SMITHS GIVE FACTS THAT MEN WANT NOW

STRAIGHT FROM THE SHOULDER TALK ON NEW CLOTHES AND THE "WHY" OF LOW PRICES.

Generous stocks which cover every man's clothing needs—attractive arrangement of display—consistently low prices—

All these things have contributed to the success of Smith Brothers, at the corner of Market and Dorcas streets, Lewistown—but probably the most important factor in their growing and continued patronage is the "100% Smith Brothers Guarantee," which covers every purchase made at their store.

In offering their Easter Suits for men now at $18.75, the Smiths say, "We feel confident that a quality of materials and superiority of workmanship will meet every test of comparison. We compared them first! It is a fact straight from the shoulder that we can dress men better now for half the outlay they are accustomed to paying."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. F. M. Fisher entertained the local W. C. T. U. at the time of their last meeting.

The Miller Motor company, in an advertisement in this issue, invites you to have your car inspected at their garage.

Ralph Tressler will farm both the McCool and Walter Hosterman farms, but will continue living on the McCool farm.

Miss Anna Sweeney, after a three weeks' stay with her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs returned to her home in Boalsburg.

Ice, to a thickness of between four and five inches, has frozen on the Flink pond, but not thick enough to cut and store.

Many brands of so-called quick-drying enamels on the market, but there is only one Genuine Hilo, 4-hour hard-drying enamel. Sold by H. P. Schaeffer's Hardware, Bellefonte.

Calvin Lingle, now living on the Brockerhoff farm, will move onto the Meeker farm, near Potters Mills. Clyde Stamm, now farming in Brush valley, will follow Lingle on the Brockerhoff farm.

Mrs. Ernest Frank and Mrs. Paul Fetterolf, on the evening of St. Patrick's Day, at the home of the former, will entertain the Senior Service Class of the Lutheran Sunday-school. A program featuring the holiday is being prepared.

Mrs. (Rev.) D. J. Wolfe, at Homestead, has been ill for two weeks or more, and this led Mrs. Wm. F. Keller, a sister, to go to her bedside to aid in taking care of her. Mrs. Keller went to the Pittsburgh region by train on Saturday with the intention of remaining for at least two weeks.

Bruce Smith, son of Robert I. Smith, who contracted a light case of diphtheria, has fully recovered. The regulation quarantine was lifted beginning of this week, permitting several children in the Smith family to again attend school. There are no other cases of the disease in the borough or community.

A local bridge club had planned to banquet at a Bellefonte hotel, one evening last week, but were unable to reach the county seat owing to road conditions. The situation was taken care of by Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, a member of the club, who invited her club associates to become guests at the Bartholomew home. The invitation was accepted, of course.

Paul Ripka, in company with a young man and two young ladies, experienced an auto head-on collision while driving in the Pittsburgh district recently. The former sustained a broken shoulder when the car overturned and was the most seriously injured of the group, but has now almost fully recovered. Like many, many others, Mr. Ripka was laid off from a position he had held for a number of years, but fortunately he is being taken care of and given part-time work by H. P. Burkholder, manager of the twin boroughs of Edgeworth and Osborne, near Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Margaret Strohm opened her home here a few days ago, after having spent the winter with her daughters and son.

Miss Grace Wiebe of Beaver Springs, has been called to her home in Three Springs on account of the serious illness of her father, Frank Wiebe.

The condition of Mrs. P. H. Luse has been showing steady improvement, and on Monday she was able to sit up for the greater part of an hour. This is gratifying news to her many friends.

E. M. Smith, the auctioneer, who for a few years has lived in the property purchased by Dr. White, contemplates locating in State College, where he and his brother, Hugh Smith, are engaged in the sale of automobiles.

The Kerlin's Grand View Poultry Farm of this place, is preparing a shipment of leghorn fowls for a customer in Tjilatjap, Java. Kerlin leghorns are now located in twenty-six foreign countries as well as Canada and every state in the Union.

Miss Margaret Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bradford, of town, registered in the school for nurses in the Centre County hospital, and entered as a student beginning of this month. She is a graduate of the Centre Hall High school, class of '31.

William A. Magee, Jr., second son of Mrs. Leila Huyett Magee, of Wrenonah, New Jersey, has been seriously ill with pneumonia. With the care of a mother and a trained nurse, his condition is of late improving. The youth is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett, of town.

James Frohm is remodeling his dwelling house, east of town, and is making it suitable to accommodate two families. The carpenter work is being done by Clyde Dutrow and W. B. Fiedler, while Frank Smith and Harold Durst are taking care of the electric wiring.

Charles Cowher has opened a watch and clock repair shop on Allison street, near the R. R. station, in town, and this week had a Bell telephone installed. Mr. Cowher is a young man with five years experience in his business. He hopes, with the growth of his business later to locate somewhere uptown.

There were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bohn, Leont, the following: Robert Stock, of State College; Fred and Vert Bohn, Boalsburg; Mrs. Pauj Huprich, of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Hoy Neff, of Boalsburg; and Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Centre Hall. The guests agree that Mr. Bohn knows how to provide and that his wife knows how to prepare foodstuffs.

A message by telephone received by the children of Prof. L. O. Packer, on Saturday evening, stated that their father had been ill for a week from flu, but that his condition was better. Tuesday morning a letter was received from him in which he stated he was recovering rapidly, but intimated having been rather seriously ill for a week. The telephone message, on Saturday, was sent by a brother, also living in Pittsburgh. Prof. Packer is a teacher in one of the Pittsburgh High schools.

SCHOOL NEWS OF INTEREST

GREGG TWP. VOCATIONAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Senior Class Play, April 1—
The senior class of G. T. V. S. will present the annual senior class play on Friday, April 1, in the Spring Mills Grange hall. The play, "East of the Morning Star," is a three-act comedy drama presenting a deep mystery throughout the play. Interesting and humorous characters are developed during the progress of the play. The G. T. V. S. orchestra will furnish entertainment between acts. Several special features are being arranged. The class is sure that all will find the play unusually interesting. The type play is new and presents mysterious and entertaining situations that hold the attention until the final curtain. All are invited to attend. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the school.

Bellwood High and Bellefonte Girls Play G. T. V. S., March 18—

The strong Bellwood High basketball team will play the G. T. V. S. boys at Spring Mills on Friday, March 18. At Bellefonte the local boys were badly defeated several weeks ago. The game will bring one of the best teams that the Gregg boys have played this year to Spring Mills. They are hopeful of giving the Bellwood team a close game.

SPORTSMEN PLAN DINNER, MARCH 24

Will Form County Organization at State College—Commissioner of Fisheries to Speak.

In an effort to organize Centre county sportsmen into one compact organization, sportsmen from all parts of the county will gather at a Sportsmen's dinner at the Nittany Lion Inn, State College, Thursday, March 24.

The State College Conservation Association is sponsoring the dinner believing that a permanent all-county organization will aid in furthering hunting and fishing interests. Many Pennsylvania counties have such organizations and have been able to improve conditions a great deal in their territory because of them. Game and fish are secured from the State and national governments by these organizations and in some cases hatcheries and rearing pools are maintained.

The committee in charge of the dinner has secured O. H. Debler, State Commissioner of Fisheries, as the principal speaker of the evening. Mr. Debler is an authority on that sport and will bring an interesting message to Centre county sportsmen.

It is hoped that a permanent organization will be effected at this meeting with officers being elected.

Tickets may be secured in State College at Sauer's Store and Kline's Shoe Shop; Bellefonte, Heverly's store, Miller's store, and from the county treasurer; Philipsburg, R. P. Dunsmore; Millheim, Robert Stover and S. Ward Gramley; Spring Mills, A. H. Hartwick; Centre Hall, H. L. Doughty; Leont, Guy Williams and George Bohn;

The Bellefonte Hi-Y Girls will also play on Friday, meeting the Gregg girls at 7:30 P. M. The Bellefonte girls have one of their strongest teams in recent years and will battle the G. T. V. S. girls hard for a victory. The Gregg girls have not been defeated this year, thus compiling one of the best records of the various G. T. V. S. girls' teams. These games will bring to a close the basketball games for the present season, with the exception of the games with the A'ummi teams that may be scheduled during the following week. The teams appreciate the support they have received during the current season.

Commencement Activities—

Rev. Deas R. Keener has accepted an invitation to preach the Baccalaureate sermon to the class of 1932 in the Methodist church at Spring Mills on Sunday, May 22, 1932.

Dr. James P. Whyte of Bucknell University, will deliver the commencement address to the G. T. V. S. graduating class in the Methodist church at Spring Mills on Wednesday, May 25.

The class of '32 plans to give their class night program in the Spring Mills Grange Hall on Tuesday, May 24.

These three activities comprise the chief events of the Commencement period. Everyone, particularly those in the local community, are invited to attend these activities.
