

Centre Co. Baseball League Adopts Schedule

The Centre County Baseball League, on Monday evening, at a meeting of managers adopted a schedule of games for the coming season entirely different from the tentative one prepared some time ago.

Rebersburg; Millheim at Howard. May 28—Centre Hall at Coburn; Bellefonte at Rebersburg; Lamar at Howard; Millheim at Pleasant Gap.

CAUGHT RIFLING CASH REGISTER, AT MADISONBURG

P. B. Everett, of Madisonburg, was awakened Thursday night by the sound of breaking glass. Upon going to his store, in Madisonburg, which adjoins the house, he found someone about to rob the register.

SERVE SUBPOENAS ON LOCK HAVEN RESIDENTS

United States Deputy Marshall McCool, of Steelton, was in Lock Haven Friday and served subpoenas on at least 15 persons who were instructed to appear at Scranton Monday for the U. S. court there, when the indictment case against Martin J. Peters, Wm. T. Devling and George Webb, of the Lock Haven police department and Detective David L. Probst, of Lock Haven, was scheduled to come to trial.

G. O. BENNER RE-ENTERS MERCANTILE BUSINESS

G. O. Benner, who for many years successfully conducted the "Star Store" at the Centre Hall railroad station, and who six years ago laid aside his business cares, is again getting into business harness, and will be found at the "old stand" with a line of staple groceries, notions, fruits, cigars, confectionery; also, a complete line of hardware.

Ten at Bellefonte Pass Drivers Test

Ten persons took the test for motor operator's cards Wednesday of last week and were successful in passing the examinations. Those who received their permits this week were William Rossman, Bellefonte; Leon Parker, of State College; J. B. McKinley, Bellefonte; R. D. 2; Ralph Lee, Pleasant Gap; W. A. Jackson, State College R. D. No. 1; W. M. Smith, Snow Shoe; F. G. Koel, State College; N. F. Jordan, Bellefonte R. D. 2; F. C. McKinley, Bellefonte.

CAN NATIONAL BANKS BE ASSUMED COURT TO ANSWER

The first suit to test the government's right to levy an assessment on stockholders of defunct banks was started in the Scranton federal court when L. P. Noble, receiver for the Mahaffey National bank of Mahaffey, Pa., instituted suit against Harry M. Phegler, of Williamsport, to recover $1,000. Attorney Mortimer C. Rhone, of Williamsport, filed the papers.

COLLINS ON PINCHOT POSTAL CARD ECONOMY

John R. Collins, chairman of the Democratic state committee, described Governor Pinchot's plan to substitute post cards for letters in state correspondence as a "belated fulfillment" of a pre-election promise.

CLIMATOLOGICAL DATA FOR THE YEAR 1931

The U. S. Department of Agriculture, Weather Bureau, issued its annual climatological data compiled from fifty-three stations such as has been conducted at Centre Hall for more than thirty years. The report indicates the highest mean temperature at Centre Hall to have been 49.7 degrees; the highest temperature was 100 degrees, on July 1st, and the lowest 0, on February 11.

GOOD FOR ANDY ROCKEY; PUBLIC SALE A GOOD ONE

Everyone who knows Andy Rockey will be glad to learn that the public sale of farm stock, implements, etc., held by him on Monday was a good one. There were no fabulous prices paid for stock, but the prices were very good compared to other sales.

WILL ERECT BRICK BUNGALOW

Mrs. Annie Grove Harrison and Mrs. Mary Williams are about to break ground for the foundation walls of a bungalow to be erected during the early spring. The location is immediately south of the present bungalow erected by them a few years ago and now occupied by Merchant George C. Johnson. Houses in Centre Hall are in demand. More homes of the type the Groves have in mind could be readily rented.

Rebersburg Boy Scouts to Hold Entertainment

The Rebersburg Boy Scouts will give an entertainment in the town hall at Madisonburg, Saturday, March 26, at 7:30 P. M.

The program consists of a monologue, "Dot Wedding Skeremony," a Shadow Operation, and several short plays: "A Neighborly Call," "A Coon's Concert," "The Country School," and "George Washing Boy Scout." A minstrel will be given in which the part of the interlocutor will be taken by Woodrow Bierly. Some First Aid will also be dramatized.

ADJUSTED SERVICE CERTIFICATES IN CENTRE CO., $830,977.

Three million six hundred thousand adjusted service certificates are held by that number of veterans of the World War. These veterans reside in every nook and corner of America. The average value of the certificates is $1000. The certificates held in Centre County foot up to the value of $830,977.33.

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt is leading the van by a goodly margin in all primaries thus far held.

Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt is leading the van by a goodly margin in all primaries thus far held. He won easily over former Governor Smith in New Hampshire and Wisconsin last week and this week gathered in the North Dakota delegates by defeating "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, of Oklahoma, at a ratio of five to three.

SERVING THE UNFORTUNATES, THE WORK OF KIWANIS

Charles, four years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Gilmore, of Millheim, was taken to Phillipsburg, one day last week, by W. W. Kerlin, acting for a committee on crippled children appointed by the Bellefonte Kiwanis club, for correction of one of his feet. The child's foot is now in a plaster paris cast, being the second one he is wearing and later a third one will be applied, and at last with braces at first, the boy is expected finally to have a normal foot and have full use of it.

CELEBRATE 26TH ANNIVERSARY KNIGHTS GOLDEN EAGLE

The local K. G. E., No. 365, celebrated their 26th anniversary, Wednesday evening of last week. This celebration was in keeping with the 200th anniversary of George Washington, and the program was planned with this idea in mind.

OFFICERS RESERVE CORPS APPOINTMENT FOR LOCAL BOY

William D. Reiber, eldest son of Mrs. Della Reiber of Centre Hall, has received official notice from Headquarters Ninety-ninth Division United States Army, at Pittsburgh, of his appointment in the Officers' Reserve Corps. His appointment is that of 2nd Lt. MA-Res, and is effective as of March 14, 1932.

COURT O. K.'S BOND ISSUE FOR NURSES' HOME

The Centre County hospital will secure suitable and adequate housing quarters for student nurses at the institution according to the terms of a petition of the Board of Directors, approved by Judge Fleming and filed at the Prothonotary's office in the court house.

WOODROW BARTGES, SON OF MR. AND MRS. W. E. BARTGES, OF MILLHEIM, FORMERLY OF NEAR TOWN, WHO LAST FALL ENTERED ALBRIGHT COLLEGE AS A STUDENT OF THEOLOGY, WAS GRANTED A LICENSE TO PREACH AT THE CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA CONFERENCE OF THE EVANGELICAL CHURCH, HELD AT MILTON LAST WEEK.

The Bellefonte Red Cross has made a request for 600 barrels of flour from the stock of flour to be made from a part of the forty million bushels of wheat owned by the government. The flour is supposed to fill the needs of the unemployed from Beech Creek west to the Blair county line, covering Nittany, Buffalo Run and Half Moon Valleys for a period of three months. When the flour will be ready for distribution is not known.

Beginning April 1st, all Pennsylvania barbers must have on display a license. The law requiring these artists to secure a license became effective on the first of January, last, but a "moratorium" of three months was granted. Middle of March found but half the barbers in the State without a license. We may soon expect to see State cars stopping at barber shops, a two- or three-thousand-dollar salary inspector emerging from it, and then with the barber it will be a matter of having a license or paying a fine.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

HAPPENINGS OF LOCAL INTEREST FROM ALL PARTS

The Transue Singers will give their musical program in the local Methodist church on Sunday evening, April 3rd.

Don't forget the Easter play to be given by members of the Trinity Reformed Church school on Easter evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Fred L. Alexander, of Milesburg, was the only one in Centre county of twelve new members to be elected to the Penn State Symphonic band.

F. and M. College, Lancaster, received a bequest of $25,000 for a dormitory, in the will of Judge Charles I. Landis, of Lancaster.

A request is made by the undersigned that all parties having tools or plumbing fixtures belonging to the late J. S. Rowe return them to the Booser garage—J. S. Booser and J. W. Bradford, administrators.

Farmers who have a large percentage or all of their spring plowing done are having some degree of comfort when they look over the snow covered fields with borders of snow banks.

W. Harrison Walker, Esq., is a patient in the Geisinger hospital, Danville, where surgeons are trying to discover whether his lack of good physical condition is due to infected teeth.

Otto E. Bailey, well known in Centre Hall, is a patient in the General Hospital in Lancaster, suffering with pneumonia following a two weeks' illness with flu. He is a salesman for the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company, with residence in Lancaster.

For the good old reliable and dependable Garden Seeds that grow fine vegetable seed that they are W. Atlas Burpees. Sold by H. P. Schaeffer's Hardware, Bellefonte, Pa.; phone No. 14M.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lair, living in the tenement house on the Huyett farm west of town, became the parents of a daughter, on Friday, who has been named Jennie Marie and weighs eight pounds. She was born on the birthday of her only brother, John Edward.

Prof. I. O. Packer, whose illness was noted in last week's issue of the Reporter, came to his home last Wednesday evening and will remain until the Pittsburgh schools open after the Easter vacation. He is very much improved at present. He was obliged to discontinue teaching on March 4th.

Jacob Sharer, of Centre Hall, met with a peculiar accident in his home one day during the past week. In attempting to leave the bath tub he slipped and fell forward, striking his head against the water spigot. Blood flowed freely from a gash in his forehead, but it proved to be only a superficial wound.

The Edward McGinley property in Milesburg, occupied by Mrs. Ginley and son, Clyde, was destroyed by fire beginning of last week. The fire originated from a defective flue. The furniture was practically all destroyed but that of one room. The loss is practically covered by insurance.

The recent blizzard caused an expenditure of $235,000 for opening of roads by the State Highway Department. Three thousand men and 750 trucks were employed in the work. The Pinchot roads were opened up to allow access for medical assistance, and to give access to schools and cemeteries.

Woodrow Bartges, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bartges, of Millheim, formerly of near town, who last fall entered Albright college as a student of theology, was granted a license to preach at the Central Pennsylvania conference of the Evangelical church, held at Milton last week. The young man has yet four years of schooling before him, but now can accept an occasional call to preach.

The Bellefonte Red Cross has made a request for 600 barrels of flour from the stock of flour to be made from a part of the forty million bushels of wheat owned by the government. The flour is supposed to fill the needs of the unemployed from Beech Creek west to the Blair county line, covering Nittany, Buffalo Run and Half Moon Valleys for a period of three months. When the flour will be ready for distribution is not known.

Beginning April 1st, all Pennsylvania barbers must have on display a license. The law requiring these artists to secure a license became effective on the first of January, last, but a "moratorium" of three months was granted. Middle of March found but half the barbers in the State without a license. We may soon expect to see State cars stopping at barber shops, a two- or three-thousand-dollar salary inspector emerging from it, and then with the barber it will be a matter of having a license or paying a fine.

Large Choir Renders Beautiful Easter Cantata

Before a large audience in the local Methodist Episcopal church, on Sunday evening, the Centre Hall choir society, composed of a group of fifty singers from Centre Hall, Lemont and Spring Mills, rendered the delightful Easter cantata, "The Song of Triumph," under the direction of Mrs. Alberta Krader, of Bellefonte. The class had been under Mrs. Krader's direction for several weeks past.

CENTRE-CLINTON TEMPLARS MEET AT SPRING MILLS

The fifth meeting of the Centre-Clinton Past Templar Association was held Tuesday afternoon of last week, at Spring Mills, with thirty-six Past Templars present, which number was increased by the local Centre Temple, No. 169, Ladies of the Golden Eagle, to 58 in the evening session. Owing to sickness and inclement weather many officers were obliged to be absent, but all chairs were filled. Devotions were led by Mrs. Anne E. Smith, of Spring Mills.

As per action taken at the Mill Hall meeting a month ago, song books, "The Golden Book," were purchased, and initiated at Spring Mills, with Mrs. Martha Corman at the piano and numerous selections used, as "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," "How do you Do, Spring Mills, How do you Do?", "Jingle Bells," "Wearing of the Green," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," and the opening ode, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

In the course of the business hour, the worthy president, Mrs. Helen Seaton brought before the body the question of the probability of other societies joining the Association. This fact is not only complimentary but manifests a desire for closer contact and companionship among the Templars of Central Pennsylvania. This is an honorary degree and matters of vital interest were discussed.

The afternoon entertainment included a reading by Mrs. Sarvey, entitled, "The Chronic Objector," one by Mrs. Catharine Tressler, "A Stranger," and one by Mrs. George H. Sweeney, "Kentucky Bill."

The evening session, under the direction of the local Temple, was most efficiently carried out and an entertainment given by the Sophomore class of Gregg Township Vocational school, directed by Mrs. Homer Fetterolf, dramatics teacher. It was a one-act play entitled, "Crimoline and Candlelight," a bicentennial pageant, all of the fourteen participants being costumed and masked in keeping with the colonial customs.

Mrs. Sarvey delighted the audience with another selection and refreshments were served by the hostess lodge.

Phillipsburg extended an invitation for the next meeting. There were 15 members from Bellefonte, 1 from Lock Haven, 6 from Spring Mills and 5 from Centre Hall for the afternoon session.

Major General Butler, upon the advice of Governor Pinchot, is planning to ignore the prohibition issue in his senatorial campaign. Governor Pinchot is in politics to win. No man in a public life so heartily hates defeat. He will, therefore, utilize every resource at his command and employ every expedient in his bag of political tricks to attract to General Butler's banner the 300,000 or 400,000 wet votes he himself polled in 1930.

Let us do your Job Printing.