last year, Mr. Straw, of Clearfield county.

The total amount of prize winnings on Centre county exhibits was $637.50. The show was attended by a large number of Centre county people.

R. C. BLANEY,
County Agent.

Harris Twp. V. S. Among Winners.
Harris Township boys' and girls' teams competed in the State Demonstration contest, the boys demonstrating the judging of livestock and the girls a demonstration on the uses of apples as human food. Susan Wagner of the Harris Township school won honorable mention in the contest.

Harris Township Vocational School also had two winners in the Project Contest—Wm. Ross, 6th in dairy, and Lynn Mothersbaugh, 7th in sheep.

RICHARD LUSE CAPTURES PRIZE ON SHEEP

In giving the names of the boys and girls who attended the State Farm Show, at Harrisburg, last week, the name of Richard Luse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Luse, was omitted. He, like the others mentioned, had an exhibit of sheep, the Shropshire being the breed, and he was able to bring back to only prize captured by sheep exhibitors in Centre county. He secured a third prize, and got a higher price per pound, at the sale on Friday, than any of the other exhibitors from this section.

The prices obtained for the sheep follow: Richard Luse, Shropshire, 12 cents per pound; Margaret Ross, Southdown, 7 1/2 cents; Carl Burkholder, Southdown, 7 cents; Richard Ross, Southdown, 6 1/2 cents.

All the prizes for fat sheep, except the one given Richard Luse, were captured by Northampton county growers.

PRIZE BABY BEEF SELLS FOR 60c LB.

The 97 head of 4-H Club baby beef steers entered in the Pennsylvania Farm Show by boys and girls in Dauphin, Cumberland, Lancaster and Montgomery counties, and the 36 pens of fat lambs entered from Centre, Clinton and Northampton counties, sold at the exhibition for a total of $12,825.51. The steers averaged 11.9 cents per pound and the lambs 10c a pound.

The Harrisburger Hotel in Harrisburg paid the record price of 60 cents a pound for Clair Strock's grand champion steer. The steer weighed 1040 pounds, making the total price $624. The Liberty Meat Market of York bought the reserve grand champion shown by Ralph Strock, a brother of Clair, for 30 cents a pound, making the total return $348.

The grand champion pen of three Southdown lambs exhibited by Raymond Pysker, Northampton county 4-H Club boy, sold to the Union Meat Stores of Harrisburg, for 30 cents a pound. The pen weighed 393 pounds and brought $99.90.

The reserve grand champion pen shown by John Sandt of Northampton county and consisting of three purebred Hampshire weighing 355 lbs., sold to the Carlisle Meat Market for 17 cents a pound, a total of $60.50.

SEEK DEATH PENALTY FOR NEGRO SLAYER

District Attorney Love will ask the Centre county grand jury to find a true bill in the case of Henry Collins who brutally murdered Elizabeth Hickcock two weeks ago. It has been learned. Collins has been formally charged with the murder.

Mr. Love will maintain that Collins was sane at the time of the murder and that the hallucinations which he said to have experienced are not proof of insanity. Collins' case will come up before the grand jury in February.

LOOK OUT FOR "SPEED TRAPS."

Several traps for the unwary motorist are said to be set in various sections on the State highway not so far from here. Three reported to this office are those between Lewistown and Centre Hall; Lewistown and Mount Union; and Lewistown and Middleburg. These "traps" are not set in incorporated boroughs but out on the open highway where speeds of over 40 miles an hour are being held up by State motor patrolmen and fines of $10 and costs collected. So be on your guard.

H. H. Mark has erected a two-car garage on his home lot, in town.

CANDIDATES SUGGESTED FOR STATE OFFICES

All Well-Known Men in Pennsylvania—Very Brief Sketch of Each.

The Democratic State Committee in special session at Harrisburg recommended a full State ticket to be voted for at the primary election April 26th. This action followed unanimous decision of the Committee to adopt the convention system of suggesting or recommending candidates for the voters' approval in the primaries.

The ticket is unusually strong and well distributed geographically and is as follows:

For United States Senator—Lawrence H. Rupp, of Allentown. Mr. Rupp is a member of the law firm of Buttz & Rupp, is strictly an Allentown product, born, raised and educated there, but has risen to high position in public affairs. He has served a term as District Attorney of Lehigh county, as chairman of the Democratic State Committee and as Grand Exalted Ruler of the Lodge of Elks, the highest office within the gift of that Order. He has a wide acquaintance and is a fine public speaker.

For Supreme Court—E. C. Higbee, of Conneville. Mr. Higbee is the senior partner in the law firm of Higbee, Matthews & Lewellyn, and is one of the best known and highly regarded attorneys in Western Pennsylvania.

For Judge of Superior Court—Frank H. Strouse of Mount Carmel. Mr. Strouse has just completed a ten-year term as President Judge in the courts of Northumberland county. He is a native of Mount Carmel and was admitted to the Northumberland county Bar in 1900 and to the Supreme Court Bar in 1903. He also served two terms as District Attorney of Northumberland county.

For Judge of Superior Court—Robert A. Henderson, of Altoona. Mr. Henderson is one of the leaders of the Blair county Bar. A few years ago became within 241 votes of winning the Judgeship of the county notwithstanding the fact that Blair's normal Republican majority is 15,990. Mr. Henderson was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1928.

For State Treasurer—Leonard B. Shannon, of Brookville. Mr. Shannon has been in the banking business in Brookville since 1901 when he entered the employ of the Jefferson County National Bank as a clerk, rising steadily to the positions of Assistant Cashier, Cashier and President. On January 1st, 1932, he also took the presidency of the Sykesville National Bank. Mr. Shannon is the father of ten children, the eldest son, Harold, being admitted to the Jefferson county Bar last year. Mr. Shannon is recognized throughout Western Pennsylvania as a very progressive business man and strong banker.

For Auditor General—Wilson I. Sarig, of Temple. Mr. Sarig is serving his seventh term as a member of the State Legislature from Berks county and is a Democratic Floor Leader of the House. When he was advised of his selection, Mr. Sarig said: "My campaign as minority floor leader of the House against all new or additional taxes seems to have met with the approval of the great majority of the Democrats, as well as other citizens throughout the State and there was a general feeling in the committee that my knowledge and experience in matters of State government would make me the logical candidate for this fiscal office."

"I wish to assure the people of Pennsylvania that I have agreed to accept this nomination only after considerable hesitation, and not in any spirit of vanity, but with a very keen sense of responsibility."

Every thinking Pennsylvanian must realize that we are now approaching the financial cross-roads in our State government where we must either head for economy, bankruptcy or for a deluge of new and additional taxes."

SLACK—YONADA.

G. Richard Slack and Miss Hazel E. Vonada, both of Gregg township, were united in marriage on Saturday evening by C. W. Slack, J. P., grandfather of the groom, at the home of the Justice in Centre Hall. Mr. Slack is the son of the late George B. Slack and the bride a daughter of Sumner Vonada, of Gregg township.

Family Party on Birthday, Monday.

The children and grandchildren of Mrs. R. I. Smith and a few others, gathered at the home of Mrs. R. I. Smith, in Centre Hall, Monday evening, and fittingly celebrated her 54th birthday. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baylett and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Barner, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Zell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Lansberry and family, Centre Hall.

ONE-DAY SALE.

Hosterman & Stover Co., Millheim, are conducting a series of special one-day sales on Saturday of each week. The item offered for Saturday, January 30th, will be a limited number of 20-inch Galvanized Tubs, famous "Cannon Ball" quality, 20x17x11 in. On Saturday only, at 39c each. Telephone orders will be accepted.

ATTENDED FARM SHOW.

The Farm Show at Harrisburg was attended by a large number of persons from this section, the names of part of whom were given the writer, as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClenahan, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brooks, Frank Decker, Clarence Decker, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Durst, Robert and James Gehart, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Smith, Miss Louise Smith, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Kryder, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Homan, Mildred Homan, Mrs. H. G. Strohneler, Mrs. W. F. H. Durst, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reish, Alfred and Russell Reish, W. L. Jacobs, Miss Margaret Jacobs, Howard Durst, Bruce Knarr, John E. Rishel, John Riter, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bitner, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, Wm. Kerlin, Jr., Mary Weber, Mrs. Cooke, Ralph Luse, Ralph Homan, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Zettle, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Colyer, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bohn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bohn, Wallace Bohn, George Stover, Jared Evey, Mr. and Mrs. George Ralston, Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks, Miss Lila Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Ralston, George Vogt, Edward Vogt, Carl Crockett, J. H. Knarr, E. M. Smith, Ray Mar, David Noll, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Campbell, William Campbell, Miss Jane Campbell, Robert Campbell, Jr., Donald Coldron, Wilbur McClellan.

SPRING MILLS LUMBERMEN BUY TIMBERLANDS

T. J. Decker & Son, the well known lumbermen at Spring Mills, purchased three tracts of timber that will keep their mills in operation for two years. One tract of twenty-five acres was purchased from F. M. Fisher, of Centre Hall. The tract is located east of Spring Mills and is a part of the Gen. Buchanan farm, also well known as the Auchenortie farm. The timber is almost exclusively white pine and hemlock, much of it being virgin timber. Mr. Fisher parted with the timber land very reluctantly, and it was only because last year's drought greatly affected the large trees that a sale was made at this time.

John G. Dauberman also sold the Decker's a portion of a timber tract on the Dauberman farm, along Sinking Creek, east of Centre Hall. This timber is mostly of the hard variety. The third tract is a part of the timber land on the Lucas farm, close to the Dauberman farm, containing about eight acres, also sold through Mr. Dauberman, agent. The timber is also variety of hard wood.

The three sales included only the timber, the land having been reserved.

IMPORTANT GRANGE MEETING AND DEDICATION OF HALL

Everything is in readiness for the Pomona Grange meeting at Pleasant Gap, Saturday, January 30th.

The installation and dedicatory services will play an important part in the day's program. Among the speakers of the day will be the Hon. Banks Kurtz, Congressman, of Hollidaysburg; Rev. Marshall Piper, of Milesburg, and Senior Past Master C. W. Hill, of Huntingdon.

The lecture hour sponsored by talent from the various Granges of the county will add much to the day's entertainment.

CENTRE HALL SHOULD HAVE AN EASTER CANTATA

Therefore, a meeting of the music lovers of town will be held in the High school building Friday, January 29, at 8:00 P. M.

It will be possible to obtain Mrs. Alberta Krader as director. The ten rehearsals will cost the very reasonable sum of $1.00.

All those who took part in the Community Cantata which was held in the Lutheran church several years ago, all singers of the several churches of town and any others who sing are invited to join the chorus.

KEYSTONE SOUR SOILS HUNGRY FOR MORE LIME

Pennsylvania farmers are applying only 50 per cent of the lime that they could profitably use, Nicholas Schmitz agronomy extension specialist at the Pennsylvania State College, says in commenting on the results of soil test made in 1931.

Nearly 6000 farmers representing every section of the State had lime requirement tests made of their soils and more than 3000 asked for specific assistance in the use of fertilizers. These tests showed that practically every section of the State required lime to grow legume crops.

According to Schmitz, lime is one of the essential factors in soil fertility and legume growing programs. "Profitable crop production, considered over a term of years depends largely upon soil fertility," he emphasizes.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

J. W. Raymond, south of town, on Friday went to Tyrone to visit friends.

Appointments announced at Harrisburg include Lena M. Pettinghill, of Bellefonte, as clerk in the department of justice at a salary of $1200.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Puff and children, of Jersey City, N. J., were over-Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fetterolf, east of town.

A second son, the fourth child, was born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, east of Centre Hall. Although his name is under debate, Wedon may designate him during his life.

Miss Ella Bottorf, of Lemont, was a recent guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs, and from here went to Danville to visit her cousin, Charles Fisher, a prominent business man in that city.

Two young men representing themselves as Penn State students and making magazine sales, are not connected with that institution. The impostors have been working in the Williamsport section.

Lawrence E. Runke, of Lewistown, drove to Centre Hall, his former home town, on Monday. Mr. Runke has been engaged in the carpenter trade quite steadily in spite of the slump in the building trade.

J. Linn Harris, of Lock Haven, was appointed a trustee of the Western State Penitentiary to succeed Rev. John W. Llandy, Pittsburgh, who resigned to become superintendent of Rockview Penitentiary.

Mrs. C. J. Shaeffer and Mrs. Lizzie Whorley, of Altoona, came to town on Friday. The former became a guest of her brother, Lanson Burris, and family, and the latter also a guest of a brother, Samuel Shoop, and family.

Mrs. Edward Bohn, of Altoona, has been a guest of the George Sharr farm home, east of town. Mrs. Bohn is a friend of Miss Bertha Sharr, their acquaintance having been formed when the latter was a student in an Altoona commercial school.

The first hatch of baby chicks came off the incubators in the Kerlin hatchery on Tuesday. This is a bit earlier than the customary beginning of the hatching season, due no doubt to the continuous demand for early birds, which, you know, are credited with catching the "worm."

Congressman J. Mitchell Chase of Clearfield county, has announced himself a candidate for congress from the Twenty-third District, composed of the counties of Centre, Clearfield and Blair. He will likely be opposed by Congressman J. Banks Kurtz, of Blair county, who is now representing a district of which Blair was a part.

A violet in full bloom was discovered in her yard last week by Mrs. Fred Bender. It was transplanted in a pot and presented to Mrs. F. P. Geary, who has been ill for some time. The blooming of a violet at this season of the year in this section is a fact well worth remembering to relate to your grandchildren as an unusual incident "when I was young."

The solicitor for Clinton county is laying in complaint about the custom of justices in that county placing the costs on the county in bad check collections. When the checks are paid, it is the custom of the justices to mark the transcripts "discharged for lack of evidence." The solicitor claims that in such cases the costs should be added and paid by the offender.

Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Daniel Daup, Sr., Daniel Daup, Jr., and R. M. Smith, on Sunday attended the funeral of Mrs. Cummings, widow of Charles Cummings, in Lock Haven. The deceased was a sister of M. N. Miller, and for many years lived at Spring Mills. An account of the death appears in this issue of the Reporter.

A yearling registered Holstein bull was recently sold by Robert Meeker to a Lancaster county farmer to head a herd of Holsteins on his farm. The animal is the son of a dam who made a record for milk and cream production in the cow testing association whose field of operation covers this section. Mr. Meeker is a successful dairyman and farmer, and is giving attention only to registered cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cupples, of Lewistown, were visitors in Centre Hall on Thursday, and renewed old friendships brought about when they were residents here three years ago, and during which time Mr. Cupples was engaged in the mercantile business at the railroad station. Since returning to Lewistown he has been engaged in the garage business and now is giving all of his time to the sale of Chevrolet cars and trucks.

Ralph L. Musser, oil and gas dealer at Mill Hall, spent the early part of the week at Rock Springs looking after business matters and visiting some friends. He has recently purchased the W. E. McWilliams property in that place, and after making some changes, adding lights and water, expects to remove there in the early spring. He will, however, continue the sale of oil and gas at Mill Hall as heretofore.
