POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Representative in Congress.

We are authorized to announce the name of FLOYD G. HOENSTINE, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., for Congressman to represent the 23rd District, composed of Blair, Centre and Clearfield counties subject to the rules governing the Republican party, at the Primary, April 26, 1932.

INCREASED CHARGES BY ASSESSORS INVESTIGATED

In an effort to determine whether an increase of about $6,000 over the amount paid assessors by the county last year was caused by overcharges, seventeen assessors from various sections were summoned by the county auditors and the county commissioners to a hearing in the court house one morning last week. Only seven of those summoned found it possible to be present. They were from Bellefonte, Howard township, State College Benner township, and Phillipsburg.
Tuesday's action was taken by the auditors and the commissioners after the former in going over the accounts found that overcharges of approximately $4,000 more than the last triennial assessment and about $6,000 in excess of last year's assessment charges had been made. The commissioners are planning a meeting at which time all of the assessors of the county will be called and will be formally advised as to procedure they are to follow hereafter in charging for their services. The board of auditors declared that from now on all excess amounts turned in by assessors will be surcharged and turned over to the board of commissioners for collection.

TRAIN ROARS OVER BOY AS HE LIES BETWEEN TRACKS

Presence of mind of a 10-year-old boy, his foot caught in a Pennsylvania Railroad track at Glen Iron, Union county, saved him from a horrible death Thursday evening.

Held a hopeless prisoner while a fast freight train bore down upon him, Walter Zechman struggled to free himself and when he realized that this action was impossible, threw himself into a prone position while the train thundered over him. None of the rigging of the train touched the boy and when he was freed from the track he was found to have escaped without a scratch.

The above appeared in the city dailies, but definite inquiry revealed that the substance of the article is untrue.
Levi Hartley, the track foreman here, was informed by Mr. Shure, the conductor on the freight train that is supposed to have passed over the lad, that the boy simply sat by the side of the track with his feet closest to the rails, and that he was in no danger whatever.

DEATHS.

ROWE.—An illness that began only Saturday terminated in the death of Samuel John Rowe, on Wednesday morning, 5:00 o'clock, at his home in town. At 9:00 a. m. on Tuesday morning he was stricken with paralysis, affecting his entire left side; at noon he became unconscious, in which condition he remained until death.

Funeral services will be held on Friday; services at the home at 2:30 o'clock, with interment in the local cemetery, Rev. D. R. Keener, of the Reformed church, to officiate.

The deceased was a son of John Rowe, and was born at Howard, March 23, 1858, making his age within a few days of 74 years. He began life as a tanner, and during the latter eighties came to Centre Hall where he conducted the tannery located where the J. M. and M. E. Coldron residences now stand. Later he engaged with the McCulley Manufacturing company, installing large stone crushers, and it was while engaged in this line of work in New York State that his right leg was crushed, necessitating amputation above the knee. After this misfortune he took up plumbing, engaging in it and the sale of pumps, etc. He was the assessor in the borough for many years. He was long a member of the Reformed church; also, of the local
I. O. O. F.

He is survived by a wife, who before marriage was Miss Catharine Harriet Stump, and these children:
Bruce D. Rowe, of Newark, N. J.; John L., Atlantic City, N. J.; Isabel, wife of J. W. Bradford; Miss Verna, and Ethel, wife of J. S. Booser, all of town. A full brother, George W. Rowe, of Boalsburg, and a half brother, Daniel Eyere Rowe, also survive him.

ZERBE.—Francis F. Zerbe, aged 80 years, a native of Coburn, died at the home of his son, Newton Zerbe, in Mill Hall, on Sunday night at 11:15 o'clock.
He had been an invalid for fifteen years, but his condition did not become serious until four days prior to his death. His son is the only survivor.

He was a member of the Evangelical church at Spring Mills, where he formerly resided.

WAY.—Mrs. Thomas B. Way, of Stormstown, passed away Sunday evening. Besides her husband she leaves the following children: Emily, Kenneth, Boyd, Martha, Pearl and Donald, all at home; Stanley, Phillipsburg; and Arline Wren, of Virginia.
Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at Stormstown on Tuesday afternoon; interment in the Friends cemetery in Half Moon Valley.

EBERHART.—Miss Mary Weaver Eberhart died at her home in Bellefonte, Sunday evening, following a lingering illness with cancer. She was born in Jacksonville, a daughter of Daniel Webster and Elizabeth Witmer Eberhart.

Surviving are three sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Ella Williams, of Columbus, O.; Mrs. Harry Badger, Mrs.
Joseph Abt, Harry and George Eberhart, of Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held in St.
John's Lutheran church Wednesday afternoon, and interment made in the Union cemetery.

MORAN.—Perry C. Moran of Bellefonte, died at the Centre County hospital Thursday, following a brief illness with apoplexy. He was a son of John and Susan Moran and was born in Unionville 63 years ago. He was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Vina Peters. Following her death he married Miss Martha Rothrock who survives; three sons and a daughter to the first union also survive: Ralph, George and Edwin Moran, and Mrs. Homer Hall, all of Altoona.

Burial was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery, Unionville.

MALLORY.—Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Fry Mallory, wife of Thomas Mallory, of Altoona, passed away Sunday a week ago, following a two weeks' illness with pneumonia.

Mrs. Mallory was the second daughter of the late Captain William H. and Sarah S. Fry, of Pine Grove Mills, and was born and reared on the Fry homestead now occupied by her brother, Fred. She was a lifelong member of the Presbyterian church of Pine Grove Mills. Her thirty years of married life were spent in Altoona. She is survived by her husband and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs.
Mary Dale, of State College; Mrs. John Kimpfort, of Boalsburg; Mrs. Laura Goss, C. M. Fry, Altoona; Dr. Hugh Fry, Nashville, Tenn.; C. Mac and Fred, of Pine Grove Mills, and William H., of Tacoma, Wash. Her death is deeply mourned by all who knew her.

Funeral services were held at the Tobias Funeral Parlor, Altoona, with interment in Alto-Rest Park.

ZELLERS.—Mrs. Estella Zellers, wife of Oscar Zellers, died at her home three miles northeast of Loganton, from heart trouble. She was 92 years old and is survived by her husband and her mother, Mrs. Della Ebner, of Milton. Funeral services were held from the L. D. Morris funeral home by Rev. Ralph H. Casner, of the Lutheran church, and the body taken to Milton for interment. Rev. L. A. Fuhr-man, of the Evangelical church, officiated at the interment.

MUSSER.—Sara Larue, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E.
Musser, at Mill Hall, died on Thursday afternoon after an illness of less than twelve hours of diphtheria. It was the first case in that immediate community. During the brief illness two physicians administered, but to no avail. She was aged 4 years, 2 months and 29 days.

The child is survived by its parents, and two sisters, Anna Jane, 15, and Isabel, 2. Interment was made the following (Friday) afternoon at Graysville in the family plot, Rev. Dr. Blumm of the Presbyterian church, officiating.
F. V. Goodhart, an uncle of the child, was the undertaker in charge.

VONADA.—Mrs. Sarah J. Vonada, the daughter of Benjamin and Margaret (Hoy) Roush, was born in Gregg township, September 3, 1852, and died at Madisonburg at the age of 79 years, 6 months and 5 days.

On Sept. 10, 1875, she was married to Adam H. Vonada. To this union were born the following: Mrs. Harry Miller, of Madisonburg; Mrs. Frank Swartz, of Clyde, Ohio; Mrs. Jesse Day, of Madisonburg; and Miss Mabel, at home. These, with 11 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren, also one brother, Rev. J. L. Roush, of Esterly, Berks county, and a sister Mrs. J. A.
Dietrich, mourn the loss of one who in a quiet, modest way was a good type of wife and mother.

She was a member of the Reformed church, and her pastor, Rev. A. J. Miller, officiated at the burial service on Friday. Interment was made at Madisonburg.

The public sale advertised by Mrs.
Beattie Comly, east of Linden Hall, for March 9th, was postponed to be held March 24, as found in the Reporter sale register. Buyers will find a lot of good stock at the Comly barn, and an unusual lot of choice shoats. These expressions are repetitions of comments made by parties who have looked the stock over.

A favorite tale being told now gives the height of snow drifts on roads.
Harry R. Wolfe, east of town, has a "bank" all his own close to the barn that is said to be the largest "private" drift in that section.

SCHOOL BUDGET SUGGESTIONS
BY STATE SCHOOL OFFICIAL

Suggestions to guide public school officials in preparing next year's budget have been sent to some 5,000 school officials by Dr. James N. Rule, state superintendent of public instruction.

His suggestions include:

Reduce excessive fees to school tax collectors and eliminate fees to school board treasurers.

Rigid economy in use of light, fuel, power, supplies and janitor services.

Reduce cost of projected new buildings and equipment by obtaining information regarding economical types of buildings, etc.

Reduce the cost of debt service by issuing serial bonds.

Reduce high costs by combining small classes, by omitting elective subjects chosen by small groups, by overlapping shifts, and in general by increasing the pupil-teacher ratio.

*Obtain lower contract prices for transportation of pupils.

He warned that "hasty and ill-considered reductions in school budgets may do harm to the education of children which can never be overcome."

Ice, during the past ten days, was harvested from Sinking and Penns creeks, and from dams on the south side of the valley. The ponds along Nittany Mountain yielded but thin cakes.
