POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Representative in Congress.

We are authorized to announce the name of FLOYD G. HOENSTINE, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., for Congressman to represent the 23rd District, composed of Blair, Centre and Clearfield counties subject to the rules governing the Republican party, at the Primary, April 26, 1932.

BOOSTING BOOSTERS.

The Huntingdon Monitor has this to say of two newspaper men in this congressional district whose names will be on the coming primary ballot: Two of Central Pennsylvania's prominent newspaper editors, John A. Short, of the Clearfield Republican, Clearfield and George R. Meek, of the Bellefonte Watchman, Bellefonte, are on the Democratic ballot. Mr. Short for Delegate-at-Large and Mr. Meek for Alternate Delegate-at-Large. Both of these men are well schooled in the politics of the day, and know the pulse of their people. They can be depended upon to represent the wishes of the Democratic voters if elected to go to the Chicago convention. Both Short and Meek are big measures in newspaper work, and they won't be lacking in giving the Democratic voters real service in naming a winning candidate.

First H. S. Baseball Game.

On Friday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, the first baseball game of the season of the High School League will be played on the local athletic field between the local High and Snow Shoe High.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Installation of officers of the Centre Hall Lodge, I. O. O. F., will be held this (Thursday) evening. District Deputy John Mong will be the installing officer. A good attendance of members is desired.

The Richelieu Theatre, Bellefonte, promises an array of motion pictures during April that are the "cream of the crop." Patrons of this theatre are thus assured of a month's splendid entertainment. Watch the program from week to week.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan M. Decker, who have resided in Shamokin for several years past, are again at the Decker homestead, Decker Valley, Seven Mountains, where they will reside for the present. Mr. Decker was engaged at the carpenter trade while living in Shamokin.

A. H. Stover, the virile young member of the firm of Hosterman & Stover company, of Millheim, was a pleasant caller at this office on Thursday evening. He and the firm's electrician, W. E. Weaver, had just returned from a sales convention and exhibit of Majestic refrigerators in Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburgh. Outstanding news to prospective refrigerator buyers was the announcement by Majestic that new price levels had been established, with a new low of $99.50.

DEATHS.

STOVER.—One of the oldest ladies in this section passed away with the death, on last Thursday, of Mrs. Sarah Stover at the home of a daughter, Mrs. William McClenahan, in Centre Hall, where she had made her home during the past two years. Death was due to complications, resulting in the wasting away of the body. She was close to death for a week or more, having lost all sense of pain during her latter days.

Deceased was a daughter of Henry and Hannah Beckel Dunkle and was born in the vicinity of Jacksonville, November 27, 1847, making her age 84 years, 4 months and 3 days. Her husband, George E. Stover, died twenty-six years ago. The family lived for many years prior to Mr. Stover's death at Earlstown and engaged in farming, after that time the mother made her home among her fourteen children, all of whom are living at this time. The children are: William H., Centre Hall; Otto D., Berea, Ohio; Rev. James E. Montgomery; Mrs. Mollie Ishler, State College; Eliza, wife of J. H. Durst, Centre Hall; Jennie, wife of Alvin S. Meyer, and Ira I., Altoona; Abner, Berea, Ohio; Elsie, wife of William McClenahan, Centre Hall; Roy, Altoona; Miss Anna, Wausauke, Wis.; Charles E., Altoona; Grace, wife of Orvis Weaver, Centre Hall, and G. Fred, near Potters Mills.

There are forty-one grandchildren and thirty-three great-grandchildren, all living. Also a brother, Samuel Dunkle, in Montgomery.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, with interment in the local cemetery, the last rites having been conducted by Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, pastor of the Lutheran church, of which denomination the deceased was long a member and regular attendant when not prevented by sickness.

RUNKLE.—John Harvey Runkle, a well known and highly respected farmer of Potter township, passed away at the home of his son, Bruce Runkle, on the Dr. S. C. Runkle farm, near Centre Hall, on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, of complications, after an illness of two weeks. He was aged 75 years and 10 months.

Mr. Runkle was a son of John K. and Luzinda (Geary) Runkle, and for all but a period of eight years, his entire life was spent in Centre county. His other residence was in Altoona. He was a lifelong member of the Reformed church. About 54 years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Agnes Anna Stover, who preceded him in death five years ago. He is survived by two sons, Bruce E. and Wallace S., and the following brothers and sisters: Dr. S. S. Runkle, Philadelphia; Rev. J. M. Runkle, D. D. Altoona; Mrs. W. A. McClellan, Rockwood; and Mrs. J. B. White, State College.

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. D. R. Keener, of the Reformed church, at the home of the deceased's son, with whom he lived since the death of Mrs. Runkle, on Monday forenoon. Interment was made at Tusseyville cemetery in the family plot.

KNOHR.—Mrs. John B. Knohr, of 42 North 10th street, Reading, passed out of this life from complications, Friday night. Funeral services were held on Tuesday from the home. Before marriage to Mr. Knohr, the deceased was Miss Rebecca Logan, a native of Reading. She is survived by an only son, Paul Knohr, of Reading. Her husband, who is a brother of Mrs. E. M. Hoyett, of town, died in May, 1931. She was aged 75 years. She was the last survivor of her family, and was the only daughter in a family of six.

WARNER.—After a half hour's illness from a heart attack, Frank W. Warner, some years ago assistant cashier in the Moshannon National Bank, Philipsburg, died on Saturday morning. He was born at Belleville and was aged 53 years, 5 months and 25 days. He was a son of Mrs. Anna Warner, of Belleville.

On Sept. 6, 1904, he was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Dolbeer, at Belleville, who survives with three sons.—Frank W. Jr., Schenectady, N. Y.; Dudley D., a senior at Penn State and Curtis W., of Los Angeles, Calif.

STOVER.—Ralph E. Stover, long a prominent citizen of Haines township, died at his home in Aaronsburg, where he lived since retiring from farm life. Interment was made Monday forenoon in St. Paul's Reformed church cemetery, east of Aaronsburg. Rev. G. A. Fred Griesing, pastor of the Reformed church, of which the deceased was a member, officiated.

Mr. Stover was twice married, the first wife having been Miss Maggie M. Stover, of Haines township, now deceased. To this union there are two children, namely, Milton E., living at Coburn, and Lloyd W., formerly of Millheim, but now living in Phoenixville, where he is cashier of a bank. The second wife, who survives her husband, was Miss Ida Burrell. There were no children born to this union.

ALBRIGHT.—Emma Albright, wife of Edward Albright, died at her home at Spring Bank, following an illness of a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Jacob and Rebecca (Workman) Dunkle and was born in Aaronsburg, and was aged 50 years, 8 months and 26 days.

She was married November 26, 1914, to Edward Albright, who survives with one daughter, Edith E. Albright, of Millheim, and her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Dunkle. Also surviving are three brothers: Franklin L. Dunkle, of Washington, D. C.; John B. Dunkle and Harry M. Dunkle, both of Millheim.

Much of her life was spent in Millheim where her parents maintained a home. Funeral services were held Wednesday last week at the home Rev. A. C. Paulhamus officiating, interment in Fairview cemetery.

WERT.—Adah (Baker) Wert, wife of Earl H. Wert, died at the family home in Collingswood, N. J., Tuesday afternoon of last week, following an illness of six weeks' duration of pneumonia, according to telephone advice received by Postmaster W. L. Swamp, of Millheim.

Through their visits to the home of Mr. Wert's mother, Mrs. J. J. Fiedler, at Aaronsburg, the family had a large circle of friends there, who are saddened at the sudden and untimely bereavement.

Surviving are the deceased's parents, her husband, and one son, Earl Jr.

WITMER.—Alfred Linn, aged four years and one month, son of John E. and Lottie Garner Witmer, died on Saturday at the parental home, south of Linden Hall, from the dread whooping cough. The child had been delicate from its birth, was one of a pair of twins, and one of the younger of eleven children. Besides his parents he is survived by the following sisters and brothers: Margaret, Eleanor, Bernice, Grace, Ruth, Jean, Paul, Pauline, Winn and Betty Lou, all at home.

THOMAS.—Miss Eliza Miller Thomas died at the home of her niece, Mrs. John Porter Lyon, on West Curtin street, Bellefonte, Friday, as the result of a paralytic stroke received the day previous to her death. She was born in Howard. Had shelled until April 11, she would have been 99 years old. She is survived by one brother and a sister, Clifford S. Thomas, of Potters Mills, and Mrs. James B. Lane, Bellefonte; and is survived also by a number of nieces and nephews. Miss Thomas has lived in Bellefonte practically all her life and for the last 15 years had made her home with her niece, Miss Lyon. She was a member of the Society of Friends. Funeral services were held at the Lyon home, Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Wm. G. Thompson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.

BENNER.—Wm. Henry Benner, of Bellefonte, died very suddenly at his home Friday evening. His daughter, Edna, walked into the kitchen about 5 o'clock and found her father lying dead on the floor. He had been in apparently good health previous to his death, which was caused by a heart attack. He was born at Rock Forge, Centre county, 61 years ago.

Surviving are the following daughters and sons: Edna and Donald Benner, at home; Mrs. Willard Neff and Mrs. Gordon, of Bellefonte; Samuel Benner, of Akron, O. Two sisters and a brother also survive: Mrs. Cyrus Gearhart, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Lloyd Womser, of Axe Mann; and Samuel Benner, of Decatur, Ill. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the home in charge of Rev. M. G. Piper; interment in Myers cemetery.

Members of the Bellefonte Kiwanis Club heard an address on "City Planning" at the meeting Tuesday noon in the Penn Belle hotel. The guest speaker was Prof. Julius E. Kaulfuss, connected with the Highway Engineering Dept. at Penn State. Many towns have just grown up, the speaker stated, and have many defects and faults such as too narrow streets, poor housing in places, lack of public parks, slum sections. City planning must deal therefore frequently with the correction of mistakes that have been made in the past.

Fred Loveland, day clerk at the Penn-Bell hotel, Bellefonte, and who also conducted the Penn State Sweet Shop, voluntarily surrendered himself. He was wanted for embezzlement by the Greyhound Bus Co. He furnished a bond in the sum of $2500 and was released. His shortage is about $1100.

TRAVEL GAVEL PRESENTED MASTER CENTRE CO. GRANGE

Pomona Meeting in Grange Arcadia Largely Attended—Program Put On By Bedford County Grange.

"The Travel Gavel" was presented L. E. Biddle, Master of the Centre County Pomona Grange, by D. Ross Nicodemus, Master of Bedford County Pomona Grange, at a meeting held in Grange Arcadia, Centre Hall, on Saturday. The latter master received the gavel from the master of the Blair County Pomona, and on the third Saturday in May, Mr. Biddle will present it to the Master of Clinton County Grange, at Avis, and so it will continue on until all the County Grange Masters have received it, and after that the gavel will go to the State Master with due ceremony.

The Bedford County Grange put on the gavel presentation program, and an elaborate one it was. A very delightful feature was the group singing of familiar songs, with Samuel Koontz as conductor.

The play put on was entitled "The Dearest Thing in Boots," (ladies' boots, by the way) and portrayed the lack of good salesmanship on the part of a young man who could never make a sale unless dad came to the rescue. There were also songs by a quartet of ladies, readings and orchestral music. Addresses were made by State Master E. B. Dargatz, Past Master W. F. Hill, J. A. Boak, Past Overseer of Fayette county, and Kenzie Bagshaw, member of the State Grange Executive committee.

There were seventy-seven visitors from Granges in Bedford, Blair, Huntingdon, Fayette, Lawrence and Clinton counties.

The morning session was devoted to regular routine Grange work. The address of welcome was by R. C. Blaney, county agent, and the response by V. Ross Nicodemus. Seven new members were admitted, reports of committees, and the adoption of resolutions printed below.

At the noon hour Progress Grange served a roast pork and beef dinner, with all the trimmings, to the 155 who sat around the tables. The ladies of the local grange played host in the most generous style.

The resolutions read and adopted were:

Be it resolved, that the Centre County Pomona Grange favors the curtailment of Government expenses, viz: Eliminating unnecessary positions, commissions, bureaus and departments, that will not greatly effect the necessary efficiency of the National, State and local governments.

Also, that we urge both the State and Federal Governments to balance their budgets by reducing expenses rather than attempting to make up the deficit by levying additional taxes.

Resolved, that we approve the stand of the National and State Granges in opposing bond issues, both State and local.

Resolved, that we affirm the stand of the National and State Granges on the enforcement of the 18th amendment as it was intended to be when enacted.

Resolved, that the Master of Pomona Grange shall appoint a committee to confer with local and county officials with a view of securing a reduction in taxation.

The last resolution made a plea to patrons of the order to refrain from buying new farm machinery and equipments at present prices because of the fact that the price asked for them in out of reason when compared with the price of products the machinery is used in producing.

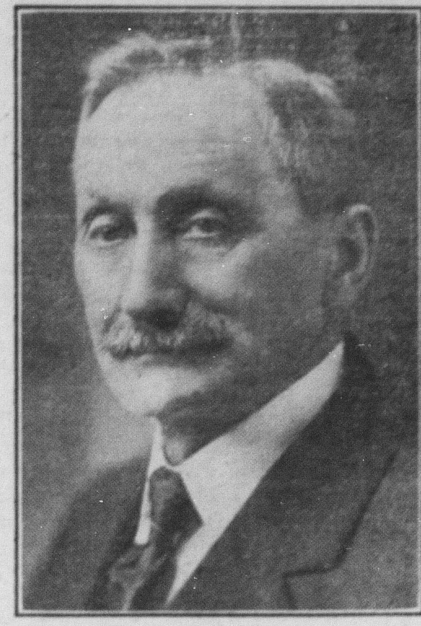

The committee on resolutions was composed of Messrs. Kyle Alexander, D. A. Grove and W. F. Way.

Card of Thanks.

We desire in this manner to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent bereavement in the death of our father, John H. Runkle; also, for beautiful floral tributes, and use of cars—Bruce E. and Wallace S. Runkle and families.
