

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hem's spent a week in Johnstown.

Miss Grace White, of Beaver Springs, spent the week-end in Centre Hall.

George L. Horner, of Pleasant Gap, has been dangerously ill for the past week or more.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick attended the Millfin county Ministerium at Lewis-town, Monday morning.

Quarantine notices posted on homes in Centre Hall include eight for measles, one each for scarlet fever, chicken pox and mumps.

Harold Bradford is assisting in the local post office, exercising his privilege as the first in the civil service waiting list at this office.

Miss Nellie Smith, R. N., of Steubenville, Ohio, was a guest at the home of her father, J. Frank Smith, in Bellefonte, over the week-end.

Mrs. Annie Gilbert, daughter Margaret Meeter, and Stan Geary, of Lewis-town, spent Sunday at the H. C. McClenahan home, the former being Mrs. McClenahan's mother.

Petitions are being circulated in the interest of Senator H. B. Scott to become by election a member of the State Republican Committee. He has been a member of that committee since 1914.

Mrs. C. E. Bradford was in Huntingdon for a few days to assist in nursing her grandson, Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bauer. The little fellow has difficulty in recovering from the effects of measles and whooping cough.

The borough auditors some time ago audited the accounts of the various borough officers, and council authorized the publishing of the report in this paper, but for some reason the secretary has not presented the "copy" to the printer.

The Eastern Star gave a card party to members and invited guests on Thursday evening in the Woodmen hall, Millheim. Over one hundred paid admission. Refreshments were served. A number of the members and guests from this section attended the affair.

James Markle, of Lewis-town, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Alexander for a few days recently. He is a son of John Markle and lived with the Markle family in the tenement house, now obliterated, on the Alexander farm, prior to 1906. He at present is one of the great army of unemployed.

Sherman Lutz, of State College, flying an orange-colored biplane, landed in one of the Arney fields along Hoffer street, in town, Saturday morning, because his fuel tank was approaching emptiness. Supplied with the all-important gas, he headed into a north-west wind and was off toward State College.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Arney, of Millfinburg, in the Geisinger hospital, Danville, on Friday. The little girl has a brother two years old. Another welcome bit of news received by him came from the P. R. R. Co., naming him one of three permanent supply clerks appointed recently.

Word was received by Alfred P. Krape, that his brother, James Krape, was seriously ill in a Seattle (Washington) hospital, suffering from a paralytic stroke. Little detail was given, but the fact that Mr. Krape is eighty-four years of age, indicates a serious condition following a stroke. Later Mr. Krape died; obituary notice under "Death" head.

Dr. Mary Wolfe, head of the Lauriston State Village, gave an address in Union county before members of the Republican Council of Women. The Lewisburg papers failed to note the subject of her address, which leads one to surmise that it was not descriptive of the skill with which inmates of the institution were able to handle a manure fork and wheelbarrow in the modern cow stable.

J. Banks Kurtz, present congressman from an adjoining congressional district, is having petitions circulated among Republicans to have his name on the Republican primary ballot to be voted in April, for the office of congressman in the Centre-Clearfield-Blair district. He is opposing J. Mitchell Chase, of Clearfield, who is the present congressman from the old district of which Centre county is a part.

SKIDMORE MAY BE OFFICER IN THE CHINESE ARMY

Detectives say they believe George Skidmore, former Bellefonte Academy athlete wanted on a murder charge, is an officer in the Chinese army stationed at Shanghai.

Detectives said they have requested Secretary of State Stimson and the Chinese ambassador in Washington to aid in locating the youth.

Skidmore, an expert rifleman, is wanted for the killing in 1920 of Charles Hammon, gasoline station attendant at Pittsburgh. He engaged officers in a gun battle on Rattlesnake mountain in Centre county more than a year ago. Four men were wounded. He escaped despite vigorous vigilance of central and eastern Pennsylvania police in seeking him.

Detectives declined to reveal the source of their information concerning the youth's whereabouts.

Three Granted Licenses.

Three persons received permits to drive a motor vehicle, the test being given by the Bellefonte detail of motor patrolmen, Wednesday of last week. The new drivers are: Frank C. Whitmore, Jr. State College; Robert R. Standley, Bellefonte; Fred J. Burke, Bellefonte. Two applicants failed.

MRS. MARGUERITE SMITH IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Marguerite Smith, of State College, on her return home from having given instruction in music in one or more of the Potter township public schools, Tuesday noon, skidded from the concrete road in the northern section of town and struck an electric light pole and later a cherry tree to the front of the R. M. Smith property occupied by Oliver Strunk. When taken from the car she was in a semi-conscious condition, but revived almost instantly. She was taken to the home of R. M. Smith nearby. The car was pretty badly damaged. The front end hit the tree, while the rear side smashed against the pole. A large section of bark from the tree was wedged between the tire and wheel rim without deflating the tire. Mrs. Smith was traveling up the mountain and had made several girations with the car before striking the objects that put her car out of commission.

Mercury Down to 10.

Sunday night mercury dropped to ten degrees above zero, making a change of temperature of about fifty degrees in a period of 48 hours.

Tuesday morning the ground was covered with less than a half-inch of snow, making the roads treacherous for auto driving.

A RESTING PLACE FOR DEAD HEROES AT BOALSBURG

Surveyors Now at Work on Site Offered By Col. Theodore D. Boal for Cemetery for Every Pennsylvania Soldier, Sailor and Marine.

An idea which had its small beginnings behind the battle torn front of France came another step closer its final completion recently when State surveyors began going over the site for the Pennsylvania National Guard shrine at Boalsburg.

Almost fourteen years ago the Officers' club of the gallant Twenty-eighth Division stationed in France decided to establish a permanent shrine to the members of the organization somewhere back in the home State of Pennsylvania from whose farms and cities the 28th drew its members. Col. Theodore D. Boal, who at that time was an aide to the Division's commander, offered the site of the present shrine to the club for fifty years at the rate of one dollar a year rental.

It was accepted and solely by the voluntary contributions on the part of the Officers' club and friends, and largely through the efforts of Colonel Boal himself, a shrine was built in the shady bank of a small stream near the barracks. Made of sturdy native stone, it was a fitting tribute to those officers of the 28th who fell in battle or who have gone "West" since that time.

After the first few years, sentiment began to grow over the entire State for a Pennsylvania cemetery, which would be to Pennsylvania what Arlington cemetery is to the nation. This sentiment grew with the years. Many of the 28th's officers were interested in the shrine at Boalsburg. The suggestion that the Officers' Shrine there be enlarged into a National Guard cemetery for every Pennsylvania soldier, sailor and Marine was received favorably. Sentiment culminated last year when the State legislature voted to purchase the land from Colonel Boal. Now in the hands of the State, plans are going forward for a cemetery which is to become a State memorial to those who served in the World war.

Someday, the finest model armory in the State will rise above the trees there and a memorial chapel will bid entrance to Pennsylvania's resting place for its hero dead.

CHORAL SOCIETY ORGANIZED.

A Choral Society is being organized in Centre Hall. The officers are: president, Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick; vice-president Mrs. F. M. Fisher; secretary, Curtis B. Reiber; treasurer, Mrs. L. E. Ellis.

It is desired that all the singers of the town join. The expenses will be small. The meetings will be held in the High school building from 8 to 9:30, every Friday evening for ten weeks, beginning Friday night. Mrs. Alberta Krider is director.

Attention, Grangers.

The lecturer of Progress Grange has arranged for a very interesting "Dairy Program" to be given February 6, at the regular Grange meeting. All patrons are urged to be present and add to this most important discussion. Curtis B. Reiber, Master.

Irish Army Slang

The Irish Free State army has its peculiar slang. A few illustrations will serve to show the trend of their particular bent in this direction. For instance, what we call a dead beat or old trick the Irish soldier calls a scrounger. A doughboy is known as a "hot shouter". He also has his "chow" but it does not mean "G. I. rations" as in our army but refers to the "extras" he is able to procure at the canteen while his "G. I." is his "home grub". Philadelphia Evening Bulletin

Crowds

Archie people the craziest things so many gathered at Lakeland N. J. to see an airplane arrive that a great automobile traffic resulted and thousands were compelled to spend the night there. What an idle people we are becoming! Look at the great crowds that assemble every where on slight occasion! Look at the touring! And the fact staring us in the face that industry is the only way out!—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

Why Worry?

Some one remarked to Shaw, on seeing a lot of wealthy loungers hanging around a lounge hotel: "These rich people get me! What's the use of having money if you don't know how to enjoy it?"

"But why fret about it, old chap?" returned Shaw. "Are you any better off? What's the use of knowing how to enjoy money if you haven't any?" —Vancouver Province.
