

SCHOOL NEWS OF INTEREST

[The following school news items are taken from the current issue of "The Tiger," the High school paper.]

CENTRE HALL HIGH ENTERS COUNTY FORENSIC FRAY

For the third successive year, Centre Hall High school has entered the local debates as sponsored by the Pennsylvania Forensic League.

The debate this year will be on the subject, "Resolved: That the several States should enact compulsory unemployment insurance legislation." As was the case last year, Centre Hall High school will enter into competition with East Penna Valley High school.

There will be two practice debates for the purpose of selecting the speakers and alternates. There are two speakers and two alternates on each team.

Winners of this group will debate with winners of other groups on the same question, the ultimate goal of the undefeated team being the State championship.

E. C. RAMSEY SPEAKS ON "RUSSIA" AT ASSEMBLY

Mr. E. C. Ramsey, who is engaged in European and American newspaper reporting, spoke to the school Thursday, February 18. His subject was "Russia." He talked of the people, geographical background, Government, schools, universities, alphabet, money, and the Church.

Mr. Ramsey encourages Americans with the thought that while Communism has become almost a religion to Russians, yet they are gradually becoming American-minded, and attempt, though they never admit it, to ape American manners, customs and institutions.

The lecture was attended not only by the High school but also by the seventh and eighth grades.

This is the second time Mr. Ramsey has lectured to the school pupils, the first time being two years ago, when he lectured on "Holland."

Pupils Participate in Washington's Birthday Celebration During Year

The essays for the George Washington contest conducted by the local P. O. S. of A. in celebration of Washington's two-hundredth anniversary, are in the hands of the judges.

Any person who is in C. H. H. S. of the eighth grade of town or township schools, was eligible to enter the contest.

Any phase of Washington's life or a complete biography served as a subject for the essay. They contain not less than five hundred words and not more than a thousand.

The results of the preliminary contest, for the purpose of selecting the best six essays, have not yet been announced. These six will be read later at a public meeting.

The best three essays, to be selected from the six winners, will be awarded ten dollars, five dollars and two and a half dollars, respectively. All awards will be in gold.

The "George Washington Club," organized in the High school by Mr. R. S. Jamison, has as its purpose the study of Washington's life. A special program on February 22, honoring Washington, is being planned by the elementary and High schools. Centre Hall High school will again honor Washington by presenting a play or pageant of his life sometime in March, and Class Night will be partly devoted to the exhibition of various activities by students of C. H. H. S. to commemorate the birth of Washington.

Juniors Present Court Trial As First Assembly

The Juniors presented an assembly program, the trial of Burton Snyder for the murder of Rudy Valle, on Friday, February 5. The judge of the court trial was Jack Coldron; the prosecuting attorney, Hugh Morrow; the defending attorney, John Spyster; the court clerk, Muth Bailey; the court crier, Franklin Moyer; the foreward of the jury, Bruce Hartley; the court secretary, Helen Rines. The witnesses called were Isabel Jodon, who was supposed to have had a date with the defendant in the night of the murder; Isabel Bradford, Valle's landlady; Leroy Horner, Prof. Wetzel, Lynn Breon, and, of course, the defendant, Burton Snyder.

The jury had been impaneled from the student body. The defendant plead guilty and was acquitted by the jury's decision of justifiable homicide.

The trial was written by Hugh Morrow and John Spyster at the suggestion of Mr. R. S. Jamison.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS ORDER CLASS PINS AND PENDANTS

Junior class members have ordered class pins from the Union Emblem company. The twenty Juniors who placed an order were all able to choose either a plain gold ring or one containing the pine tree mounted on onyx.

With the order for rings different members of the Senior Class ordered pins and pendants, thirteen getting pins and three getting pendants.

The C. H. H. S. has a standard ring which is official for five years and then may be selected as the standard, or discarded.

The seal on the ring consists of a pine tree with two Indian hatchets crossed at the trunk of the tree. This symbolizes Indian lore of Penna Valley.

DR. BEASHORE SPEAKS.

The High school students had the privilege of hearing Dr. Beashore on February 11th during the Assembly period.

During the first part of his talk Dr. Beashore kept his audience in high spirit by telling humorous episodes from his experiences, while the last part was centered on the life of Abraham Lincoln, and the opportunities of the young people of today.

The Sewing Class, instructed by Miss Haines, has completed three projects. The first was a Christmas project, a variety cushion. Other things that have been completed are sewing on of various kinds of buttons and making button holes. Later in the year the members expect to make garments.

MANUAL ARTS CLUB ACTIVITIES.

The Manual Arts Club is doing hand-painting, decorative work, and working with crayon, this year. Almost all weaving with reed has been omitted so far. Leather craft is thought to be a possibility if enough students are interested. Those who care to may take up hand-lettering.

NEW BOOKS.

For the past three years the High school won ten dollars for the school exhibit at the Orange Fair. This money goes toward buying new books for the High School Library.

Each month two new Junior Literary Guild books are added.

evening of last week. The ceremony was witnessed by Miss Maud Hubler, Irvin Graham and Daniel Mothersbaugh. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the groom's parents. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. Wink, daughter Barbara, Miss Hubler and the immediate families of the bride and groom. March 1st, Mr. and Mrs. Mothersbaugh will engage in farming on the Hubler farm, west of town.

The Junior Workers held a tennis social at the home of Dorothy and Margaret McClenahan one evening last week. After the meeting proper, there was conducted a program on George Washington.
