POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Representative in Congress.
We are authorized to announce the name of FLOYD G. HOENSTINE, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., for Congressman to represent the 23rd District, composed of Blair, Centre and Clearfield counties subject to the rules governing the Republican party, at the Primary, April 26, 1932.

Speaking of the closing of the Shaffer store in Millheim, the Journal of that town closed its comment thus: "The Shaffer stores did not find it consistent with their business policy to do any newspaper advertising, depending entirely upon the circular form to tell of their offerings. Sometimes the circulars are read—sometimes they are not. The newspaper is read always, and a weekly change of advertising is always noticeable."

CAR HITS ROCK ON NITTANY MT.; UPSETS
Arthur Corman and his daughter, of Altoona, escaped serious injury, Saturday evening, at 8:30, when the sedan in which they were riding overturned on the Centre Hall mountain. Mr. Corman was driving toward Centre Hall and did not notice some rocks that had slid from the side of the mountain until he ran on them. The rocks caught in the axle of the front wheel of the car, causing it to overturn. Neither of the occupants was injured, but the damage to the car is estimated at about $200.

We heard a man in town wish last week for just such a morning as we had on Monday, when snow was piled high and wind was sending it in all directions. We thought him a mean man. But it was work he was after. And that made all the difference.

Krumrine, and has always lived in State College or the immediate vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Krumrine were engaged in farming until 1909, when they retired and have since lived at their North Allen street home. Mrs. Krumrine was a member of the Reformed church and a most excellent neighbor. On June 4, 1928, she had a paralytic stroke and was an invalid from that time until death came to her relief.

BUY BONDS TO INSURE BUILDING OF NURSES' HOME
People of Centre county will have an opportunity to make a six per cent, tax free investment, by buying a portion of the $70,000 bond issue offered by the trustees of the Centre County Hospital, incorporated. Interest is payable semi-annually, April 1st and October 1st. The bonds can be secured by making application at your bank.

The purpose of the bond issue is to liquidate a $30,000.00 mortgage against the hospital and to build a nurses' home at an approximate cost of $40,000.00 on the property owned by the hospital.

The real estate and equipment of the Centre County Hospital is estimated at $150,000.00, with the addition of $40,000.00 for the nurses' home, will increase the value to $190,000.00.

With the growth of the hospital, and to keep its high standard in taking care of the sick, and to have an efficient training school for student nurses, the management finds that it is absolutely necessary to have a nurses' home.

By buying one $100.00 Centre County Hospital 6% gold bond and investing the interest from this bond in a savings account in your local bank, at the end of twenty years your savings account will be approximately $162.90, and with the $100.00 received from your bond the total savings account will be $262.90.

"THE WHOOFENPOOF."
The Junior class of the Centre Hall High school gave its class play recently in Grange Arcadia before two audiences on successive nights, the receipts showing a handsome net profit. The class is the largest in the history of the school, having thirty members.

The play reveals a humorous story of how a young college lad came to the old home town and took over the newspaper business of his dad, not succeeding until having first failed, due to the well-known malady of swelled parts above the shoulder. The players acted and spoke their parts to perfection, being much more at ease than the average school pupils back of the lights.

The cast of characters was as follows:
Dad Ketchel John Spyer
John Liebeck Muth Bailey
Demp Liebeck Isabel Bradford
Sheriff Riley Jack Coldron
Widow Winters Dorothy McClenahan
Mrs. Ketchel Isabel Jordan
Wheeler Ketchel Hugh Morrow
Mona Lowry Gladys Smith

The characters were trained by Roy Jamison, one of the faculty, and the youths did him and their school much credit.

CONGRESSMAN J. BANKS KURTZ IS SEEKING RENOMINATION
Congressman J. Banks Kurtz, of Altoona, new representing the Twenty-first District of Pennsylvania in the lower house of the National law making body, is a candidate for re-nomination in the new Twenty-third District composed of Blair, Centre and Clearfield counties. Blair county had formerly been attached to Bedford.

While Mr. Kurtz is pretty generally known throughout Centre and Clearfield counties, it might be due our readers to have just a little bit more intimate introduction to him.

Mr. Kurtz was born on a farm and until he had grown up, assisted with every type of farm work, attending the one-room district school in the winter. When yet in his teens he began teaching school and after two terms, saving his money to help defray his school expenses, he entered Dickinson College where he received his classical education and then entered Dickinson Law School, being admitted to the bar upon graduation and going to Altoona where he has since practiced law.

The future congressman is interested, not in the law alone, but early in life took an active part in politics. He won fame as a stump speaker and this has risen as he grew older and for some years past, his impassioned pleas for the principles of the Republican Party have been heard from Maine to the Missouri river.

Mr. Kurtz's first entry into politics saw him nominated and elected to the office of District Attorney of Blair county, a post he held with honor and distinction for two terms, totaling seven years. Soon after the end of his term as prosecuting officer, Mr. Kurtz was, in 1922, elected to congress, being re-elected with increased majorities at each succeeding election.

He is a member of the powerful Judiciary Committee in congress and is the only Central Pennsylvania congressman that has been honored with membership on a major committee.

Mr. Kurtz mimes no words where he stands on principle. He is a Republican and stands for the principles of that party. He is a dry, personally and politically, and never straddles that issue. He has a record by the United States Pension Bureau at Washington with few parallels amongst his 435 colleagues for obtaining pensions and relief for former service men.

Congressman Kurtz has been more worse at home than a three to one majority; his chances were never better in Blair than now; he has leaders in Centre county with him because of his worth and for what he stands, and Clearfield leaders working in his behalf, declare he will be a winner, by a large majority, in the new district.
